Inline Hockey Ireland

A Message from the Chairperson

Another year has come and gone; and another year of growth it has been for inline hockey in Ireland. We have eclipsed the 600 member mark for the first time while seeing an explosion of female participation to far surpass 100 female members mark; both notable milestones. This credit must go to the clubs and people that continue to push them forward, without you there is no Inline Hockey Ireland.

On a National Programme side we continue to see sustained growth in key areas. The launch of the Junior Women programme has been well received and continues to see new participants at each session. I am extremely excited to see the debut of the Senior Women at international competition this July, years of hard work by the individuals will finally be recognised. The Under 17 National team continues to go from strength to strength attracting more and more participants as they look to build on their performance last year. Unfortunately, we won't see our Junior Men or Senior Men in competition this summer due to financial constraints.

Michael Creane

Growth is not without its challenges and this year has been particularly taxing at times; as we navigated a range of issues and topics. However, the reward is when we all get to come together and share together in a weekend of incredible hockey. As we reflect on the 2022 playoffs I feel a great sense of pride, happiness and togetherness. Lionel of FMT from France who has attended many inline hockey events around the world, ranked the playoff experience among the best he has experienced; truly humbling to hear that the work we are doing here in Ireland is on par with far bigger inline nations with far greater budgets.

I hope you, like me, are looking forward to a busy but fun filled weekend once again.

Players, coaches, parents, etc. I do ask that you make the most of the weekend; stay, watch and experience as many games as possible. If we can't support within the sport how can we expect those outside the sport to take an interest, be it as a spectator, future participant or investor. Last year we were treated to some incredibly nail-biting games (you should see my Fitbit stats), I am confident the games this year won't disappoint; don't miss out!

I want to take the opportunity to thank all that makes the cogs turn in Inline Hockey Ireland, from the Executive Committee, League Committee, game officials, national team coaches, playoff volunteers and the countless other volunteers across the sport. Your contributions do not go unnoticed. I also want to take the opportunity to put the call out for new volunteers, do you have a skill or work ethic that can benefit our organisation? Then drop me an email. While we can't offer financial compensation there is a great sense of achievement working as a team to push this your sport forward.

Thank you for being a part of Inline Hockey Ireland and this year's playoffs. Good luck to all across the weekend but most of all I hope you all have an enjoyable experience. Don't be a stranger, come say hi.

Coach's Notes

Last year marked the initiation of our U16 National Team's participation in the European Championships, this was a momentous occasion that proved to be an enlightening and educational experience for all our players.

This season commenced with November tryouts, which boasted a much larger pool of players when compared with the previous year's turnout, demonstrating the heightened motivation and interest among our young athletes on the island to compete internationally.

An initial selection process was conducted to differentiate between the development squad and the national group, followed by a final selection in April. At this point in time, World Skate Europe introduced a format alteration, transforming the U16 tournament into a U17 age bracket, which meant incorporating 2007-born players from the previous season into the team.

The group diligently prepared for the forthcoming challenges, engaging in two-day camps every month, including a notable collaboration with Roller Hockey Concept France in March. During the camp in May, the team seized the opportunity to engage in their inaugural game against a joint team of Clare Badgers LG1 and Cork Wolfpack LG2 Senior players. Although the team is still seeking their identity and developing their team chemistry, the players remain highly motivated and are determined to rectify certain aspects before the commencement of the competition.

Ken Moussat

Nevertheless, it is important to note that the national team program does not solely revolve around the competition itself; it also prioritizes player development. In this regard, the players had the chance to improve their hockey IQ through regular Zoom sessions, where they reviewed previous games and international game protocols. Moreover, to further their development, they will undergo the ADEL (Anti-Doping Education and Learning Platform) certification designed for young athletes. Additionally, there will be a session with Jason Tessier, the head referee of IHL, who will provide them with a brief orientation on refereeing.

Collectively, both the U15/U17 Development Squad and the U17 National Team exhibited unwavering dedication throughout the season, and remarkable progress has been observed in comparison to last year and the program's inception. The team will reunite at the beginning of July for a final camp, accompanied by preparatory games.

The current team comprises 14 field players and 3 goalkeepers, specifically with improved line cohesion compared to the previous year's squad. A notable alteration from last year is the expanded staff, consisting of 6 individuals who are committed to meeting the players' every need.

