And - critically for policy and public relations goals - TOO EARLY. Geez, if only the PIGS could have moved a few years more slowly, you might have snuck this one past us. 706. With our current militarized police force, is it any wonder communities have lost faith in the police? It's NOW worse than it was in the 60's-70's. The motto used to be, to protect & serve. Now it seems to be, to enforce & panic. The firearms safety training that police officers get is SOO substandard compared to the military, or even what I learned about firearms safety at 10 years old. Please do something about this abuse, as you are one of the only ones that can.

If a policeman assaults and/or kills a non-armed civilian, kills or assaults a vulnerable person with an intellectual or physical disability, or does the same to anyone deemed innocent of being a dangerous perpetrator of crime of any kind, THAT OFFICER (S) ARE GUILT OF MURDER AND ASSAULT AND NEED TO BE JUSTLY PUNISHED UNDER THE LAW....not just given leave from duty for a couple of days or weeks! 1641. I definitely believe there is a lot of racial bias from the police, but I also think police brutality and their general lawlessness has grown way out of bounds. The police are out of control, break laws constantly, and seem immune from any meaningful oversight. Most politicians seem to only praise cops. Instead, we have to pay out tax dollars to support them and the military contractors who supply them with "training" and "equipment." We shouldn't have to mount our own militias to take back our communities from the police we're forced to pay for... it's ridiculous and criminal, and clearly time for the central govt to step up and protect its citizens. 1927. My heart breaks each time I see the terrible injustice that is being done to brown-skinned young men and what makes it even more sad and unfair is that the policemen who commit these evil crimes are not paying for it, they get away... and I believe this is the reason why more policemen continue to target, shoot and kill black youth - even if a person is found doing something that is wrong, shooting first is not the answer. We are living in a society whereby it is not safe for our young, black males!!! There has got to be a better and more civilized way. When my 22-year-old son leaves home to go to work of to hang out with his friends - I have no peace until he returns home, neither does his dad... so I pray and ask God to cover him and protect. He is decent, he is respectful but that does not matter!!! Please do not allow these policemen to get away!!!

1952. As a nation, we've lost trust in the police -- and for great reasons. They are not trustworthy, they victimize citizens, they kill unarmed civilians who are no danger, and they revel in violence and mahem. Now they have military gear and weapons they are not trained in nor responsible enough to be entrusted with. We need the federal government to provide meaningful oversight by prosecuting police criminals and empowering citizen review boards to oust the bad apples spoiling the whole bunch. When no police are ever punished for their criminal acts, they are all emboldened and they abuse their power. Surely that's as obvious as the noses on our faces now. Please save us from these thugs.

2700. My family and I are opposed to militarized policing in our communities. Here in New Mexico many of our police forces have been trained to shoot and kill, with no community policing policies. The death rate by police shootings has increased substantially. The federal government needs to end the Defense Departments policy of placing military equipment from the Middle East wars in our communities. You have the opportunity to focus on a Department of Peace and create a cabinet level agency that finds peaceful solutions to conflict. Leave a legacy of peace, not a legacy of killing and war. It is well-known that more intelligent people are less likely to profile people based on how they look, and I believe that putting more intelligent people on police forces will lower the incidence of police violence. 3049. Police are supposed to protect every single one of us, not kill us in cold blood because of the color of our skin. Police should be subject to regular psychiatric evaluation and should have a high standard of tolerance. Instead we have trigger happy bullies and thugs shooting people of color. Ppl more often then not have some kinda of implised bias towards those that they have been conditioned to fear ... leadership , as well as diolog are non existent w/t respect to these two communities , the PD an those policed by a system that has ... lost its way as to equal protection under the law . The implementation of DOD 1033 across the nation IMO , is a miscalculation of the police an their core mission . Everything in moderation including battlefield weapons that may , or may not have a practical use inside our nation .The shootings an subsequent deaths of all these unarmed ppl needs to be addressed by the DOJ ASAP.

