

National Institute for Innovation and Technology
MOVING INDUSTRY FORWARD

This certificate is awarded to

Armando Dipp

for completion of the

Vet S.T.E.P. (Semiconductor Training and Experience Program).

This hands-on program in combination with an eight-week industry internship and military experience as a

(Navy) Chief Fire Controlman AEGIS (FCAC)

aligns with the national advanced manufacturing competency guidelines for

Semiconductor Manufacturing Technician Associate

in the semiconductor industry as recognized by industry employers.

Signed the 19th day of April 2024

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Michael A. Russo', written over a horizontal line.

Michael A. Russo - President and CEO

National Institute for Innovation and Technology

The national competency guidelines are established through the NIIT Competency Alignment Program and are recognized by participating employers and industry associations in the National Talent Hub.

Visit www.niit.org