“It costs God nothing, so far as we know, to create nice things; but to convert rebellious wills cost Him crucifixion.” – C. S. Lewis

“The cross is not the terrible end to an otherwise god fearing and happy life, but it meets us at the beginning of our communion with Christ.” – Dietrich Bonhoeffer

We arrive at the end of a four week trek that began with an open challenge to us all to reconsider how we view the cross of Jesus Christ. Throughout this process, we have declared the cross to be revolutionary. It changes lives, it redefines everything, and it alters eternal destinations.

“All of heaven is interested in the cross of Christ, hell afraid of it, while men are the only ones to ignore its meaning.” – Oswald Chambers

Perhaps the most discouraging thing is when we fall into the trap of thinking the cross of Christ is a decorative item, a 'thing' to add to our t-shirts or book covers. When that happens, we fall into a far more dangerous place of ignoring the meaning of the cross. What this study has shown me over the past few weeks is that I must be moved by the cross, its events, and the revolution that began that day.
