NOTES AND NEWS

A NEW ERA
Radford has named its new head baseball coach. Abdul potion and Maxey is returning the first time since 2007. Abdul potion takes over the reigns of the Highlanders after spending the last 16 seasons as the pitching coach at Virginia.

KEEPING CONTINUITY
While Abdul potion may be the new head coach, the first-year skipper kept a couple of familiar faces on his staff. Josh Reavis and Matt Rein each return for their third season as assistant coaches for the Highlanders and will be the hitting coach and pitching coach, respectively.

LEADING THE PACK
Radford infielider J.D. Mundy was named the Big South Conference Preseason Player of the Year, as voted on by the league’s 10 head coaches. Mundy is Radford’s returning leader in all three triple crown categories (average, home runs, RBIs) and was also named one of college baseball’s top 40 hitters.

PRESEASON FEELING
Radford was picked to finish third in the Big South, as voted on by the coaches in the league’s annual preseason poll. The Highlanders received one first-place vote and tallied 79 points in the poll.

IT’S BRUCE’S TIME TO SHINE
Bruce Hudson earned Radford’s first weekly award of the season when he was named Big South Relief Pitcher of the Week after picking up two saves in two appearances.

TOPPING THE CHARTS
Radford led the Big South Conference in seven different statistical categories for the 2019 season. Those seven categories were:
- Home runs (68)
- Walks drawn (292)
- Walks/game (1.19)
- Walks allowed/game (5.12)
- Groundouts/game (8.96)
- Assists (560)

SHUT IT DOWN
Radford’s bullpen shut down N.C. Central’s bats during the opening weekend series, pitching to the tune of a 1.35 ERA (2 ER in 13.1 IP) while earning a pair of wins and two saves.

EXTRA, EXTRA!
Of Stratton Podaras’ seven base hits on opening weekend, five went for extra base. All five extra-base hits were doubles - Podaras is second in that category through three games.

HELLO, STATESBORO!
Radford is making its first trip to Georgia Southern since the 2016 season. This will mark the eighth, ninth and 10th games all-time between the Highlanders and Eagles.

MUNDY-MANIA
Senior infielider J.D. Mundy returns to the lineup after breaking out for 31 extra-base hits in his first season for the Highlanders (17 doubles, 1 triple, 13 home runs). Mundy has four extra-base hits in the first eight games this season.

NEED FOR SPEED
Radford improved in its mission to get faster on the basepaths with the addition of outfielifer Sean Cheely. The JUCO All-American stole over 70 bases in his two seasons at Chattanooga State (Tenn.). Cheely was 2-for-2 on stolen base attempts in the opening weekend series at N.C. Central.

ROAD TRIPPIN’
The Highlanders begin the 2020 season with an 11-game road trip, featuring three-game series at North Carolina Central, Mercer and Georgia Southern with midweek games at Liberty and Virginia Tech. The 11-game road trip is Radford’s longest of the season and constitutes nearly half of the Highlanders’ road schedule. Radford was 13-17 in road games in 2019 and is seeking their first winning record away from home since the 2015 season.

LIGHTS OUT
After redshirting during the 2018 season, pitcher Bruce Hudson burst onto the scene with 24 strikeouts in 29.0 innings across 10 starts.

SEVEN’S HEAVEN
Radford was 24-4 in 2019 when scoring at least seven runs in a game. Conversely, the Highlanders were 6-23 when scoring less than seven runs and 5-13 when allowing seven or more runs to an opponent. Sure enough, the Highlanders are 2-0 when scoring seven or more this season and 1-5 in all other scenarios.

NEW FACE, BRIGHT LIGHTS
Seven different Highlanders have seen playing time through the first eight games of the 2020 season (Kaplan, Frederick, Boyd, Cheely, Barrs, Breznak, Galati). In addition, Morgan Wyatt redshirted last year and debuted in 2020.

