HIGHLANDERS BY THE NUMBERS

13: Senior infielder J.D. Mundy hit a team-high 13 home runs last season. Mundy’s mark ranked fifth in the Big South Conference.

12: The Highlanders have 12 stolen bases this season.

251.1: Innings pitched by returning Highlander pitchers. Radford returns a pair of starting pitchers and a plethora of bullpen options.

68: Radford hit 68 home runs as a team, 16 more than any other team in the Big South Conference.

10: Radford’s 11-game homestand from Apr. 24-May 10 is the longest home stretch for the Highlanders since a 16-game home stretch in 2001.

11: Radford has posted six 30-win seasons in program history, including the 2019 season which produced 30 wins for the Highlanders.

1: Will Harless leads the Highlanders and ranks fourth in the Big South conference with 10 runs batted in this season.

1: Seven different Highlanders have at least one stolen base this season. Colby Higgerson leads the team with three steals.

75: Radford has stolen at least 75 bases in three consecutive seasons, including 75 last year.

4: Radford has posted six 30-win seasons in program history, including the 2019 season which produced 30 wins for the Highlanders.

9: Straton Podaras has thrown out a Big South-leading nine base-stealers this season.

75: Radford led the Big South in four different statistical categories in 2019 (walks drawn, home runs, home runs per game, walks allowed).

14: This is the first contest between Radford and Norfolk State in 14 seasons. The schools have played three times, all in 2006.

5: The Highlanders ranked in the top 40 nationally in five categories: walks drawn (33rd), home runs (33rd), home runs per game (26th), sacrifice flies (28th) and walks allowed (35th).

11: Brandon Donovan had a career-high 11 strikeouts in 6.2 innings in his first career Opening Day start.
MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS
To request credentials for a game, please contact Kieran Intemann as early as possible, but no later than 24 hours prior to a game’s scheduled first pitch. All requests should be limited to working press only, as space in the press box is limited. The SID and broadcast team from the visiting school are guaranteed a seat in the press box, followed by credentialed working press members as space permits. Those showing up unannounced will be warned on the first occurrence and denied access on future occurrences.

MEDIA MATERIALS
All media materials, including game previews and recaps, game notes, rosters, schedules, record books, photo galleries and statistics, can be accessed online at RadfordAthletics.com. Prior to first pitch of each game, a pre-game report consisting of lineups and statistics for both teams will be provided to members of the media. Following the conclusion of each game, a complete box score will be provided to members of the media.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Following each game, head coach Karl Kuhn and select players, along with any requested coaches and players, will be made available for interviews after the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period. For visiting team coaches and players, please contact the visiting institution’s SID. The Radford locker room, regardless of game location, will always be CLOSED to the media.

PRACTICE
Practices are generally CLOSED to the public. To request coverage of a specific day of practice, please contact Kieran Intemann at least 48 hours in advance. Please be advised in advance that not all requests will be accommodated.

GENERAL INTERVIEW POLICY
On non-game days, all interview requests for coaches and student-athletes must be communicated through the Radford Athletics Communications office. Please contact Kieran Intemann for any interview requests. Please be advised that classes, practices schedules and travel days may affect or alter available times.

BROADCASTS
Radford Athletics is committed to providing a welcome experience for all broadcasters. To request access to broadcast a game, contact Kieran Intemann at least 48 hours before a scheduled game. Broadcasters should also contact Neal Leahy, Director of Facilities and Operations, to request accommodations.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Those wishing to photograph any Radford baseball game should contact Kieran Intemann at least 48 hours in advance of a scheduled game. Photographers will have access to areas down the first and third base lines.

WE ARE RADFORD UNIVERSITY
We are the Radford University Highlanders. Please refer to us either as RADFORD or the RADFORD HIGHLANDERS on first reference. On second and future references, either RADFORD or HIGHLANDERS is acceptable. Our abbreviation for box scores and TV is RAD. Please refrain from using RU, or any other derivative, as those monikers are no longer associated with Radford University Athletics.

A NEW ERA

Radford has a new head baseball coach for the first time since 2007. Karl Kuhn takes over the reins of the Highlanders after spending the last 16 seasons as the pitching coach at Virginia.

KEEPING CONTINUITY

While Karl Kuhn may be the new head coach, the first-year skipper kept a couple of familiar faces on his staff. Josh Beavis and Matt Rein each return for their third season as assistant coaches for the Highlanders and will be the hitting coach and pitching coach, respectively.

