

Dr. Lynda D. Woodruff Memorial Scholarship

In honor of Dr. Lynda D. Woodruff, Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions has made available a scholarship that offers students from a diverse background the opportunity to receive a scholarship to assist in the expenses in the pursuit of a DPT degree.

Who can apply for a Woodruff Memorial Scholarship through Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions?

Academically eligible DPT students that represent a diverse cultural, ethnic, racial or gender background.

How can I apply for the Dr. Lynda D. Woodruff Memorial scholarship?

Applications can be submitted by going to the rmuohp.edu scholarship home page and click on The “Complete Application” link that is located at the bottom of the scholarship titles. As part of the application, you will need to submit an autobiographic essay describing yourself and how you plan to help those that are in need of healthcare services.

Are there admission or grade requirements for Dr. Lynda D. Woodruff Memorial scholarship?

Students must be admitted to RMUoHP and registered for a full-time class schedule in order to apply (including online or Independent Study courses). Those who are selected for a scholarship will be required to maintain satisfactory academic progress toward graduation.

What is the application deadline for Dr. Lynda D. Woodruff Memorial scholarship?

There will be three periods of time throughout the year that scholarship applications will be accepted. They will be accepted on November, March and July 1st of each year. The deadline for each of these application periods will be the 15th of the months as stated on the schedule.

How will I know if I was selected for the Dr. Lynda D. Woodruff Memorial scholarship?

Scholarship awardees will be notified within 60 days of the receipt of their completed application.

If I have previously received the Dr. Lynda D. Woodruff Memorial scholarship, will I automatically receive one next year or do I need to reapply?

A student is eligible to receive a scholarship once a year. Applications can be submitted each application period until an applicant is awarded the scholarship. If you are interested in receiving another scholarship of the same type, you need to submit a new application. Scholarships are not automatically renewed.