Worship and the Divinity of Christ (part 2)

Special thanks to Donnie DeBord of Apologetics Press for this series.

The Worship of Jesus in Scripture

Within the uncompromising monotheistic world of Israel's Scriptures, the worship of Jesus remains one of the most revealing features of the Gospel accounts. Scripture forms Israel to know that worship belongs to the LORD alone. Angels refuse it. Kings are denied it. Even the most faithful servants of God deflect it. Against that background, the worship offered to Jesus during His earthly ministry is not accidental.

When Jesus stills the storm on the Sea of Galilee, the disciples do not merely admire His power. They respond with worship, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God" (Matthew 14:33). In Israel's Scriptures, mastery over the chaotic sea belongs to the LORD alone (Psalm 89:9; 107:28-30). The disciples' posture matches their confession. Faced with divine authority embodied in a human life, worship becomes the only truthful response.