LEADING THE PACK

Radford infielder J.D. Mundy was named the Big South Conference Preseason Player of the Year, as voted on by the league’s 10 head coaches. Mundy is Radford’s returning leader in all three triple crown categories (average, home runs, RBIs) and was also named one of college baseball’s top 40 hitters.

PRESEASON FEELING

Radford was picked to finish third in the Big South, as voted on by the coaches in the league’s annual preseason poll. The Highlanders received one first-place vote and tallied 79 points in the poll.

The Highlanders received one first-place vote and tallied 79 points in the poll.

TOPPING THE CHARTS

Radford led the Big South Conference in seven different statistical categories for the 2019 season. Those seven categories were:

- HR/game (1.19)
- Assists (560)
- Groundouts force/game (8.96)
- SHUT IT DOWN

Radford’s bullpen shut down N.C. Central’s bats during the opening weekend series, pitching to the tune of a 1.35 ERA (2 ER in 13.1 IP) while earning a pair of wins and two saves.

EXTRA, EXTRA!

Of Stratton Podaras’ seven base hits on opening weekend, five went for extra base. All five extra-base hits were doubles - Podaras is second in the conference in that category through three games.

HOME, SWEET HOME!

Radford is playing its first home game of the season on Tuesday. The Highlanders have 29 home games at Carter Memorial Stadium during the 2020 season.

MUNDY-MANIA

Senior infielder J.D. Mundy returns to the lineup after breaking out for 31 extra-base hits in his first season for the Highlanders (17 doubles, 1 triple, 13 home runs). Mundy has four extra-base hits in the first 11 games this season.

NEED FOR SPEED

Radford improved in its mission to get faster on the basepaths with the addition of outfielder Sean Cheely. The JUCO All-American stole over 70 bases in his two seasons at Chattanooga State (Tenn.). C.C. Cheely was 2-for-2 on stolen base attempts in the opening weekend series at N.C. Central.

ROAD TRIPPIN’

The Highlanders began the 2020 season with an 11-game road trip, featuring three-game series at North Carolina Central, Mercer and Georgia Southern with midweek games at Liberty and Virginia Tech. The 11-game road trip is Radford’s longest of the season and constitutes nearly half of the Highlanders’ road schedule.

Radford was 13-17 in road games in 2019 and is seeking their first winning record away from the state.

SIX MILLION DOLLAR MAN

Radford is seeking their first winning record away from Virginia. Radford is 189-297-3 overall against Virginia schools and has played against 23 different schools from the state.

vs. Bridgewater 2-0
vs. Christopher Newport 1-0 vs. Eastern Mennonite 1-0 vs. Emory & Henry 5-1
vs. Ferrum 3-3
vs. George Mason 3-0 vs. James Madison 24-26-1
vs. Liberty 39-67
vs. Longwood 20-17
vs. Lynchburg 0-3
vs. Mary Washington 1-0
vs. Norfolk State 1-2
vs. Old Dominion 5-24
vs. Randolph 13-17
vs. Shenandoah 6-2
vs. UVa Wise 1-2
vs. Virginia 4-21-1
vs. VCU 6-24
vs. Virginia Intermont 1-1
vs. VMI 33-23-1
vs. Virginia Tech 15-47
vs. Washington & Lee 3-2
vs. William & Mary 2-8

HIGHLANDERS VS. THE MEAC

Radford has limited experience against the MEAC, though most of that comes against future Big South membre North Carolina A&T.

vs. Coppin State 2-0
vs. Norfolk State 1-2
vs. North Carolina A&T 14-12
vs. North Carolina Central 3-0

TRANSFER TALENT

Radford is no stranger to having impact players join the team via transfer and this season is no different. Outfielders Sean Cheely and Anthony Galati both came via the JUCO route.

STAYING IN THE SOUTH

Despite seeing 23 different opponents this season, the Highlanders will play in just five different states during the regular season: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee.

SEEING EXTRAS

Radford returners combined for 83 extra-base hits in 2019 (45 doubles, 7 triples, 31 homers). The Highlanders have 16 extra-base hits this season (12 doubles, 1 triple, 3 homers).

OPENING THE SCORING

When Radford scores first, it usually results in a win. Radford is 3-1 when scoring the opening run through the first seven games of the 2020 season.