We can confidently assert that this team is better prepared than last year's, having made tremendous strides in their positioning and their defensive discipline. However, it is important to acknowledge that other nations have also progressed, and we anticipate a challenging competition with exceptionally high-level games. Irrespective of the results, this marks another significant step in the right direction to enhance our national program, starting with the younger generations.

The players, parents, and staff greatly appreciate your ongoing support throughout the arduous journey of this competition. Let us rally behind Team Ireland, united in both triumphs and adversities. Go Ireland!

Best advice to Younger Players:

Stay dedicated, push yourself to your breaking point and keep going. Don't let anyone think you're not good enough to play, chances are you're better than them already.

Junior Player of the Year Nominees

The Junior Player of the Year Award is awarded to the most outstanding U18 player amongst all Senior Divisions.

Bryce Cummins - Kilkenny Storm

In the absence of their top players for most of the season, Kilkenny continued to be a dominant force thanks to the solid defense of Bryce. His impressive defensive ability is among the League's strongest and will only get better.

Kevin Hughes - Bangor Chiefs

Last year's winner returns this season with an even better Senior season. Finishing first in points amongst U18 players in Elite, Kevin is now a core part of the Chiefs team who went 2nd in the League Cup and Elite League. In LG2 he finished 1st overall in points as he led his undefeated team to a division title.

Owen Winters - Perkele Pelicans

Having taken up an advanced role within the Pelicans this season, Owen was always there for the team including in instances where they played with 5 skaters. Despite only being 18, he is recognised as a lethal player which led to him receiving numerous all-star votes.

Female Player of the Year Nominees

The Female Player of the Year Award is awarded to the female player amongst all divisions and age categories who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship, and dedication to hockey.

Hallie Cummins - Kilkenny Storm

Despite only being 16, Hallie's commitments to women's hockey in Ireland is unprecedented. Kilkenny U15 and U18, Team Ireland Women's Inline and Ice hockey teams. Hallie is a pioneer of women's hockey in Ireland as the new generation begins to replace the Ice Dome generation.

Amie McCabe - Flying Ducks

Amie represents a new generation of leadership within the Flying Ducks club. On top of her commitments to the Ducks, she is frequently seen all over the country competing with the Ducks and Sirens, coaching the junior teams and assisting in the National Junior Women's programmes.

Chloe Rose - Bangor Chiefs

Stepping up into a leadership role this year with both Chiefs and Sirens; Chloe led a male-dominated team. Her commitment is without fault. The only games she missed for Sirens was when she was herself playing for Chiefs. She is one of the most committed players in the Women's National Team entering the European Championships in July.

Volunteer of the Year Nominees

The Volunteer of the Year Award is awarded to the person who has shown a commitment beyond their role to the sport of inline hockey as a volunteer in the past 12 months at club or national level.

Andrew Creane - Bangor Chiefs

Andrew has had a busy season, coaching the two Chiefs LG2 teams, the Sirens, the Senior Women's National team as well as playing himself in Elite. As coach of the Chiefs LG2 team, he is credited with the development and their success as the Chiefs secured League 2 North with a 100% record. His enthusiasm and dedication is also seen with the Senior Women's team which will debut at the European championships in July with Andrew spearheading a rejuvenated programme.

Paul Cummins - Kilkenny Storm

Paul is widely credited towards his dedication to the Kilkenny club in both inline and ice, serving as coach, manager, bus driver and a friend to all. He is credited with spreading his passion of the game towards the junior members of Storm and inspiring progress and enjoyment. He continues his push to find a suitable facility for the Kilkenny Storm by reaching out to local and national governments and taking any opportunity to get the word out.

Ken Moussat - Cork Wolfpack

After being nominated last year, Ken is no less dedicated to his club and the sport in Ireland. Voters have praised Ken for his commitment towards the development of the club and the players, both skillfully and as people. Ken can be seen at Cork training 4 times a week plus the game days all over the country and his own commitment towards the Men's U17 programme, who will be returning to the European championships in July and looking to build on their debut last year.

Sally Spirit of Hockey Award Nominees

The Sally Spirit of Hockey Award, kindly donated by the Sally Family, is awarded to the U18 League player that best exemplifies sportsmanship, dedication, leadership, continued development and commitment to academics.

Frank Balfry - Cork Wolfpack

Connor Daly - Flying Ducks

Adam Fomin - Kilkeny Storm

Justin Morrison - Bangor Chiefs
