"Sing the wondrous love of Jesus, sing His mercy and His grace: In the mansions bright and blessed, He'll prepare for us a place."

"Come, we that love the Lord, and let our joys be known; Join in a song with sweet accord, join in a song with sweet accord, and thus surround the throne, and thus surround the throne."

We're marching to Zion, beautiful, beautiful Zion; We're marching upward to Zion, the beautiful city of God."

"Sing to me of heaven, sing that song of peace from the toils that bind me, it will bring release. Burdens will be lifted that are pressing so, showers of great blessing o'er my heart will flow."

Sing to me of heaven, let me fondly dream, of its golden glory, of its pearly gleam. Sing to me when shadows of the evening fall, sing to me of heaven sweetest song of all."

"I'm gonna trade my earthly home for a better one bright and fair, Christ left to prepare a mansion for His children in the air, I'll join Him in that land where tears nor sorrows can be found, and I'll receive my mansion, robe and crown. Mansion, robe and a crown, there love always abounds, let me your throne surround, Lord, please reserve my mansion, robe and crown."

In every song quoted above, the joyful expectation of heaven is what will grant us peace and steadfastness in this life we are now living. This morning, we study again what it means to be an imitator of Christ, but we add in Paul's inspired charge to the church to appreciate what we have here without losing sight of what we will have when we arrive at home with God the Father.
