MUSIC GUIDE

BURNINGMAN 2023

LIBRARIAN THANK YOU!

Laura Baalman, badass Burner, incredible developer extraordinaire who took on the RSL Database redesign last year and this year and rocked it! If you need a rockstar developer, she's it!

AND thank you to the badass, legend-ARY Xtopher, Christopher Cilley, for continuing to be an incredible resource and behind-the-scenes wizard that made magic happen so that all the music raw data can become digestible to the Burner reader. PS. Also cofounder of the Time to Burn app. Get it!

A HUGE DUSTY HUG and High-five thank you to Misha Mayeur, graphic designer extraordinaire, THANK YOU for saving the day at the last minute this year by jumping in to design and layout this beautiful guide! It is a HUGE undertaking and you rose to the challenge like a champ! Thank you also to the amazing Kelli "Rua" Klein for your beautiful cover and page design - just gorgeous!

We Are Leaving a Legacy!

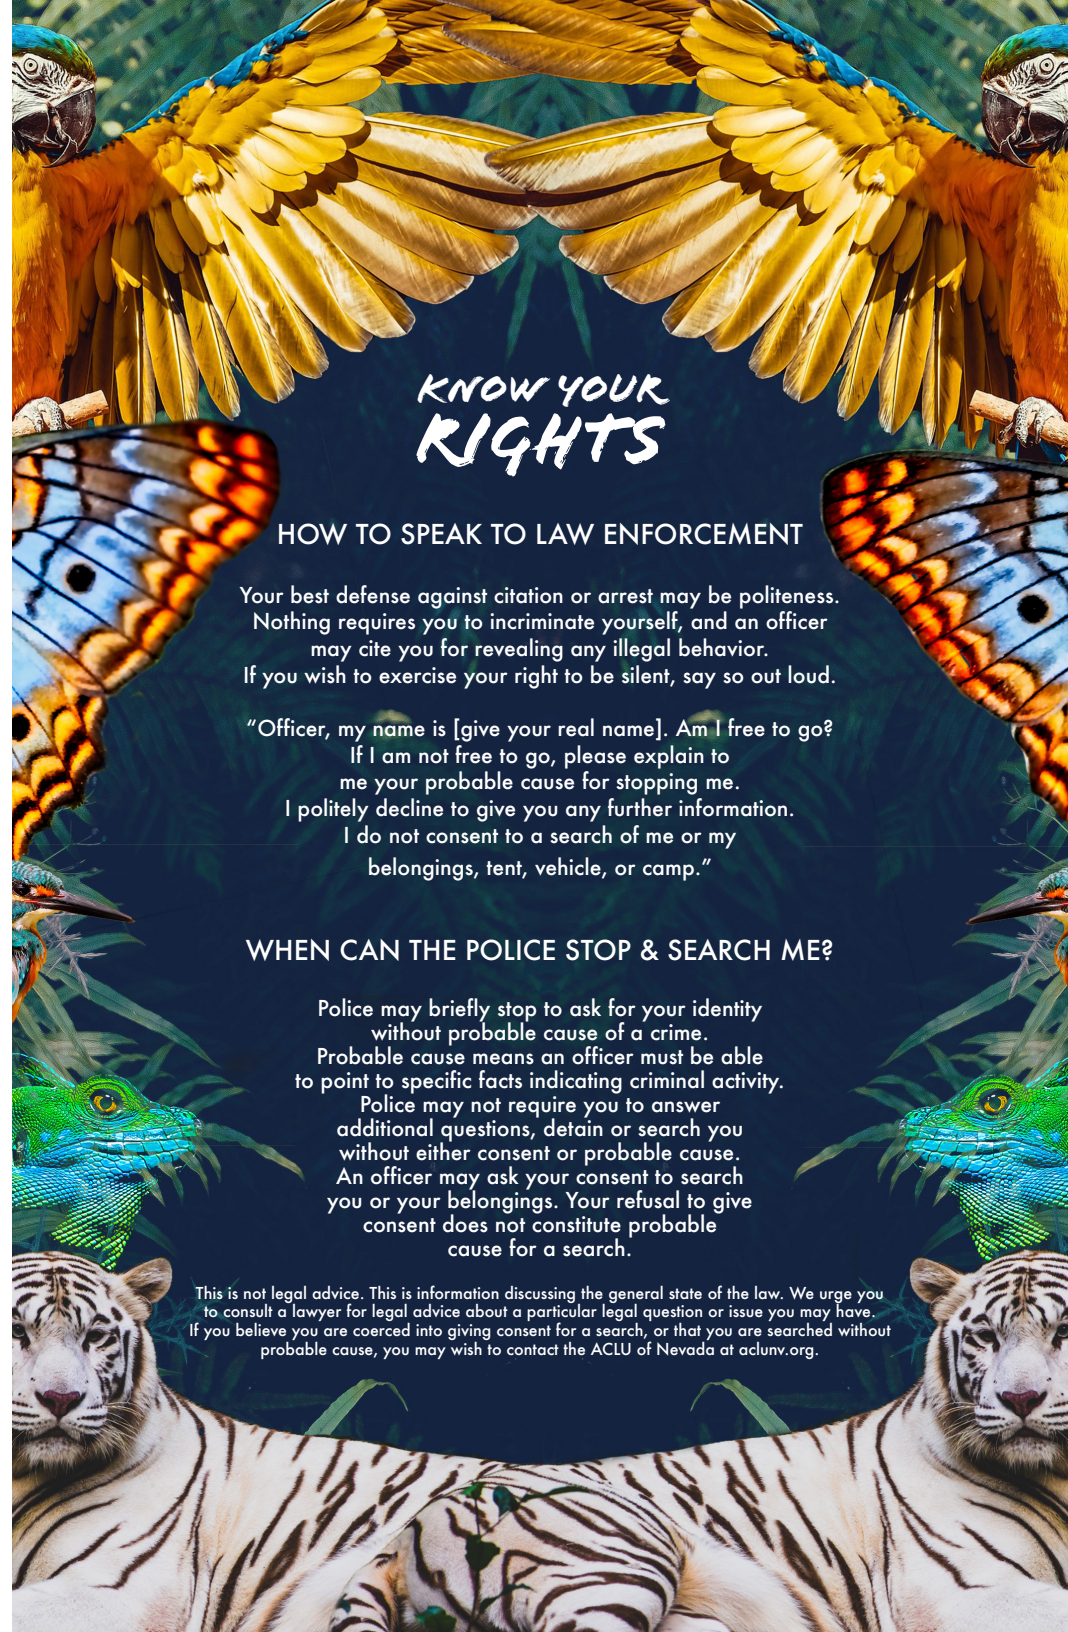

Since I began this initiative in 2018, we've collectively raised over $30K to bring clean water wells to the villages of Ghana via GoFundMe! THIS year let's fund one more well! Just $20 funds one person's access to clean water for the lifetime of the well. Donate here:

WARNING: THIS IS JUST A GUIDE.

Camps and mutant vehicles that wished to be in the guide, are.
Those who wished to remain stealth, are.

All contents and times are subject to change without notice and at the whim of the playa.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

HOW TO SPEAK TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

Your best defense against citation or arrest may be politeness. Nothing requires you to incriminate yourself, and an officer may cite you for revealing any illegal behavior. If you wish to exercise your right to be silent, say so out loud.

"Officer, my name is [give your real name]. Am I free to go?
If I am not free to go, please explain to me your probable cause for stopping me.
I politely decline to give you any further information.
I do not consent to a search of me or my belongings, tent, vehicle, or camp."

WHEN CAN THE POLICE STOP & SEARCH ME?

Police may briefly stop to ask for your identity without probable cause of a crime. Probable cause means an officer must be able to point to specific facts indicating criminal activity.

Police may not require you to answer additional questions, detain or search you without either consent or probable cause. An officer may ask your consent to search you or your belongings. Your refusal to give consent does not constitute probable cause for a search.