3112. I am writing to demand your leadership and intervention in addressing the nationwide crisis of police brutality. Every day, the lives, safety, and freedom of Black and brown youth and adults are threatened by discriminatory and violent policing tactics. Law enforcement kill Black Americans at nearly the same rate as Jim Crow era lynchings. The federal government has a clear role to play in overturning the conditions that led to these tragedies and setting a higher standard of policing across the country. The standards, policies, and practices of the executive branch set the tone and tactics of local and state law enforcement. The integrity of America and our criminal justice system must be restored. I urge you to take definitive and immediate action, including but not limited to the following reforms: Thank you, Bruce D Burleigh 3262. To the Obama Administration, Depts of Justice, Defense and Homeland Security: While the public or private annals of recorded history may not capture your misdeeds, each of you as individuals will have to live with the constant reminders of the effects of your misdeeds and decisions for all eternity. If you think you will be able to gloat about them to yourself, or escape or forget that you embraced, supported, condoned, or did nothing to stop the evil practice of the public and privately condoned murder of Black Americans, think again. The memory will always haunt you in the private moments of your thoughts and that is where personal and self punishment and anguish are lethal. This is the time to stand up and be counted for good, for right, for justice and for the dignity of humankind.

3273. I am very disappointed in your administration Mr. President. It seems like you and Mr. Holder are afraid to make a strong stand against police brutality and racial profiling. Mr. President, you show more zeal discussing how to combat ISIS or campaigning for your fellow democrats than you do when discussing the atrocities of racism. Why is this? Why are you and Mr. Holder not being vocal enough. We all understand that you need to be impartial, but enough is enough. The overt racism is a slap in the face to African-Americans. it is like a message is being sent that no matter what office an African-American holds in the United States, white supremacy will always dictate how Americans live. We need to stop giving individuals that hold certain positions impunity. No one is above that law! I spent 23 years in the Air Force and retired last year. I was so infuriated when colonels and generals were allowed to retire when they commit crimes, but an enlisted can lose everything if they do something trivial. This type of governing has to go. We need to hold the police to the same standards as everyone else. I understand the nature of the job makes it difficult for them to be completely passive. I do not legislation that will hinder the police from doing their jobs, but I do want legislation that will rogue police officers that use their position of authority to prey on civilians to be held accountable for their actions. If it means life sentences or execution, then so be it! we need justice Mr. President! We need it now!!! BTW, I sent an email to the DOJ a couple of months ago and did not get response. I guess that's par for the course.

3285. we have seen countless examples of the Ferguson police doing exactly the wrong things at the wrong time! From using tanks & snipers as a method of crowd control to an obviously corrupt police dept & prosecuter! Recently we saw another example when a police officer shot a black man with no verbal warning while trying to get his driver's license as the police asked for! I don't think this is a unique situation, it is indicative of the paranoia & mistrust police have of regular citizens. As Bill Maher said recently, "when did police become such pussies?" The bottom line is, if police are that afraid to do their jobs, they shouldn't have the job!!

As a white male, I have the privilege of not having to worry about racial profiling, being shot unarmed in broad daylight without justice for my family, as well as other unfair advantages that I typically don't even think about most days. It disturbs me that other members of our society have to be paranoid of these injustices on a daily basis and the impact that has on their development as someone who is "legally" supposed to have the same rights as myself. Although many of them may turn out to be justified, the ones that are not, and especially those which DAs decline to prosecute, have shaken the confidence of much of the country in the police, whether or not it has happened in their community, because we all now know it CAN happen in our community. We are fed up with African Americans being targeted, with police being allowed to do what they want with impunity, and with police forces not being taught any way to approach a situation that doesn't include shooting first and asking questions later.

4500. The police are supposed to "protect and serve". It is vital that they be held to account when they don't. In too many instances where white cops kill black men there is a rush to judgment that it was the victim's fault that the cop "had to" kill him, that the victim "must have done something wrong" - even if it's something like lying face down on a subway platform like Oscar Grant or kneeling with your hands up like Michael Brown. It's totally unbelievable that a professionally trained police officer has no other way of subduing a black male with any weapon but a gun or with no weapon but to use deadly force. That they resort to deadly force at the drop of a hat makes them cowards and racist.

