Continuing to look at Hebrews 11 in hopes that your faith is strengthened and you are encouraged... (Special thanks to James Whiteaker)

Today's Reading – Joshua 6
 People at the Walls of Jericho

They had wandered in the wilderness for forty years, fed by manna. They had listened to the stories from their parents about how God had delivered them from the Egyptians and parted the Red Sea. They knew now only what their leaders told them, that God was giving them the Promised Land. The people of Israel had defeated the Ammonites and Moabites on their way to where we find them in this narrative. They had obeyed their leaders and were waiting on the side of the Jordan River. Joshua sent out the officers with their instructions to cross the Jordan. As their ancestors had seen the parting of the Red Sea they now saw the flooding Jordan River stop when the priest's feet touched the water. They were walking across dry land just as their parents had done. What a glorious sight this must have been for them. What awe must have been in their hearts. They could have crossed in any number of ways, but I believe God wanted to show them His might and power just as He had done in the past. God was building their faith in Him and their trust in Joshua. It is good to be reminded that we need to be looking for those times God is working in our lives. To see the hand of God in our lives will build our faith, as well.
