What Is Evangelism?

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound. Isaiah 61:1

Evangelism is an act of compassion. It is the greatest act of mercy one human being can show to another. Evangelism is loving those that are hurting, those that are broken, those that are forgotten, those that are poor.

True evangelism is not about building our ego, building up church numbers (for the sake of vanity), or any other selfish agenda. True evangelism is about Jesus, not ourselves.

See, when the message of the cross gets inside of you, there is no more room for self. It's all about him. He is everything to you. He is your life and your reason for living. He is your highest thought. He is your Savior and your King. He is your best friend.

No, there's no pride in telling others about Jesus. You glory only in the privilege of being able to tell someone how He set you free. You don't see the homosexual, the adulterer, the crack addict, the dead-beat dad, the murderer, the drug dealer as being somehow inferior to yourself. They are painful reminders of what you used to be.

They are harassed and helpless... sheep without a shepherd. They are without hope, without purpose, without God. They are weary. They are hungry. And they don't know where to turn.

What is evangelism?

It's one beggar telling another beggar where to find bread...

-David Maxson