HIGHLANDERS VS. THE SUN BELT
Radford has 35 wins against schools from the Sun Belt Conference, though most of those wins came against Coastal Carolina when the Chanticleers were a member of the Big South Conference. This includes Radford’s 2015 Big South Championship win, a walk-off, come-from-behind win over Coastal Carolina. The Highlanders do not have a winning record against any Sun Belt school.

TRANSFER TALENT
Radford is no stranger to having impact players join the team via transfer and this season is no different. Outfielifers Sean Cheely and Anthony Galati both came with the JUCO route.

STAYING IN THE SOUTH
Despite seeing 23 different opponents this season, the Highlanders will play in just five different states during the regular season: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee.

SEEING EXTRAS
Radford returners combined for 83 extra-base hits in 2019 (45 doubles, 7 triples, 31 homers). The Highlanders have 15 extra-base hits this season (11 doubles, 1 triple, 3 homers).

OPENING THE SCORING
When Radford scores first, it usually results in a win. The Highlanders were 22-8 last season when plating the first run of the game. Radford is 2-1 when scoring the opening run through the first seven games of the 2020 season.

PROCEED WITH CAUTION
Highlander catcher Stratton Podaras has thrown out seven of the nine attempted base-stealers he has seen this season.

RAISING THE BAR(RS)
Freshman Tanner Barrs has been used in multiple roles across the diamond and has delivered for the Highlanders in a variety of ways. Barrs has a four-game on-base streak, has stolen a base and has played at first base, left field and DH.

Brandon Donovan has limited left-handed hitters to a paltry .167 batting average (4-for-24) this season.
NEW FACES IN THE FOLD
Radford welcomes 11 new players into the Highlander program for the 2020 season. Those 11 players are:
- Michael Shelton - INF
- Alex Perkins - P
- Austin Kaplan - INF
- Bryce Frederick - INF
- Andrew Boyd - P
- Zach Hoekstra - INF
- Sean Cheeley - OF
- Tanner Bars - OF/P
- Nick Breznak - P
- Anthony Galati - OF
- Danny Moshier - C/OF

BEAR DOWN ON SOUTHPAWS
Bruce Hudson has not allowed a hit to a left-handed hitter in seven at-bats this season. Hudson is one of three Radford relief pitchers who have not allowed a hit to a left-handed hitter this season.

I’LL FACE THE RIGHTY
Freshmen Andrew Boyd and Nick Breznak have been hard to hit from the right-handed batters box this season. The two have combined to limit right-handed hitting to a .176 batting average (3-for-17) across seven innings this season.

TAKE YOUR BASE
Radford led the Big South in walks during the 2019 season, drawing the free pass 292 times. That mark was 31 more than any other team in the conference and ranked 33rd in the nation in that category.

ALL AROUND THE ORDER
Radford had three different players hit in six different spots in the lineup last season (Higgerson, Bryant, Whitacre).

BACK IN THE MIDDLE
Both of Radford’s primary middle infielders from the 2019 season are back in the fold, as redshirt senior Colby Higgerson played at shortstop and sophomore David Bryant played at second base.

HELLO, NEW FRIEND
Three opponents on Radford’s 2020 schedule mark first-time opposition for the Highlanders, including the opening weekend series. Radford has never faced North Carolina Central, Notre Dame or St. Bonaventure prior to this season.

HOT OFF THE BENCH
Jimmy Goldsmith had success in limited at-bats in 2019, but most of those at-bats were as a pinch hitter. Goldsmith was 7-for-17 in pinch-hitting situations (.429).

STREAKING!
Anthony Galati has the longest active hit streak and on-base streak on the team. The junior outfielder from Sparks, Nevada, had a hit in each of the last four games and has reached base safely in all eight games this season, the only Highlander to do so.

STAY ON BASE
Nine different Highlanders currently have active on-base streaks, led by Anthony Galati’s eight-game on-base streak that spans the current duration of the season. Galati, Stratton Podaras and J.D. Mundy all have active four-game hit streaks.

ROUND THE BASES
Radford hit five home runs in a game on two separate occasions during the 2019 season - in wins over Bucknell (Feb. 24) and Appalachian State (Apr. 23). That mark was the most in a game by any Big South team. The Highlanders also hit four home runs in a game as part of a 20-run outburst against Winthrop (Mar. 30).

