

Written Prayer ©

Praying for Others

Take a moment to bring the person you are praying for to your mind _____ .
write name above

Dear God,

I lift up a prayer on behalf of my precious loved one, whose real name is the Holy Child of God. I am a witness to the light and truth of who they are, in oneness with myself. They are not their past, their mistakes, or the false images they have made. They are as You created them, Infinite Spirit; free of all limits, loved, safe, healed, and whole. I acknowledge the Light of Christ within them and their eternal right to happiness, peace, health, and abundance. They are washed clean of all limiting thoughts of sin, sickness, lack, or judgment of any kind. There is nothing they have ever done that has altered the truth of who they are. What You created within them is perfect, whole, and complete, now and forever. Their innocence is preserved throughout time and eternity, where the radiance of Your Love shines through them and from them. Today, I declare their freedom and my own from the illusions of sin, lack, and suffering of any kind. Our Holy Mind is pure, clear, wise, and invulnerable, untouched by time or illusion. I am a witness to their infinite spirit and freedom from the past. This eternal moment of now holds our True Identity in the Light of Christ; undefiled by perception or illusion. My mind is calm as I entrust their future to the certainty of Your Love, the clarity of Your Wisdom, and the shelter of Your Eternal Light. I celebrate our shining innocence and freedom from the past, as the Holy Spirit undoes all the consequences of any wrong decision. Our Holy Home is forever in Your Heart, and we are blessed on earth as it is in Heaven. We take our place as the Light of the World, where there are no shadows and every seeming obstacle is removed before we reach it. We accept Your Will as our own, where happiness shines all the days of our eternal life.

Thy Will be done.

Amen

Audio Prayers are not to be used while driving or using machinery.