

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

Presented To

Joann Bishop

On June 25, 2025, Joann Bishop was recognized by the Law and Disorder Club for their outstanding effort in submitting an insightful essay titled "Why They Think the Boston Strangler Was Albert DeSalvo: Why or Why Not?" during the Criminal Shadows Webinar Series. This certificate honors their thoughtful analysis and engagement with the complex historical and forensic questions surrounding the Boston Strangler case, contributing significantly to the club's mission of fostering critical thinking and discussion in criminal justice studies.