PROCEED WITH CAUTION

Highlander catcher Stratton Podaras has thrown out nine of the 13 attempted base-stealers he has seen this season, a mark that leads the Big South Conference.
BEAR DOWN ON SOUTHPAWS
Bruce Hudson has not allowed a hit to a left-handed hitter in eight at-bats this season. Hudson is one of two Radford relief pitchers who have not allowed a hit to a left-handed hitter this season.

I’LL FACE THE RIGHTY
Freshmen Andrew Boyd and Nick Breznak have been hard to hit from the right-handed batters box this season. The two have combined to limit right-handed hitting to a .178 batting average (5-for-28) across seven innings this season.

TAKING THE BASE
Radford led the Big South in walks during the 2019 season, drawing the free pass 292 times. That mark was 31 more than any other team in the nation and ranked 33rd in the nation in that category. The Highlanders have earned a free base 59 times this season (42 walks, 17 HBP).

ALL AROUND THE ORDER
Radford had three different players hit in six different spots in the lineup last season (Higggson, Bryant, Whitacre).

BACK IN THE MIDDLE
Both of Radford’s primary middle infielders from the 2019 season are back in the fold, as redshirt senior Colby Higggson played at shortstop and sophomore David Bryant played at second base.

HELLO, NEW FRIEND
Three opponents on Radford’s 2020 schedule mark first-time opposition for the Highlanders, including the opening weekend series. Radford has never faced North Carolina Central, Notre Dame or St Bonaventure prior to this season.

HOT OFF THE BENCH
Jimmy Goldsmith has seen limited at-bats in 2019, but most of those at-bats were as a pinch hitter. Goldsmith was 7-for-17 in pinch-hitting situations (.429).

STREAKING!
Anthony Galati has the longest active hit streak and on-base streak on the team. The junior has reached an 11-game hit streak, while Galati has hit in six straight.

THIS IS OUR HOUSE
Since completely renovating Carter Memorial Stadium in the 2011 season, the Highlanders have accumulated 122 home wins.

ROUND THE BASES
Radford hit five home runs in a game on two separate occasions during the 2019 season - in wins over Bucknell (Feb. 24) and Appalachian State (Apr. 23). That mark was the most in a game by any Big South team. The Highlanders also hit four home runs in a game as part of a 20-run outburst against Winthrop (Mar. 30).

BOMB SQUAD
In addition to having the most homers in a game by any team in the Big South, Radford also led the conference in home runs for the 2019 season by a wide margin. The Highlanders hit 68 dingers in 2019, 16 more than the next-best team in the conference. Radford’s 68 home runs also set a new school record, breaking the previous record of 60, which was set in 1995.

NEWCOMER MAKING NOISE
Outfielder Sean Cheely earned a spot on Perfect Game’s Preseason All-Big South team. Cheely arrives in the New River Valley after hitting .351 with 71 stolen bases across two seasons at Chattanooga State (Tenn.) CC.

SEEING DOUBLE (DIGITS)
Radford has won at least 10 Big South games in 10 of the last 11 seasons. Included in those seasons are both of Radford’s Big South tournament-winning years and the Highlanders’ lone regular season championship.

BREAKING OUT THE BROOMS
Radford’s opening weekend sweep of N.C. Central marked the first time since 1993 that the Highlanders swept their opening weekend series and was the first time since 2018 since they swept a non-conference series.

STARTING HOT
Radford has five different players who are hitting over .300 this season in catcher Stratton Podaras (.357), infielder Colby Higggson (.353), catcher Morgan Wyatt (.333), outfielder Anthony Galati (.310) and outfielder Tanner Barss (.308).

HOME COOKIN’
Radford has an overall record of 198-169-1 against the teams it will face at Carter Memorial Stadium this season. The Highlanders have a winning record against four of the five Big South opponents it will see at home, with only Campbell (28-31) claiming a winning record against Radford among Big South teams to visit the New River Valley in 2020.

HOVERING AROUND THE TOP
In addition to being picked third in the Big South’s preseason poll, the Highlanders were picked to finish third by Perfect Game and second by D1Baseball. D1 Baseball also selected J.D. Mundy as their preseason Big South Player of the Year.

EXTRA MILEAGE
Starting pitcher Brandon Donovan has logged the two longest outings of his career in his first two appearances this season. Donovan went 6.2 innings at N.C. Central and 7 innings at Mercer.

