The At Issue series includes a wide range of opinions on a single controversial subject. Each volume includes primary and secondary sources from many perspectives and a variety of sources, including journals, newspapers, books, websites, government agencies, and others.

Key features of each volume:

- Pull quotes to highlight the main ideas of the text
- Annotated list of organizations to contact
- Bibliography
- Subject index

“These books are an excellent source for middle and high school readers to enhance their critical thinking skills. They could easily be used as jumping off points for research projects and debate topics.”
