TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

I read with interest the posting for the job position on your website. I believe I possess the necessary skills and entry experience you are seeking, and I would make a valuable addition to the company.

I'm currently a full-time student at Southern New Hampshire University and I have a passion for Accounting and Business Industry. I understand that I'm new and have a lot to learn to succeed in my career but I'm willing to learn more to improve my skills, do whatever it takes, and take extra steps to achieve my goals. This is a good opportunity that allows me to get to know more about the company and the industry as well as have a good connection with many professionals who have experience and work towards the common goal. This also creates a strong motivation for me to try my best every day to keep learning and improving myself. I truly appreciate the opportunity to be considered for this opportunity and I believe that my time and effort would be better spent helping you in this capacity. I wish you the best and I hope that we can speak further about this position.

Thank you so much and I'm looking forward to hearing from you soon regarding your consideration.

SINCERELY,

THU HO