4788. This is definitely the time for a paradigm shift in how we see the world - what has changed and what has not. Looking clearly and honestly at who we are, how we live, and what we need to do, we should be able to see clearly that the time has come to stop denying how black people are treated in our society and what needs to be done to protect them and educate everyone about how things ought to be. Shoot first and ask later has never been acceptable and now it should be punishable. We need to take responsibility for who we are - together - and start implementing change so that we really do have equal rights in this country.

There are people of every type that are bad and it is hard to tell the good from the bad. Police have a hard and sometimes very dangerous duty. They know this going into this line of work. The answers will not come easy, it is a societal problem and one we must all work to resolve. Please get sincere and make the racial problems become less horrible for the good of all.

5283. The war on drugs set the stage for the racially loaded, violent mind set of most police and the people who train and manage them. The war on terror legitimized practices that should never have been allowed even in the military like surveillance and torture. It's important to de-militarize the tools used by police, and to pass some laws and change some policies that seem to grant carte blanche for killing and maiming anyone who 'causes the officer to feel in fear'.

5423. We have an epidemic on our hands. As a white educator, I am increasingly horrified by the treatment the police mete out to people of color. It is clear they have somehow gotten the idea that all people are not human beings in the same way they are. Every police dept. in the country needs to provide ongoing cultural sensitivity training as well as ongoing support. Additionally, they need to be trained to use the least aggressive responses. What I'm seeing again and again is deadly force applied in situations where little or no force is required. It is clear that we have a national problem that requires a nation-wide response.

After becoming informed about many of these cases, I am concerned that there is a culture of racism within law enforcement and unprofessional behavior that has been allowed to go on by some higher ups in municipal and county law enforcement agencies against people of color sending the message that it is acceptable to treat people of color that way. We must send a strong message to law enforcement that this needs to stop and the entire culture associated with law enforcement needs to change to ensure that people can build a relationship with law enforcement bases on trust and respect instead of fear and violence and feel safe and secure in their own neighborhoods or any neighborhoods they may be in.

5936. I am a senior citizen but I know that living while black in America is extremely difficult to do, especially for young black men. Steve Harvey said a few days ago on his TV show that he has taught his sons how to act when the police stops them, in the hope that they will not become victims of unwarranted police brutality like Michael Brown. This madness has to stop. Young African American men are becoming an endangered species just because of the color of their skin. Whatever happened to equal rights under the law?

We have to openly acknowledge the racial discrimination still built into our institutions and social interactions and honestly work with each other to form a more just society, for all our sakes. I am, by the way, "white", and I completely agree with my brothers and sisters that the discrimination is just as vicious, if not worse, when it's hidden. Air it all out.

6108. There was a time when being a police officer was something to feel proud about. Not today. Their motto, “To protect and serve” can now be considered a downright fallacy and would even be laughable if it weren't so tragic. Even some white people are being subjected to horrific police behavior and they’re just beginning to wake up. It’s time for the justice department to wake up as well. And what’s even worse, after the police commit these atrocities, they are rarely held accountable. Some examples for you in case you missed these: Baby is critically injured by concussion grenade being thrown into his crib by a militarized S.W.A.T. team, an innocent man is shot dead in his own home because of a bad tip and the so called “war on drugs,” policemen who rape the women they pull over for traffic violations, unarmed teenagers are shot dead in the street, and all the horrific beatings, some of which resulted in death, too numerous to list. I say it’s time to make some major changes to the way the police are trained and how they deal with the public. And it's also time to hold these out of control bullies accountable. At this point, we, the people have ZERO trust and confidence in our police and who could blame us? This problem has become an epidemic across our nation and something must be done about it. Please help the people and restore our trust in law enforcement.

And then the police don't have to take responsibility for these bad shootings? That's got to change, before everyone (not just black and brown folks) lose their respect for police officers. I live in St Louis. I want Officer Darren Wilson to be charged and have a trial. I'm white - the only reason that matters is because I want to point out that, though I'm a member of the "privileged" race I think that police profiling of blacks and browns is WRONG.

