7. Description Of Incident

After rounding mark 2 1099 was slightly to windward and clear ahead of 430. Both going on starboard. 1099 gybed to port and tried to cross without having enough room for the maneuver or giving enough room to 430 to stay clear. 430 still on starboard luffed abruptly to avoid collision but in doing so hit the port side transom corner of 1099. 430 and 1099 continued racing until race was abandoned during a squall.

8. Damage Or Injury

There was no apparent damage or injury on-board of 430