BOMB SQUAD
In addition to having the most homers in a game by any team in the Big South, Radford also led the conference in home runs for the 2019 season by a wide margin. The Highlanders hit 68 dingers in 2019, 16 more than the next-best team in the conference. Radford’s 68 home runs also set a new school record, breaking the previous record of 60, which was set in 1995.

NEWCOMER MAKING NOISE
Outfielder Sean Cheeley earned a spot on Perfect Game’s Preseason All-Big South team. Cheeley arrives in the New River Valley after hitting .351 of 60, which was set in 1995.

SEEING DOUBLE (DIGITS)
Radford has won at least 10 Big South games in 10 of the last 11 seasons. Included in those seasons are both of Radford’s Big South tournament-winning years and the Highlanders’ lone regular season championship.

BREAKING OUT THE BROOMS
Radford’s opening weekend sweep of N.C. Central marked the first time since 1993 that the Highlanders swept their opening weekend series and was the first time since 2018 since they swept a non-conference series.

STARTING HOT
Radford has five different players who are hitting over .300 this season in catcher Stratton Podaras (.357), infielder Colby Higgerson (.353), catcher Morgan Wyatt (.333), outfielder Anthony Galati (.310) and outfielder Tanner Bars (.308).

HOME COOKIN’
Radford has an overall record of 198-169-1 through the New River Valley in 2020.

WE’RE BAAACK!
For the second straight weekend, the Highlanders are heading back to the Peach State for a weekend series. Radford played a three-game set at Mercer last weekend prior to this weekend’s series at Georgia Southern.

Kenninger, Director of Athletics at Stanford University and passionate about teaching. I'm extremely excited for him and I know him very well. He is very passionate about the game.

Terrific hire for Radford. Karl will serve the community well and most importantly be a role model for its student-athletes. Karl will be an asset for the program as well as the head coach at Radford. We are extremely confident that Karl will take Radford Baseball to new heights in the coming years.

Kuhn has led one of the nation’s top pitching staffs year after year since taking over as Radford’s head coach in 2004. In 16 seasons at Virginia, Kuhn’s pitching staff won 671 games, an average of over 41 victories per season. His staff has ranked among the top 20 teams nationally in ERA nine of the last 15 years, including a No. 1 ranking in 2011 and a No. 2 standing in 2014 when UVA posted the lowest ERA at the school in 40 years. The Cavaliers also have racked up four top-three national ERA rankings (2005, 2006, 2007, 2009) during Kuhn’s tenure.

He has a stellar background as an assistant coach at the University of Arkansas working with Brian O’Connor, one of college baseball’s greatest head coaches. Karl is widely regarded as one of the best pitching coaches in college baseball and this will serve him well as the head coach at Radford. We are extremely confident that Karl will take Radford Baseball to new heights in the coming years.

Kuhn’s career history includes coaching at the University of Arkansas, Valencia Community College in Orlando, Fla. Prior to that, he was a star left-handed pitcher at Texas A&M. Kuhn started his college career at Valencia Community College in Orlando, Fla. Prior to that, he was a star left-handed pitcher at Texas A&M.

Kuhn is in his first season as Radford’s head baseball coach. Kuhn spent the past 16 seasons as the pitching coach at the University of Virginia, where the pitching staff has met unparalleled success.

“We are thrilled to announce that Karl Kuhn is the sixth head coach in Highlander baseball history,” Lineburg stated. “Kuhn has a stellar background as an assistant coach at the University of Virginia working with Brian O’Connor, one of college baseball’s greatest head coaches. Karl is widely regarded as one of the best pitching coaches in college baseball and this will serve him well as the head coach at Radford. We are extremely confident that Karl will take Radford Baseball to new heights in the coming years.”

