Santa Ana Business and Employment Law Attorney Marla Merhab Robinson and her neighbors held a fund raiser for Anaheim Deputy Chief Craig Hunter to support his run for Orange County Sheriff yesterday at il Fornaio.

(PRWEB) April 21, 2010 -- Santa Ana Business and Employment Law Attorney Marla Merhab Robinson and her neighbors held a fund raiser for Anaheim Deputy Chief Craig Hunter to support his run for Orange County Sheriff yesterday at il Fornaio.

Ms. Merhab Robinson called the event "a huge success when Orange County Business Owners can personally spend one on one time with our next Sheriff". Business clients of Ms. Merhab Robinson's attended including Claremont Toyota owner Roger Hogan and Masterpiece Pools owner Michael Good. The business owners and other attendees enjoyed a delicious brunch and listened to Deputy Chief Hunter's arguments why he is the best candidate for the position of Orange County Sheriff.

"It's clear that Craig Hunter has the education and the hands on experience necessary to not only be Orange County's Sheriff but to run an outstanding Sheriff's department. The other two candidates don't come close in either area and can't match Craig Hunter's record in Anaheim, which is extraordinary," said Ms. Merhab Robinson.

The election will be held June 8, 2010. The Craig Hunter campaign can be reached at www.HunterforSheriff.com . Ms. Merhab Robinson can be reached at www.merhabrobinsonjackson.com.
