SUMMARY

My top goal is to practice international law and eventually work for the UN by promoting justice, equality, and world peace. Using legal frameworks to uphold human rights, advance equity, and encourage global collaboration greatly inspires me. I'm an ambitious, curious, and purpose-driven person who likes to participate in political and intellectual conversations and debate global concerns. I want to utilize the law as a tool to have a long-lasting effect on the world, driven by empathy, tenacity, and a desire to serve others.

EXPERIENCE

Modern Montessori Model United Nations – Amman, Jordan. September 2021

As a representative of Lebanon in the UN Women Committee at a Model UN conference, I gave an engaging introductory address about the precarious state of women's rights in Afghanistan under the Taliban. I accurately researched and presented Lebanon's stance, promoting international collaboration, aid supported by the UN, sanctions against gender injustice, and grassroots empowerment for Afghan women and girls. As a co-author of a resolution addressing discriminatory nationality laws and advocating for equal citizenship rights for women globally, I actively participated in discussion and negotiation. Throughout the conference, I showed excellent leadership, tact, and professionalism, and I was recognized for my exceptional work and contribution with an Honorable Mention Award.

Kings Academy Model United Nations – Amman, Jordan. April 2022

At a three-day Model UN conference, I represented Sweden as a delegate in the General Assembly. I gave an opening address that showed excellent public speaking and diplomatic skills. I wrote and co-sponsored three resolutions about equal access to education in poor countries, protection of Indigenous populations in North America, and protestor rights and free speech. Through research and cooperation with foreign delegates, I accurately represented Sweden's foreign policy while actively participating in discussions, caucuses, and negotiations. In addition to getting practical experience in leadership and international relations, I was recognized with an Honorable Mention for my professionalism and clear communication.

Youth Model United Nations – Amman, Jordan. July 2022

At a three-day Model UN conference, I spoke as Tanzania's representative on the World Health Organization (WHO) Committee and gave an introductory statement on pharmaceutical counterfeiting and fake medical items. I co-sponsored a resolution advocating stricter drug control, international collaboration, and public awareness after doing a lot of research on global health policy. To reach an agreement on difficult global health concerns, I worked with foreign delegates in discussions, caucuses, and negotiations. I developed my leadership, diplomacy, and strategic communication abilities and received an Honorable Mention Award for outstanding work.

Internship Al Dawood – Amman, Jordan. June – August 2024

To assist with attorney appraisal and case strategy, I performed preliminary legal research by combining statutes, case law, and regulations. I kept orderly private case files and evidence while helping to prepare legal agreements, contracts, discovery materials, and case summaries. To gain a better understanding of litigation strategy and professional communication, I documented legal arguments and courtroom procedures while observing attorney-client meetings, hearings, and depositions. Along with managing communications, scheduling, digitizing documents, and maintaining legal management systems, I also assisted with day-to-day office operations.

Job shadow Stanislaus district attorney's office – Modesto, USA. October 2024

I gained a thorough understanding of criminal procedure, evidentiary rules, and trial advocacy by observing courtroom proceedings, such as the 2012 McClure Road homicide trial. This helped me to better understand complex criminal litigation from investigation to trial outcomes, including arraignments, hearings, and trials. I worked with the DA on daily caseloads, watching as the prosecutor made decisions about charges and plea deals, presented evidence, and questioned witnesses. In a fast-paced setting, I worked with legal personnel to prepare cases while upholding professionalism, confidentiality, and appropriate courtroom etiquette.

Court Observer Program – Stanislaus County Superior Court – Modesto, CA. February – May 2026

Gained a comprehensive understanding of criminal and civil court procedures by completing 60 hours of courtroom observation at the Stanislaus County Superior Court in Modesto. Observed a wide variety of legal proceedings, including arraignments, preliminary hearings, jury trials, sentencing hearings, and civil litigation, which offered firsthand insight into the judicial process from the filing of a case through its resolution. Carefully documented courtroom proceedings through detailed notetaking while analyzing legal arguments, judicial reasoning, witness testimony, attorney advocacy, and jury procedures. Developed a strong understanding of courtroom protocol, evidentiary rules, trial advocacy, and the distinct roles of judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys, jurors, witnesses, and court staff. Strengthened critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and professional communication skills by evaluating case strategies, seeing legal decision-making, and maintaining professionalism, confidentiality, and proper courtroom etiquette throughout the program.

PAID WORK

Best Rv, customer service representative – Turlock, USA. September 2023 - July 2025

I resolved customer issues with empathy and professionalism, even under pressure, which increased customer loyalty and repeat business. I smoothly managed lines and crowds, restocked displays with beautiful arrangements, and advised customers using my product knowledge. I helped customers navigate the corporate website, place online orders, and choose RV parts while keeping accurate records for follow-up. I met professional development goals and implemented a rewards program to improve client interactions and repeat business.

Babysitter – Riverbank, USA. March 2023 – May 2024

I provided attentive childcare by including children in games, puzzles, reading, and storytelling to promote language and learning development. I provided emotional support and stability to upset youngsters, as well as effective resolution approaches for sibling disagreements. I made nutritious meals, kept the area clean and sanitary, and demonstrated daily routines such as sharing, organizing, and handwashing. I developed solid, trusting relationships with families by communicating positively and providing care that was personalized to each child's requirements.

TK8 sports, PE couch – Stanislaus County, USA. December 2025 – January 2026

I worked as a physical education coach for a program that was offered after school and involved young children. I was a positive role model for them and helped expose them to new sports like pickleball, soccer, and basketball every day for almost three hours. I also taught them stretches and helped them learn new sports. I was able to acquire abilities in cheerfulness, friendliness, and mentoring with this experience as well as problem solving and leadership. Additionally, I learned how to inspire teamwork and enthusiasm within an environment that was both entertaining and helpful.

VOLUNTEERING

Tikiyet um ali – Amman Jordan. April 2022

With almost 300 orphaned children, I planned and led several Ramadan events that focused on compassion and community building while fostering inclusive, happy experiences. In addition to supervising activities, meal delivery, and child safety, I oversaw all event logistics, including scheduling, budgeting, volunteer coordination, fundraising, and partnerships. me and my friends obtained Trax Jordan as a venue sponsor, worked with volunteers, donors, and neighborhood organizations, and advertised events on social media and in marketing materials. To assist outreach, fundraising, and future programming, I also organized sports-themed charity days and recorded events.

Primary care giver for my father – January 2022 – current

I delivered full-time, compassionate care to aging and disabled family members, assisting with mobility, personal hygiene, prescription administration, and everyday activities. I kept a safe, clean-living environment, prepared meals based on specific health needs, and drove people to appointments and errands on schedule. I coordinated complex medical treatment with healthcare providers, kept accurate records, and used mobility aids including walkers and wheelchairs. I also displayed great multitasking, emergency response, and basic first-aid abilities to provide consistent, high-quality treatment.
