The Graduate Ambassador Program (GAP) is designed to positively affect the prospective student experience, nurture graduate/alumni development, and directly impact our student-centered culture. Our GAP representatives are passionate about Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, fun, articulate and dedicated to bringing quality students to our university.

Graduate Ambassador Program (GAP)

I. Graduate Student Ambassador Selection/Eligibility. Two methods of selection:
   1. Application: Interested students or alumni can apply for the program.
   2. Recommendation: Students can gain direct acceptance into the program via Graduate Program Director recommendation

II. Length of Service
   1. 3 Semester Terms
   2. Renewal subject to program length, and final evaluation
   3. Time commitment is less than three hours per month.

III. Responsibilities
   A. Attend an Ambassador Training Orientation
   B. Respond to prospective and admitted student inquiries
   C. Attend and represent the program at important events throughout the year including: open houses, information sessions, and online orientations.
D. Participate in email communication that pertains to the graduate program experience. E. Contributing regularly to the program-specific Facebook fan page.
F. Providing feedback on ways to improve the prospective student experience at Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions.
G. Represent the program at Open Houses and possibly participate in conferences.
H. Contributing regularly to social media content
I. Contributing to a blog about your experience at RMUOHP—studies/educational experience, learning environment, work, colleagues

IV. Benefits
A. Network with other graduate leaders
B. Gain more information about the opportunities that RMUoHP has to offer
C. Share your passion for RMUoHP with prospective students!
D. Share your positive personal experiences and leave an impression on future students
E. University Merchandise store discounts
F. Each ambassador, serving for a full calendar year is gifted a marbled, embossed GAP plaque commemorating their service to the University

If you are interested in learning more about our Graduate Ambassador Program, please feel free to contact: Erik Kubina at ekubina@rmuohp.edu. Erik will be able to give you insight into this tremendous opportunity.