This is not legal advice. This is information discussing the general state of the law. We urge you to consult a lawyer for legal advice about a particular legal question or issue you may have. If you believe you are coerced into giving consent for a search, or that you are searched without probable cause, you may wish to contact the ACLU of Nevada at aclunv.org.

Elevating Voices, Enriching Our Dust Beats

In a world where the rhythm of inclusion regularly fails so many, it's imperative that we, as allies and advocates, spotlight those who are taking a stand and reshaping the landscape - in this case, the musical landscape - of Black Rock City. I'm thrilled to introduce you to a dynamic force of change—the BIPOC Beats Collective. From the heart of the playa's transformative energy, the Collective emerged, and only has just begun its work as a beacon of change, dismantling barriers and constructing pathways to a more diverse musical world in our temporary city. I am honored to dedicate my voice and reach to their cause.

Stand with me in support of BIPOC sound artists, and those camps and mutant vehicles that have intentionally taken action to support diversity in this year's musical events, and let's cultivate deeper connections within this vibrant community. Reach out, connect, enrich. Let's amplify change. Together, we can, and must, DO better. And this is just the beginning.

I wholeheartedly support the artists and events recommended by the BIPOC Beats Collective. Keep an eye out for these distinctive icons   in this guide and make sure to attend and support in solidarity.

In Unity,
Kate Houston,
Rock Star Librarian

BIPOC Beats Collective

Inclusion is seeing, believing, accepting, and acting. It's about going beyond oneself and the circle around you and uplifting others, no matter their race, sex, creed, or where one comes from. It's about creating space with intention that is accepting, not just for the privileged, but also for the marginalized. It's about acknowledging that the world around us, on and off playa, is shaped by exclusionary policies and practices that allow some, more than others, to have access to magical experiences like Black Rock City.

Witnessing a moment of exclusion on playa inspired the birth of the BIPOC Beats Collective. Together, we said: "No more."

We all can do better. Let's start now.

The playa is more than escapism. By design, we at the BIPOC Beats Collective believe it's a ripe experiment for one of the core Principles: Radical Inclusion. Participants shape the city. But true inclusion demands each participant reflect and then take intentional action. Do we create opportunities to uplift the marginalized? See, believe and empower them?

We all have to acknowledge the barriers to access to Black Rock City, and its multitude of art, activities and events, reflect wider societal struggles for queer people, people of color, and low-income communities. We at the Collective challenge these norms by focusing on bringing sound and performer diversity to the playa and regional events. But it's also on you, the reader, to take action to dismantle those barriers.

The Collective, spearheaded by a group of BIPOC burners, has recently built a foundation for more diverse sound on and off the playa. In just a few short months, we have connected with over 100 sound artists of color - DJs, producers, live musicians and more. We've built community. We have partnered with theme camps and mutant vehicles that have opened spaces for BIPOC sound artists to take the stage. We've expanded Black Rock City's diversity in performers and genres by creating dozens of hours of programming, in spaces large and small, and on vehicles like The Dusty Bunny and Alebrijes to intentionally lift up BIPOC sound artists on the go.

The Collective collaborated with the Rock Star Librarian and consulted on how to make this annual gift more inclusive. Look for BIPOC Beats Collective Sound Artists 🚻 and BIPOC Beats Collective Friends (camps and mutant vehicles working with the BIPOC Beats Collective) 🚻 in this year's guide, illuminating and uplifting the artists and events shaped by our collaboration.

Our individual histories influence the music we cherish, beyond borders, genres, and eras. These rhythms honor our roots. They expand beyond electronic music. We at the BIPOC Beats Collective envision a more diverse, transformed sound on and off playa.

How you can take action this year:

Show up and support BIPOC sound artists, BIPOC-founded art cars and mutant vehicles and BIPOC Beats Collective endorsed events in this guide.

Join our collective and participate, whether as an ally or BIPOC sound artist.

Reach out if you wish to connect with sound artists of color OR if you're a creator, join with us to enrich this community. @bipocbeatscollective@gmail.com

We're just getting started.
