About the Alberta Recreation and Parks Association

The Alberta Recreation and Parks Association (ARPA) is a provincial not-for-profit organization committed to building healthy citizens, communities, and environments in Alberta through recreation and parks. We envision a province that proactively uses recreation and parks to enhance individual well-being, community vitality, economic sustainability, and natural resource conservation.

ARPA has over 1,500 members who represent 120 Alberta communities. Our members include community and public parks and recreation agencies, elected officials, corporations, students, and volunteers.

About Parks Forum

The Parks Forum was inspired by the incredible diversity of Alberta’s parks, landscape and open spaces. As a result, the Forum has been attended by a broad cross-section of participant from Alberta’s three major park providers (municipal, provincial, and national), as well as a variety of key partners, educators, and students. This event typically attracts 150 delegates and has been held biennially since 2005.

The theme for the 2015 Parks Forum is “Connections”. Parks create Connections – connections with nature, connections with health, connections with other sectors and other people and even connections with our inner self.
