"3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, 4 since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, 5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, 6 which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and increasing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, 7 just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf 8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

9 And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; 11 being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins." --- Colossians 1:3-14

- I thank God for all of you... on a daily basis I am deeply encouraged by the love and support I receive from you. I know of your faith, your love, and your compassion.

- I seek joy in a world that is seemingly aimed at removing it. Earthly things may make me happy (or joyful) for a moment, but it is fleeting and cannot compare to the joy found in a life lived in Christ.

- What does it say about me if I cannot find joy in recognizing my lost status before coming to know Christ and my found status after?

Praying we grow closer to God in our studies today...
-SW