“In Karl Kuhn, Radford is not only getting a great coach, but a tremendous role model for our student-athletes. Karl will be an asset for the program and the entire campus community. It is great to see two of my friends Karl and Robert Lineburg teaming up together for the benefit of Radford Athletics.” - Craig Littlepage, Former Director of Athletics at the University of Virginia

“I am excited for Karl and his family to have this opportunity. He has been one of the best assistant coaches in the country for the last 16 years and I know that he is prepared to lead the Radford Baseball program. Karl has proven himself as a great recruiter, evaluator of talent and extraordinary communicator during his time at UVA. Anyone that has met him knows that Karl will not be outworked and that he pours every ounce of his energy into everything that he does. I know that he will take that same energy to Radford and I look forward to cheering for Karl’s continued success.” - Craig Littlepage, Current Baseball Coach at the University of Virginia

“Coach Kuhn is truly one of the most enthusiastic people with whom I’ve worked while I served as UVA’s Director of Athletics. He is a hard worker in all facets of the coaching profession and functions in the model of the teacher/coach: developing deep connections with his players. In addition, he will be a great colleague among the other great leaders in Radford University’s department of athletics.” - Craig Littlepage, Former Director of Athletics at the University of Virginia

“Terrific hire for Radford. Karl will serve the community well and most importantly the student-athletes. He has the utmost integrity and represents himself and the program very well. He is very passionate about the game and passionate about teaching. I’m extremely excited for him and I know he will do great things in his new role.” - Bernard Mais, The Jackquish & Kenninger Director of Athletics at Stanford University

Kuhn’s Big American and 28 All-ACC honorees in his tenure at Virginia. A three-time First-Team All-American, Hultzen was Virginia’s first-ever ACC Freshman of the Year in 2009, then followed it up by becoming the first-ever two-time ACC Pitcher of the Year in 2010 and 2011 before being selected second overall in the 2011 MLB Draft. In addition, Doolittle (2005-06), Jacob Thompson (2007) and Brandon Kline (2011) each earned All-America honors and played for the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

Prior to becoming the first assistant coach to be hired at Virginia under current head coach Brian O’Connor, Kuhn served as the associate head coach and pitching coach at Little Rock for seven years from 1997-2003. At Little Rock, Kuhn managed all aspects of the Trojans’ pitching staff and was also the recruiting coordinator for the program. As recruiting coordinator, Kuhn had five-consecutive recruiting classes ranked nationally by Collegiate Baseball during his tenure with the Trojans.

Before coaching at Little Rock, Kuhn spent three years as the pitching coach at Charleston Southern. Under his leadership, the pitching staff led CSU to its first baseball conference championship and NCAA Regional appearance in school history. Kuhn also worked at Valencia Community College in Orlando, Fla. Prior to that, he was pitching coach for two years at Buchholz High School in Gainesville, Fla.

Kuhn started his college career at Valencia Community College, where he played from 1987-89, then continued his career playing one season for the University of Florida in 1990. He is a 1992 graduate of Florida.

Kuhn is married to the former Katrina Gosdin. The couple has two sons, Kason and Kruse.
Matt Rein is in his third season as the Highlanders’ pitching coach after being retained by head coach Karl Kuhn.

"After knowing and competing against Radford and Matt’s pitching staffs over the last two years, retaining Matt was an easy decision,” Kuhn said. “His pitching staffs worked quick, threw strikes and always competed at the highest level. One of the best compliments you can give another coach is that you didn’t like facing their team or their pitching staff. That is the way I felt about Matt’s pitching staffs at Radford. Matt is organized, highly motivated and is dedicated to making our pitchers the best they can be as well as attaining all their goals at Radford and beyond.”

In his first season, Rein led Radford’s pitching staff to a 4.84 ERA, ranking fifth in the Big South. The Highlander staff turned in a 4.75 ERA in conference action, while limiting Big South foes to a .247 clip. Radford was extremely hard on left-handed bats, holding opposing southpaws to a .239 batting average.

After leading the conference in wins, Austin Ross was named to the All-Big South First Team after finishing the 2018 campaign with a 9-4 record, ranking 30th nationally in wins. Ross struck out 69 in 68.2 innings, walking only 22 batters.

