

ROCKSTAR LIBRARIAN MUSIC GUIDE

BURNING MAN 2025 TOMORROW TODAY

WARNING:

This is just a guide.

Camps and mutant vehicles that wished to be in the guide, are.

Those who wished to remain stealth, are.

All contents and times are subject to change without notice and at the whim of the playa.

Mic Drop Truth: The 20th Anniversary RSL Music Guide almost didn't happen. This spring turned into a whirlwind - I was diagnosed with breast cancer, and then had a double mastectomy, all before June. And—like too many of you who have been through the same, know—complications followed. I'm still in the middle of recovery - so I'm sitting this year out. My time, energy, and focus gets to go into healing (If you wish, you can read about my journey over at rockstarlibrarian.com or on my RSL FB page).

The only reason this guide came together with ease and the right data sets is thanks to Damian Tarnawsky, Burner and creator of the Dust app. When I reached out to him to collaborate, he was all in from the start. He went above and beyond to redesign the music submission form to meet all your ridiculously weird and wonderful party info needs. Damian is the real rock star this year—please shower him with love, gratitude, and yes, a few booty shakes.

Public Service Announcement: If you've got boobs of a certain age—He, She, or They—self-refer. Don't wait for permission. Get that mammogram, ultrasound. Or for the younger set, if anything ANYTHING feels “off,” get checked. I self-referred every year because breast cancer runs in my family—and early detection meant I had choices, more agency than many get, and it saved my life. Don't wait. Don't put it off. And while you're at it, schedule that colonoscopy too. Preventative care is the shit.

And finally, a huge dusty hug and high-five to Avi Flombaum, who once again swooped in like a hero to automate the PDF export, then designed and laid out this year's beautiful guide. Avi, you made the 20th edition possible—thank you for rocking it out at the last minute.

BIPOC BEATS COLLECTIVE

The BIPOC Beats Collective exists to amplify the voices of Black, Indigenous, and People of Color sound artists in Black Rock City. Born from a commitment to Radical Inclusion, we connect, support, and uplift BIPOC musicians while partnering with theme camps and mutant vehicles to bring diverse sounds to the playa.

- BIPOC Collective Artists – Highlights performers in the Collective.
- BIPOC Beats Collective Friends – Marks camps and mutant vehicles creating inclusive spaces in collaboration.

Together with allies, we're reshaping the musical landscape to celebrate BIPOC creativity. Support, participate, and connect—because every beat of inclusion enriches the whole community. Camps, mutant vehicles, artists, reach out to them at bipocbeatscollective@gmail.com

PARTIES THAT CROSS OVER NOONTIME:

Alright music leads—don't get your undies in a twist. If a party looks like it got "cut off," relax. It's listed twice—once in the PM-AM block where it starts, and again, under the next PM-AM block. Yep, you scored a two-for-one listing because this is a music finder for the people, so they can actually find you. I split your ragers that run over noontime into two chunks so they land in the right PM-AM windows in the RSL Music Guide. This is the system. This is the way.

Know Your Rights

HOW TO SPEAK TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

Your best defense against citation or arrest may be politeness.

Nothing requires you to incriminate yourself, and an officer may cite you for revealing any illegal behavior.

If you wish to exercise your right to be silent, say so out loud.

Officer, my name is [give your real name].

Am I free to go?

If I am not free to go, please explain to me your probable cause for stopping me.

I politely decline to give you any further information.

I do not consent to a search of me or my belongings, tent, vehicle, or camp.

This is not legal advice. This is information discussing the general state of the law. We urge you to consult a lawyer for legal advice about a particular legal question or issue you may have. If you believe you are coerced into giving consent for a search, or that you are searched without probable cause, you may wish to contact the ACLU of Nevada at aclunv.org.

WHEN CAN THE POLICE STOP & SEARCH ME?

Police may briefly stop to ask for your identity without probable cause of a crime.

Probable cause means an officer must be able to point to specific facts indicating criminal activity.

Police may not require you to answer additional questions, detain or search you without either consent or probable cause.

An officer may ask your consent to search you or your belongings. Your refusal to give consent does not constitute probable cause for a search.
