I am a journalism major with customer service experience and working well with others. I'm a creative person with an interest in social media. I also enjoy different styles of writing and art.

Work Experience

Social Media Intern

The University of Rhode Island - Kingston, RI

February 2022 to May 2023

In this position, I worked in the Center for Nonviolence and Peace Studies at the University of Rhode Island. I communicated with my supervisor about events or other notices needed to be posted on their Twitter and Instagram accounts. Sometimes I would write articles or make newsletters about events and accomplishments made by people associated with the center.

Deli Clerk

Donelan's Supermarket - Wayland, MA

November 2021 to August 2022

As a Deli Clerk, I learned how to handle customer service in a timely fashion. I also learned how to work with the people around me and always helped when asked and was firm when I needed help.