EARLY DAMAGE
Radford is at its best when scoring early and limiting early damage. The Highlanders were 14-5 when scoring in the first inning, but 11-11 when allowing the opposition to score in the first inning. Radford scored in the first inning in three of its four wins this season.

NOISE ON THE BASEPATHS
Radford is 3-1 when out-hitting opponents this season, compared to a 1-6 record when being out-hit.

CLOSING THE DOOR
Radford was tied or ahead after six, seven and eight innings in all three of its opening weekend wins over N.C. Central. The Highlanders have not won a game this season when trailing after eight (0-7) and have not lost when leading or tied after eight (4-0).

JUST KEEP MOVING
Radford’s 26-11 win over Winthrop on Mar. 30 provided plenty of season highlights. The Highlanders had 21 hits, 18 RBIs, four home runs and raised their season batting average by 12 points after that game (.241 to .253).

KEEP ON HITTING
Colby Higggson, Stratton Podaras and Will Harless are the only Highlanders who have a three-hit game this season. Higggson has two three-hit games and a four-hit game.

HOT OFF THE BENCH
Radford’s returning players combined to hit .364 (12-for-33) in pinch-hitting situations last season. That number also includes five walks drawn. Morgan Wyatt already has a pinch-hit single this year for Radford.

STAYING HOME LATE
Though the Highlanders open with 11 straight road games, they also have 19 of their final 27 contests at home, including stretches of eight and 11 consecutive home games in April and May.

KNOW YOUR OPPONENT
Norfolk State enters Tuesday’s contest with a 2-8 record. The Spartans have lost seven straight games and have not won since taking two of three from Wagner on opening weekend. NSU was picked to finish third in the MEAC’s preseason poll, earning one first-place vote and 83 points.

Karl Kuhn is in his first season as Radford’s head baseball coach. Kuhn spent the past 16 seasons as the pitching coach at the University of Virginia, where the pitching staff has met unparalleled success.

“We are thrilled to announce that Karl Kuhn is the sixth head coach in Highlander baseball history,” Lineburg stated. “Kuhn has a stellar background as an assistant coach at the University of Virginia working with Brian O’Connor, one of college baseball’s greatest head coaches. Karl is widely regarded as one of the best pitching coaches in college baseball and this will serve him well as the head coach at Radford. We are extremely confident that Karl will take Radford Baseball to new heights in the coming years.”

Kuhn has led one of the nation’s top pitching staffs in year and year out since his tenure as pitching coach began for the Cavaliers in 2004. In 16 seasons at Virginia, Kuhn’s pitching staff won 671 games, an average of over 41 victories per season. His staff has ranked among the top 10 teams nationally in ERA nine of the last 15 years, including a No. 1 ranking in 2011 and a No. 2 standing in 2014 when UVA posted the lowest ERA at the school in 40 years. The Cavaliers also have racked up four top-three national ERA rankings (2005, 2006, 2007, 2009) during Kuhn’s tenure. His 2018 staff ranked No. 2 in the country in strikeouts per nine innings (10.5).

“On behalf of the Radford family, I am honored to welcome Coach Kuhn and his family as Highlanders,” Radford University President Dr. Brian O. Hemphill explained. “From the moment I met Coach, it was clear to me that he embodies the true spirit of a Highlander. Throughout his personal life and his professional career, he has experienced great success by overcoming many obstacles and demonstrating the importance of hard work, grit and perseverance. I am confident that Coach Kuhn will take the Radford University Baseball Program to unprecedented heights by serving as an outstanding example to the young men he will develop and lead in the months and years to come. Today is a great day to be a Highlander!”

The 2014 Collegiate Baseball National Pitching Coach of the Year helped Virginia advance to its first College World Series in 2009, setting off a remarkable stretch as UVA has recorded 437 wins in the last 10 years including a 2015 NCAA national championship. In this time period UVA has made three trips to the College World Series, won five NCAA Regional championships, one ACC tournament title and one ACC Coastal Division crown. UVA has racked up four 50-wins seasons since 2010 and also has reached the top of the national polls during four of those seasons.

