Dear Sir/ Madam,

I am an ardent, responsible, goal oriented team worker who is seeking employment. I am willing to work assiduously at whatever task I am given, and I am also willing to learn new strategies and techniques that the job requires. I believe that working for your organization will allow me to acquire specific skills while improving my professionalism and I will also be a significant asset to your organization, as I will ensure that client's needs are met.

I am available for an interview to discuss how I can contribute to your organization's success at a time most convenient for you, and should my application be favorably considered, I am available to start working at any time convenient to you.

Enclosed is a copy of my resume to give you further specifics on my background.

Best Regards,

.....

Jamar Williams (Mr.)