7033. Death to the copper bastards! I know I am in the minority in the Democratic-liberal community, but I adamantly support the right to keep and bear arms and the main reason is not self-defense against "private" criminals, but so that an armed populace can revolt against a tyrannical government and kill its armed thugs (coppers). I am not of course referring to President Obama's administration, but to the totalitarian police state apparatus put in place by W. in the aftermath of 9/11 and tragically kept by President Obama, who broke his promise to scrap W.'s "homeland security" tyranny. When America's streets are littered by the corpses of thousands of murderous coppers killed by American citizens in self-defense that will mark the arrival of a Second American Revolution to restore the rights declared by our glorious Founders.

7146. Police force candidates should be screened for a background of having been abused or brutalized. Brutalized people want to brutalize others. Stalin and Hitler were both severely and continuously beaten as children. Abused people should be identified and helped to lose their anger and become their real selves -- they should not be placed in positions of having armed power over other people. 70 million people died in WWII. Most were civilians who were in the way of the German, Soviet, and Japanese armies filled with individuals with a horrific grudge, since childhood, against humanity. This is what we are creating if we don't get help for a whole population of abusive police. They are predators, not keepers of the public peace and civil law. Get them off the force and into help and recovery.

7267. As a white woman, I am utterly appalled at the disregard for life evidenced by the actions of so very many white Police Officers when dealing with people of color. It is time for personal responsibility at the very least, and prosecution of those in law enforcement who will not follow the laws they are employed to uphold. It is time to put body cameras on every officer who deals with the public, and severe consequences for not engaging that camera when interacting with the people they are hired to "Protect and Serve."

7268. The recent increase of police brutality and outright murder has got to stop now. The militarization of police departments all over the country has to stop now. The citizens are not the enemy. I realize that a cop's job is demanding and often times dangerous. We need better policy and vetting of potential recruits for law enforcement. It is a mystery to me how many LEO who are racist and otherwise psychologically unfit are allowed to carry arms and use them with impugnity on the general public with no consequences for their actions. This has to stop now.

7600. It saddens me deeply to hear my Black and brown friends say that they fear for the safety of their children. The truth is, though, that there is a lot to fear, with racially-motivated violence from police being a very real threat. The culture among law enforcement of treating all people of color as a potential threat, probably criminal, and an object to be controlled must absolutely be dismantled and replaced with a sophisticated, engaged one that treats all people with respect.

7742. Death squad police are rampaging across the nation killing mostly innocent African American men and whites with total immunity. Who gave them the green light to do this and what right do they have to murder innocent people and be their own judge and jury? Between for profit prisons that are packed with blacks, destroyed black communities and now random murders, it I clear that a genocide is being waged against our Black citizens. How are we so different from ISILl or Honduras thugs? This behavior is an outrage and must stop- everyday we hear about another innocent black man shot to death! Are we now a lawless nation that lets our police murder anyone without any consequences? And now those Americans who are video taping these egregious acts are being labeled terrorists- How dare they? This is a n assault on our way od life and the rule of law in our nation.

I know you can't stop members of Police Departments from being racist but if you put mechanisms in place that will oversee the actions of Police Officers like having video cameras in place to record all interactions between the police and whom ever they engage would be helpful. Also compiling statistics of who, where,race of individual and or ethnicity of individuals confronted and under what circumstances each police engaged the individual that would hopefully reveal problem officers and or Police Departments.

The violence that will ultimately ensue will rip this country apart. The people demand that this unconstitutional wave of police militarization end. I say this by the fact that I know of no one who supports it. Not a single person...therefore, the numbers running true across the nation you'd be hard pressed to find anyone in support of militarizing the already violent nature of today police. Wicked men in high places have persecuted the poor and systematically oppressed women, gays and people of color, all in the service of Mammon. These tyrants only give a false illusion of Justice. These satanic men do not value Freedom or Equality for anyone but themselves. We have been bamboozled, brainwashed and lied to. America is a sham. And they know it. Do they think their evil, injustice, and corruption will continue forever? Do they really believe their iniquities will go unpunished? To those in power, the Rulers over the weak and the poor, the Administrators of the Law, the Corporate and Political Kings, the wicked men in high places... you are surely headed toward a great and dreadful day.