“I’m extremely excited about the opportunity to lead the Radford Baseball program.” Kuhn stated. “It’s such an incredible privilege and an honor. The mark of a good coach is to make a player a better player. The mark of a good leader is to make a man a better man. I am committed to doing both. We’re going to have a lot of fun, but it won’t be easy. Committing to something larger than yourself is where the true rewards lie. We will keep that in the forefront of our mission every day. Well build this program on things like accountability, responsibility and selflessness with an emphasis on honesty, trust and mutual respect. I can’t wait to meet our team, get on the field with them and share my vision for Radford Baseball with our alumni, fans, and most importantly with our recruits.”

In 2010, Kuhn was the recipient of Collegiate Baseball’s Tom House Teaching Professional of the Year Award. The award recognizes excellence in teaching pitchers and acknowledges years of continued education and study of the latest pitching techniques as identified by scientific fact and biomechanical research.

During Kuhn’s tenure in Charlottesville, UVA has produced 96 shutouts, including an ACC-record 16 in 2011. The Cavaliers also have boasted a league-high 29 ACC Pitchers of the Week during the last 16 years.

Five of Kuhn’s UVa proteges have gone on to reach the major league level. Michael Schwimer (Philadelphia) and Mike Ballard (Baltimore) each reached the big leagues in 2011. Sean Doolittle made his MLB debut in 2012 with the Oakland Athletics and was named to the MLB All-Star game twice (2014 & 2018). Kyle Cockett ripped through the Cleveland Indians farm system in less than a year, debuting with the Indians in May 2014 and becoming the first player from the 2013 draft class to reach the big leagues. Tyler Wilson made his MLB debut with the Baltimore Orioles in May 2015.

42 of Kuhn’s Virginia pitchers have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including 25 in the top 10 rounds. Four Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the draft: Danny Hultzen, the second overall pick in 2011, Nick Howard, the 19th selection in 2014, Nathan Kirby, the 40th pick in 2015 and Daniel Lynch 34th selection in 2018.

Kuhn has coached 15 All-Americans and 28 All-ACC honorees in his tenure at Virginia. A three-time First-Team All-American, Hultzen was Virginia’s first-ever ACC Freshman of the Year in 2009, then followed it up by becoming the first-ever two-time ACC Pitcher of the Year in 2010 and 2011 before being selected second overall in the 2011 MLB Draft. In addition, Doolittle (2005-06), Jacob Thompson (2007) and Brandon Kline (2011) each earned All-America honors and played for the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

Prior to becoming the first assistant coach to be hired at Virginia under current head coach Brian O’Connor, Kuhn served as the associate head coach and pitching coach at Little Rock for seven years from 1997-2003. At Little Rock, Kuhn managed all aspects of the Trojans’ pitching staff and was also the recruiting coordinator for the program. As recruiting coordinator, Kuhn had five-consecutive recruiting classes ranked nationally by Collegiate Baseball during his tenure with the Trojans.

Before coaching at Little Rock, Kuhn spent three years as the pitching coach at Charleston Southern. Under his leadership, the pitching staff led CSU to its first baseball conference championship and NCAA Regional appearance in school history. Kuhn also worked at Valencia Community College in Orlando, Fl. Prior to that, he was pitching coach for two years at Buchholz High School in Gainesville, Fl.

Kuhn started his career at Valencia Community College, where he played from 1987-89, then continued his career playing one season for the University of Florida in 1990. He is a 1992 graduate of Florida.

Kuhn is married to the former Katrina Gosdin. The couple has two sons, Kason and Kruse.
Matt Rein is in his third season as the Highlanders' pitching coach after being retained by head coach Karl Kuhn.

"After knowing and competing against Radford and Matt's pitching staffs over the last two years, retaining Matt was an easy decision," Kuhn said. "His pitching staffs worked quick, threw strikes and always competed at the highest level. One of the best compliments you can give another coach is that you didn't like facing their team or their pitching staff. That is the way I felt about Matt's pitching staffs at Radford. Matt is organized, highly motivated and is dedicated to making our pitchers the best they can be as well as attaining all their goals at Radford and beyond."

In his first season, Rein led Radford's pitching staff to a 4.84 ERA, ranking fifth in the Big South. The Highlander staff turned in a 4.75 ERA in conference action, while limiting Big South foes to a .247 clip. Radford was extremely hard on left-handed bats, holding opposing southpaws to a .239 batting average.

After leading the conference in wins, Austin Ross was named to the All-Big South First Team after finishing the 2018 campaign with a 9-4 record, ranking 30th nationally in wins. Ross struck out 69 in 68.2 innings, walking only 22 batters.

