

Sydnee Holcer

Mountain Home, AR

(870)736-2058

sydneeholcerbusiness@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

In expanding my experience, I plan to obtain more of the necessary skills to become an English Teacher. For example, improving interpersonal relationships will be a significant step in the right direction. Besides that, one of the greatest benefits of obtaining experience will be growing from the positives and negatives of those experiences.

EDUCATION —

- Norfolk High School,
Norfolk, AR
Graduated 2022 with 3.74 GPA
- University of Central
Arkansas, Conway, AR
Major: English Education
ELA Endorsement
Current 4.0 GPA
Presidential Scholar: Fall 2022 -
Present
Graduating May 2026

EXPERIENCE

- ♦ March 2021-May 2022
Crew Member • Drive Thru/Carhop • Sonic Drive-In, Mountain Home
- ♦ May 2022 – January 2024 (seasonal)
Classroom Teacher (Age 2-3) • Kidspiration Pediatric Daycare, Mountain Home
- ♦ August 2023 – May 2024
Supplemental Instruction Leader • University of Central Arkansas Student Success, Conway
- ♦ May 2024 – August 2024
Assistant Teacher (Age 0-9) • Noah's Ark Pre-School, Mountain Home
- ♦ November 2024 – January 2025
Editor • Independent non-fiction author, Conway

Each of these experiences has shaped me as a person:

- At Sonic, I learned teamwork and money management.
- At Kidspiration and Noah's Ark, I learned proper childcare and interpersonal relations.
- With each employment endeavor, I learned more about organization, patience, and professionalism.

KEY SKILLS —

Communication
Money Management
Time Management
Critical Thinking
Patience
Organization
Teamwork
Leadership
Computer Skills
Goal Oriented

COMMUNITY

Other Volunteer Experience:

- Teacher's Assistant at Norfolk High School
- Mentor in Norfolk High School Mentorship Program
- Service Learning as a tutor through UCA's Disciplinary Literacy course
- Unofficial Tutor of English as a Second Language for Japanese Exchange Students at UCA

REFERENCES

- Laura Marshall, Education Professor UCA – (501) 339-4559
- Robin Gembka, Former Supervisor at Kidspiration – (870) 404-6156
- Jesse Crowley, Band Director NHS – (870) 404-6644