8700. It is evident, all across the nation, that black men are being target for police brutality and even death. I am a white woman, 67 years old and I firmly believe that we are all created equal and should be treated equal. This police brutality against blacks has got to stop. Either the police across the country are not being properly trained or there is just a lot of anger and hatred towards the black community. Regardless of the reason, it has got to stop. It's evident from all of the videos that are making the news, that the police are out of control. And thank goodness for these videos, otherwise the police would just get away with their brutal ways. The needless killings, beatings and tasings have got to stop....NOW!

8850. I write to offer my full-throated endorsement of the letter and its contents. As a 67-year old white male, I am appalled at the endless drumbeat of unwarrented frisks, taserings, arrests and killings at hands of local law enforcement. The sheer number of these occurrences angers and frustrates me beyond words. While I understand how this has come to pass so many years after the abolition of slavery and the passage of the civil rights act, there is NO EXCUSE for the conduct of these professionals. Police officers should set an example in their communities. In fact they are, it's just that in too many instances it's a really bad one. Our society must begin somewhere to right this wrong. We cannot legislate the conduct of civilians. We can, however, require a standard of conduct and human decency from our officers of the law. We live in an era where good jobs are very difficult to find. Police officers make a very good living complete with exceptional long term benefits. They must be required to treat all human beings equally, with decency and respect. If that is too much to ask, then someone who understands this concept should wear the badge while the offending officer is made an example of. A few terminations, well justified for the kinds of offenses which we refererence herein, and I suspect that a different attitude might begin to spread along with word of the job loss. Let me be clear. This type of treatment of blacks by police officers around the country is the single most troubling human rights violation that America faces. We Americans are famous for calling out other nations for their human rights failures. Might I suggest that it is time we take a good hard look in the mirror. Most sincerely, William Mackoff

9108. I know two things for a fact. One is that policing policy; both locally and federally, need to change where certain communities are concerned. Police are actually given flexibility in their use and methods of enforcements in order to respond to law enforcement needs where they serve. Most police departments respond to black/ethnic or minority communities very differently than they do white communities and therein lies the problem and it is wrong because not all minority communities are filled with criminals and not all white communities house residents innocent of committing crimes. They need to figure out policy that addresses these facts. Second, the police are a part of the community they serve and are to serve it with the highest reverence for human life. They are supposed to deescalate a situation and use lethal force as a last resort. Today we see more police skip every measure in between (i.e. wait for backup, apprehend the person with handcuffs, shoot with regard for preservation of human life) and just shoot or shoot first and ask questions later. It is a fact that the majority of police are good but the most recent demonstration of the militarization of police enforcement is happening a little too often and it's a good that it's in the open now so that it can change. I know that we live in a Post 9/11 world now but Americans like me and so many others love this country and we are not the enemy and we want to make sure that the Policing Institution can more effectively make that distinction.

9278. This isn't just happening to black, as a Chicano just getting pulled over is dangerous, I've had officers write me a ticket at higher speeds, neglect to show up after multiple calls about a crime, and harass me when I'm the victim of a crime. This isn't unique at all; we've gone backwards as a society, whether it's policing or prosecuting or sentencing those of us of color face a different, much harsher world than whites in the U.S.

9340. I am appalled at the volume and degree of police harassment and militarization. The clear message from local police jurisdictions seems to be: "We will go to any lengths deem 'appropriate' to harass, debase and deprive you of your rights, all the way up to and including depriving you of your very life if we choose to do so". And, worst of all, they will NEVER be held accountable for their crimes against the citizens they have sworn to "protect and defend". Incredible. Thank god for cell phone cameras.

