

Bob Cote

Avid Gardener

CiB Veteran

Bob hails from Bruderheim and recently retired from his positions as Director of Public Works and Fire Chief for the Town of Bruderheim. He has been an active member of the local Communities in Bloom committee since 2002.

Bob is a dedicated volunteer for more than forty years with various clubs and organizations. He is currently serving on the Bruderheim Agricultural Society as a Director and is volunteering with the Bruderheim Fire Department.

In his retirement, Bob works on various woodworking projects and donates many of his items to silent auctions to support community initiatives.

He enjoys the outdoors, working in the garden with his wife, golfing and travelling. He enjoys visiting communities and meeting new people.
