PROJECTS

MrBeast Statistics — Project founder and former owner

MrBeast Statistics (@MrBeast_Stats on 'X') is an online social media project designed as an entertaining information center for MrBeast fans and statistics enthusiasts, publishing his journey of growth in the online world. The account is followed by more than 70,000 individuals and is utilized by the MrBeast content production team to monitor video performance and channel growth. I created the project in August 2020, and transferred ownership after four years of administration and management in October 2024.

Team Ace — School mascot

Lindbergh High School inaugurated its new school mascot, Ace, in 2024, and I was among four students who successfully auditioned to perform in full costume during various school, sporting, and community events. Members of Team Ace were responsible for creating the personality highlighted in social media posts and videos, as well as caring for the suit and maintaining the confidentiality of their fellow team members.