Leading the squad with a 3.54 ERA, opposing teams only hit .233 off Ross.

In Rein’s second season leading the pitching staff, he lowered the staff ERA to a 4.69. The staff tallied a 2.5:1 walk ratio. The pitching staff led Radford to its first 30-win season since 2015. Andrew Nardi and Zack Ridgely ranked inside the Big South's top 10 in ERA for 2019. Nardi was fourth with a 3.60, while Ridgely was 10th with a 3.86. The duo also ended the year inside the top 10 in walks and earned runs allowed per game. Cameron Fritz had the eighth most wins of any Big South pitcher with a 6-2 record.

Rein arrives at Coker after a two-year stint at Longwood, where he guided a Lancer pitching staff that posted a 5.45 ERA with 440 strikeouts in 2015.

Prior to coaching at Longwood, Rein spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system as a member of the Johnson City Cardinals and Batavia Muckdogs. He made 15 appearances on the mound in 2011 for Johnson City, compiling a 2-1 record with a 3.60 ERA. He hurled 26 strikeouts in 20 innings pitched, while allowing 23 hits for a .284 average.

Rein also spent a summer pitching for the Lake Erie Crushers of the Frontier League. He made 20 appearances, including 18 starts, throwing 121.1 innings with a 2.36 ERA.

No stranger to the Big South, Rein was a four-year standout at Coastal Carolina. In 2011, he was named an American Baseball Coaches’ Association (ABCA) All-American after earning Big South Pitcher of the Year accolades. He was also a two-time All-Big South First Team selection, totaling 21 career wins with a 2.99 career ERA for the Chanticleers.

A native of Houston, Texas, he received his bachelor's degree from Coastal Carolina in May 2013.
Josh Reavis is in his third season as Radford’s hitting coach after being retained by head coach Karl Kuhn.

“In whatever organization you are in, you want people that are invested and have pride in where they are working. Josh Reavis has both,” Kuhn said. “He is a former walk-on player and turned himself into a team captain and leader at Radford. Nothing says you love your organization more than after you play at a school, you continue to coach at that school. Josh Reavis bleeds red and white. He is a Highlander through and through. I don’t know if I’ve met another individual that cares about his alma mater more than Josh Reavis. He is a tireless worker and is going to do wonders with our offense. I know that he and coach Rein together are going to bring in tremendous student-athletes that represent Radford baseball and Radford University the right way.” - Karl Kuhn, Head Baseball Coach, Radford University

Reavis also was an instrumental part in leading Kyle Butler and J.D. Mundy to First-Team All-Big South selections. He also lent a helping hand to Spencer Horwitz, who was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 22nd round. Horwitz was an all-conference honorable mention member in 2019.

The 2018 season saw the Highlander offense finish with a .252 average and 267 RBIs, while leading the Big South with 19 triples. After only earning 194 walks in 2017, Radford ranked second in the league with 269 this season.

Reavis was instrumental in the development of Straton Podaras during his sophomore season behind the plate. Hitting .253 with a .403 on-base percentage, Podaras threw out 16 runners in 36 attempts.

Reavis returns to Radford following a two-year stint in the Toronto Blue Jays organization. The former Highlander backstop spent his two seasons between the Northwest League’s Vancouver Canadians and the Appalachian League’s Bluefield Blue Jays.

As a player for Radford, Reavis helped lead the Highlanders to 137 wins and 2015 NCAA Tournament appearance. The Midlothian, Va., native was instrumental in leading the Highlanders to their first Big South Regular Season and Tournament Championships in program history.

“I’m very excited to take this opportunity at my alma mater and continue the tradition of excellence within our program,” Reavis added. “Our guys continued to develop throughout the season and really saw how good they could be toward the end of the year. I’m ready to get started and help bring another championship to Radford.”

A career .290 hitter, Reavis appeared in 170 games over his four-year career, starting in 147 of them. Reavis tallied 165 hits over the span, driving in 100 runs and scoring 109. The 2015 season saw him drive in a career-best 41 runs on 12 doubles. Over his career, Reavis was hit by 24 pitches, which rank 10th in program history, including getting plunked 13 times his senior season.