Leading the squad with a 3.54 ERA, opposing teams only hit .233 off Ross.

In Rein's second season leading the pitching staff, he lowered the staff ERA to a 4.69. The staff tallied a 2.5:1 walk ratio. The pitching staff led Radford to its first 30-win season since 2015. Andrew Nardi and Zack Ridgely ranked inside the Big South's top 10 in ERA for 2019. Nardi was fourth with a 3.60, while Ridgely was 10th with a 3.86. The duo also ended the year inside the top 10 in walks and earned runs allowed per game. Cameron Fritz had the eighth most wins of any Big South pitcher with a 6-2 record.

Rein arrives at Coker after a two-year stint at Longwood, where he guided a Lancer pitching staff that posted a 5.45 ERA with 440 strikeouts in 2015.

Prior to coaching at Longwood, Rein spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system as a member of the Johnson City Cardinals and Batavia Muckdogs. He made 15 appearances on the mound in 2011 for Johnson City, compiling a 2-1 record with a 3.60 ERA. He hurled 26 strikeouts in 20 innings pitched, while allowing 23 hits for a .284 average.

Rein also spent a summer pitching for the Lake Erie Crushers of the Frontier League. He made 20 appearances, including 18 starts, throwing 121.1 innings with a 2.36 ERA.

No stranger to the Big South, Rein was a four-year standout at Coastal Carolina. In 2011, he was named an American Baseball Coaches' Association (ABCA) All-American after earning Big South Pitcher of the Year accolades. He was also a two-time All-Big South First Team selection, totaling 21 career wins with a 2.99 career ERA for the Chanticleers.

A native of Houston, Texas, he received his bachelor's degree from Coastal Carolina in May 2013.
Josh Reavis is in his third season as Radford’s hitting coach after being retained by head coach Karl Kuhn.

“In whatever organization you are in, you want people that are invested and have pride in where they are working. Josh Reavis has both,” Kuhn said. “He is a former walk-on player and turned himself into a team captain and leader at Radford. Nothing says you love your organization more than after you play at a school, you continue to coach at that school. Josh Reavis bleeds red and white. He is a Highlander through and through. I don’t know if I’ve met another individual that cares about his alma mater more than Josh Reavis. He is a tireless worker and is going to do wonders with our offense. I know that he and coach Rein together are going to bring in tremendous student-athletes that represent Radford baseball and Radford University the right way.” - Karl Kuhn, Head Baseball Coach, Radford University

Reavis also was an instrumental part in leading Kyle Butler and J.D. Mundy to First-Team All-Big South selections. He also lent a helping hand to Spencer Horwitz, who was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 22nd round. Horwitz was an all-conference honorable mention member in 2019.

The 2018 season saw the Highlander offense finish with a .252 average and 267 RBIs, while leading the Big South with 19 triples. After only earning 194 walks in 2017, Radford ranked second in the league with 269 this season.

Reavis was instrumental in the development of Straton Podaras during his sophomore season behind the plate. Hitting .253 with a .403 on-base percentage, Podaras threw out 16 runners in 36 attempts.

Reavis returns to Radford following a two-year stint in the Toronto Blue Jays organization. The former Highlander backstop spent his two seasons between the Northwest League’s Vancouver Canadians and the Appalachian League’s Bluefield Blue Jays.

As a player for Radford, Reavis helped lead the Highlanders to 137 wins and 2015 NCAA Tournament appearance.

The Midlothian, Va., native was instrumental in leading the Highlanders to their first Big South Regular Season and Tournament Championships in program history.

“T’e’m very excited to take this opportunity at my alma mater and continue the tradition of excellence within our program,” Reavis added. “Our guys continued to develop throughout the season and really saw how good they could be toward the end of the year. I’m ready to get started and help bring another championship to Radford.”

A career .290 hitter, Reavis appeared in 170 games over his four-year career, starting in 147 of them. Reavis tallied 165 hits over the span, driving in 100 runs and scoring 109. The 2015 season saw him drive in a career-best 41 runs on 12 doubles. Over his career, Reavis was hit by 24 pitches, which rank 10th in program history, including getting plunked 13 times his senior season.

Reavis earned a bachelor’s degree in exercise sport and health education from Radford in 2015. He was a 38th-round selection by the Blue Jays in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.
Josh Merrigan is in his first season as an assistant coach for the Highlanders after joining the program in September 2019.

