Prayer #7 – Making a Reservation for Peace

Dear God,

I'd like to call ahead and make a reservation for peace. Regardless of my circumstances or the severity of my challenges, I trust that You are walking with me and there is nothing to fear. Thank You, in advance, for a happy, peaceful, abundant and miraculous outcome to my situation that is far beyond my greatest expectations. I trust that You are skillfully handling every detail on my behalf. With Your Divine guidance, I am assured that the right people, resources, events and circumstances are being perfectly aligned for my greatest happiness and highest good. I gratefully accept the abundance of Your blessings and trust that Your swift response to my request is a natural part of Your love for me. Thank You for replacing all of my fears, misperceptions, illusions and self-judgments with the abundance of Your love and miracles. Thy will be done. Amen

Prayer #95 - Family Gatherings

Dear God,

My family is planning a gathering and I have some concerns. There are certain people attending that have a tendency to cause conflict or discomfort for others. I am learning that my thoughts create my experiences, therefore, I will not use my fearful thoughts to delay the happiness that is Your will for us. I'm willing to release the past and let go of all of my fears and judgments. Please help me to see each member of my family as whole and complete and capable of treating each other with warmth, love and respect. Thank You for healing my mind of all concerns, so I can look forward to this gathering with joyful enthusiasm and eager anticipation. Thank You for the great blessing of Your love, compassion and harmony in the eyes and hearts of every one present. Thy will be done. Amen

134. Weddings

Dear God,

I am planning my wedding and look forward to the joy of being married. I call upon Your love to guide us as we go forward together. With You as our Guide, we can walk confidently in peace, trusting that all of our needs will be abundantly met. Thank You for giving us patience, compassion, acceptance and understanding in our relationship. Thank You for sanctifying and strengthening our love with Your light, such that no darkness can come to us. If we forget the Truth about one another, please remind us, so we can get back to the peace and happiness that is Your will for us. Thank You, in advance, for the most beautiful wedding in all respects. I am making a reservation for peace so that all those who join us or whose lives we touch, will be blessed by our union. Thank You for the blessing of Your love on our lives together. Thy will be done. Amen