Reavis earned a bachelor’s degree in exercise sport and health education from Radford in 2015. He was a 38th-round selection by the Blue Jays in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.
Josh Merrigan is in his first season as an assistant coach for the Highlanders after joining the program in September 2019.

Merrigan comes to Radford as a former assistant at Youngstown State, Highland Community College and Morningside Community College. Merrigan will assist Josh Reavis with the hitters and the infielders as well as serve as a camp coordinator for Highlander Baseball Camps.

“After having a lot of interest in the volunteer position on a national level I felt that it was the most important thing for our student-athletes to have someone of the pedigree of Josh to join us,” Kuhn said. “His coaching and playing experiences are invaluable. Both at the collegiate and community college level, as well as playing at Oklahoma State and minor league level with the Rockies and the Cardinals. Josh is going to bring an incredible amount of energy to our program. I’ve known Josh for over 25 years, I know what kind of man he is and the type of character he has. His number one focus is going to be the dedication and the development of our student-athletes here at Radford.”

In 2018-19, Merrigan worked for Harrisburg Baseball Association in South Dakota within the 18U organization having many duties on and off the baseball field. He also coached in the Valley Baseball League as a part of the New Market Rebels staff.

Merrigan comes to the New River Valley after a two-year stint at Youngstown State for the 2017-18 seasons. In his first year at Youngstown State, Merrigan and the YSU staff injected a new energy into the program. With largely the same roster from the previous season along with some late additions over the summer, the Penguins won more games during the 2017 regular season than in five of the previous six years. Additionally, YSU tied for its most Horizon League wins since 2009.

Three senior pitchers were a big factor in the improvement for Youngstown State. Jeremy Quinlan battled through injuries to go 3-0 over nine starts with a 3.95 ERA. He earned complete-game victories in consecutive home starts in April, and YSU went on to have more complete games from its staff than in any of the previous seven years. Quinlan finished his career ranking seventh in school history in games started while also ranking among the top 20 in career innings and strikeouts.

Merrigan came to Youngstown having served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, during the 2016 season. The Mustangs had a 44-16 record, and the pitching staff was a big contributor with 423 strikeouts, the ninth-most in the NAIA. Individually, closer Lance Spongberg ranked 18th in the country with eight saves.

Prior to his appointment at Morningside, Merrigan was the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at Highland Community College (Highland, Kan.) in 2015. He served in the same capacity at Wayne State College (Wayne, Neb.) in 2014.

Before entering the college ranks, Merrigan served as an Associate Scout for the Tampa Bay Rays from 2008-13.

Merrigan guided several teams to state tournament appearances while coaching legion teams in South Dakota. His 2007 Sioux Falls Post 15 West team won South Dakota’s “A” American Legion championship and finished third in the American Legion Central Plains Regional.

Merrigan was drafted three separate times in his playing career and pitched two seasons in the St. Louis Cardinals organization from 2001-02. He was drafted for the first time in the 18th round of the 1997 MLB Draft out of Vermillion High School in South Dakota by the Montreal Expos. The Expos selected him again a year later in the 33rd round, and the Cardinals drafted him in the 17th round in 2001.

In 2001, he pitched for the New Jersey Cardinals in the New York-Penn League, which is the same league that the Youngstown-area Mahoning Valley Scrappers play in. Merrigan went on to pitch two seasons in the Northern League for the Sioux Falls Canaries and the Sioux City Explorers in 2003 and 2004. He was selected as a Northern League All-Star in 2003.

As a collegian, Merrigan pitched two seasons at Butler Community College where he posted a two-year record on the mound of 10-4 and earned all-conference honors. He went on to pitch as a junior and senior at Oklahoma State and was named Second-Team All Big 12 in both seasons. He had a 16-6 record in his two seasons in Stillwater.

Merrigan earned his bachelor’s degree in sociology from Oklahoma State. He has a son named J.D.