Merrigan comes to Radford as a former assistant at Youngstown State, Highland Community College and Morningside Community College. Merrigan will assist Josh Reavis with the hitters and the infielders as well as serve camp coordinator for Highlander Baseball Camps.

“After having a lot of interest in the volunteer position on a national level I felt that it was the most important thing for our student-athletes to have someone of the pedigree of Josh to join us,” Kuhn said. “His coaching and playing experiences are invaluable. Both at the collegiate and community college level, as well as playing at Oklahoma State and minor league level with the Rockies and the Cardinals. Josh is going to bring an incredible amount of energy to our program. I’ve known Josh for over 25 years, I know what kind of man he is and the type of character he has. His number one focus is going to be the dedication and the development of our student-athletes here at Radford.”

In 2018-19, Merrigan worked for Harrisburg Baseball Association in South Dakota within the 18U organization having many duties on and off the baseball field. He also coached in the Valley Baseball League as a part of the New Market Rebels staff.

Merrigan comes to the New River Valley after a two-year stint at Youngstown State for the 2017-18 seasons. In his first year at Youngstown State, Merrigan and the YSU staff injected a new energy into the program. With largely the same roster from the previous season along with some late additions over the summer, the Penguins won more games during the 2017 regular season than in five of the previous six years. Additionally, YSU tied for its most Horizon League wins since 2009.

Three senior pitchers were a big factor in the improvement for Youngstown State. Jeremy Quinlan battled through injuries to go 3-0 over nine starts with a 3.95 ERA. He earned complete-game victories in consecutive home starts in April, and YSU went on to have more complete games from its staff than in any of the previous seven years. Quinlan finished his career ranking seventh in school history in games started while also ranking among the top 20 in career innings and strikeouts.

Merrigan came to Youngstown having served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, during the 2016 season. The Mustangs had a 44-16 record, and the pitching staff was a big contributor with 423 strikeouts, the ninth-most in the NAIA. Individually, closer Lance Spongberg ranked 18th in the country with eight saves.

Prior to his appointment at Morningside, Merrigan was the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at Highland Community College (Highland, Kan.) in 2015. He served in the same capacity at Wayne State College (Wayne, Neb.) in 2014.

Before entering the college ranks, Merrigan served as an Associate Scout for the Tampa Bay Rays from 2008-13.

Merrigan guided several teams to state tournament appearances while coaching Legion teams in South Dakota. His 2007 Sioux Falls Post 15 West team won South Dakota’s “A” American Legion championship and finished third in the American Legion Central Plains Regional.

Merrigan was drafted three separate times in his playing career and pitched two seasons in the St. Louis Cardinals organization from 2001-02. He was drafted for the first time in the 18th round of the 1997 MLB Draft out of Vermillion High School in South Dakota by the Montreal Expos. The Expos selected him again a year later in the 33rd round, and the Cardinals drafted him in the 17th round in 2001.

In 2001, he pitched for the New Jersey Cardinals in the New York-Penn League, which is the same league that the Youngstown-area Mahoning Valley Scrappers play in. Merrigan went on to pitch two seasons in the Northern League for the Sioux Falls Canaries and the Sioux City Explorers in 2003 and 2004. He was selected as a Northern League All-Star in 2003.

As a collegian, Merrigan pitched two seasons at Butler Community College where he posted a two-year record on the mound of 10-4 and earned all-conference honors. He went on to pitch as a junior and senior at Oklahoma State and was named Second-Team All-Big 12 in both seasons. He had a 16-6 record in his two seasons in Stillwater.

Merrigan earned his bachelor’s degree in sociology from Oklahoma State. He has a son named J.D.

Catcher in high school who transitioned to outfielder prior to the 2018 season.

Accounts for nearly half of Radford's hit-by-pitches, being plunked eight times this season.

Has hits in each of the last two games and three of the last four.

Hit Radford's first triple of the season in the eighth inning at Virginia Tech (Feb. 25).

Leads the team with seven runs scored through the first eight games.

Recorded a hit in all three games of Radford's opening weekend sweep of N.C. Central (Feb. 14-16).

Made 45 starts in 2018, earning one Big South Freshman of the Week honor.

36 appearances and 14 starts in 2019.

First career grand slam came as part of a two-homer game against Charleston Southern (Apr. 20, 2018).

Has a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage in 88 career games.
