‘Bon Ap-Pet-Treat’ Sponsors Shelter-Animal Adoption Event in Local Community to Honor the Company’s 5-year Anniversary

To celebrate the company’s five-year anniversary, Bon Ap-Pet-Treat Pet Food Co. is partnering with five local rescue shelters to host the “Paw-some Adoption Weekend” from November 29th through December 1st, in Madison County, Alabama. The shelters involved will bring their adoption-eligible pets downtown to Big Spring Park to engage with local families and find potential new homes in time for the holiday season. After situating the animals in play pens around the park, Bon Ap-Pet-Treat will sponsor a variety of local food trucks and offer free animal supplies such as toys and leashes for those that attend. In addition, Bon Ap-Pet-Treat has pledged to provide a year’s supply of their best-selling pet food to families that officially adopt a shelter animal during this event.

“The heart of our company has always been about protecting and supporting our furry friends,” said Beverly DiMarco, founder and CEO of Bon-Ap-Pet-Treat. “Our mission extends beyond simply serving amazing pet food. Through our products, and with our resources, we aim to reach into the homes of pet owners, empowering them to create and embrace animal-loving communities.”

If any animals remain unadopted after this weekend, Bon Ap-Pet-Treat will continue to cover their food, supply, and health fees for the remainder of their time in the shelter. The adoption of these animals will also be strongly promoted through the company’s employee benefits program.
