

CINDY MANESS

cindy.maness@snhu.edu | 731-249-4982 | 1417 Poplar Springs Bargerton Rd,
Lexington, TN 38351

SUMMARY

Dedicated psychology major with hands-on experience in ministry, counseling, and management. Skilled in guiding individuals through challenges, fostering personal growth, and cultivating strong community connections. Proven leadership and organizational abilities with a passion for empowering others and promoting mental well-being.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Children’s Ministry Director

Jan 2024 - Present

- Led and organized engaging programs and activities to nurture spiritual growth and development in children ages 2-13.
- Recruited, trained, and managed a team of volunteers to deliver impactful ministry initiatives, ensuring a safe and welcoming environment.
- Collaborated with parents and church leadership to develop curriculum and events that align with the church's mission and values.

Weld Inspector, MIG

Nov 2003-Sept 2004

- Conducted thorough inspections of welds to ensure compliance with quality standards, specifications, and safety regulations.
- Identified and documented defects, recommended corrective actions, and collaborated with welders to maintain production quality.
- Utilized precision testing equipment to assess weld integrity, contributing to the successful completion of [X] projects.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Psychology

Sept 2024- present

Southern New Hampshire University

- Major in Psychology with concentration in counseling
- GPA: 4.0

Associate in Psychology

Jan 2006-Dec 2006

Jackson State Community College

- Final CGPA: 4.0

KEY SKILLS

- Interpersonal and Communication Skills
- Leadership and Team Management
- Program Development
- Quality Assurance and Inspection

- Problem-Solving and Critical Thinking
- Organizational and Time Management Skills
- Empathy and Conflict Resolution