Transcript of txt...

Sorry to lead into a bit of confusion at the H mark. I had an insistent crew member leading us astray. Were you able to round H to starboard? We had to circle back to do so.

Thanks

Reply:

No, we did not. Chris Calingaert, a race committee volunteer in good standing is a stickler for knowing the course thoroughly before we sail it and made sure we knew about the starboard roundings. You guys had a nice race. Good job.