9378. This has become a pandemic in our society. If the cadet cannot spell respect, standing backwards, he or she should not be allowed to own a gun. I have friends and family, as well as acquaintances who are or have been local cops with bullets in their guns that have b-b's in the core. My uncle is a cop. A man who I greatly admire and respect was an FBI special agent, Superintendent of the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension, MN State Commissioner of Public Safety, University of Minnesota Assoc. VP of Campus Health and Safety -- administering over all MNSCU and University of Minnesota police officers, cadets -- and, I believe, scouring the system for bad butch and stupid men and women who got into policing for the largest U.S. land grant university. Given problems with a medication that I'd been taken off of for mood disorders while we tried hormone replacement to improve my thyroid system, I lost my calm and discipline, and made a morose and possibly threatening comment on John McCain's campaign office headquarters line -- immediately calling back to identify myself and contact information; then calling to U.S. Secret Service to head them off to let them know that I'm not violent. (2008) Special Agent Katie Westpetal was a true pro -- not butch, and willing to listen to a very embarrassed 46-year old, promising her that I would head in to the University of Minnesota Medical Center -Fairview Riverside Behavioral Emergency Center for observation and to get back on the mood stabilizer after four months being off the med. Katie actually said that she considered me a hero for coming to the Service to take responsibility for a gaffe. Our beat officers in Riverside Plaza, where the kids from Brian Coyle and Cedar Riverside Youth Council were demonstrating against ISIS and el-Shahab recruiters, are great. The patrol officers are a mic of morons and good cops. I want morons out of the picture in the United States. The University of Minnesota brought in three FBI trained officers after they got rid of the three who continue to allow two men beat me on campus over a two year period with the simple knowledge that I experienced severe and persistent mental illness (I'm doing great these days. I'm very committed to becoming one of the most upstanding men in the United States. Many politicians, judges and attorneys have laid the ground before me, including my one time neighbor, Fritz Mondale, with whom I worked in 1979-1980 at campaign headquarters for Carter Mondale. We must absolutely send a strong message from the People of the United States, and both our Congress and presidents, that cowboys are not recruitment material, and that any cop who encourages the giving of a rifle to a seven year old girl in the city should be banished from the industry -- as happened recently when two cops came to my door after complaints that a former colleague of the Hennepin County Adult Mental Health Advisory Council, who had been in crisis for several months with bi-polar-2 had been daily sending out hundreds of emails to once current, and then former colleagues, and especially and privately to me, after the Hennepin County Board of Commissioners rescinded his three-year appointment -- a first since these councils were mandated by our state legislature in 1989. The man had a history as a heavy user of marijuana, as a plantation owner of marijuana. He said he had 89 plants several years ago. He was his own quality control officer, and it friend much of his brain -- in additational to the chemical and emotional damage done both by neuro-chemicals and medication. A cop endorsing the ownership of a rifle by a seven-year old girl, under these conditions and histories is out to lunch and should have his ID and security apparati taken away from him for the duration of a long term period of therapy with someone who knows how to treat cowboy and butch personalities. All of this occurred in Minnesota. The names of the officers can be located. The name of the man with mental illness is Neil Elavsky of Hennepin County - District 4, near Lake Nokomis. It is doubtful, as an aside, that he paid taxes on his revenues from the pot plantation. He bragged about being the biggest and the best in his rural northern Minnesota County, the youngest of six siblings who frequently abused him, the son of a trapper, hunter, lumberman, and farmer. That said, due to my generally urbane appearance and manner, I have gotten along well with most law enforcement officers.

Po-Dunk Cops must be secured from public contact. Defenses for bad cops who are known to be bad should be met with the hardest and harshest prosecution and punishment and rehabilitation. Barry N. Peterson 1600 South Sixth Street - 334 Minneapolis, MN 55454

9468. We've had far too much of these shameful and discriminatory policies against African Americans in this country. Racial profiling is the order of the day almost everywhere….I see a proportionately huge number of black drivers pulled over by white policemen for who knows what, in comparison to the number of white drivers stopped by police. I always wondered why that was; now I know. "Driving while Black" arrests are the least violent police actions against African Americans…the worst actions have alarmed the public recently with the unjustified deaths of several black men and boys, including Mike Brown. This new form of Jim Crow needs to stop immediately, and the entire system of policing and justice reformed from the bottom up. I support this proposal by Color of Change, 100%.

9470. Abolish all police forces. They are a bigger threat to the public than the other criminals. It's not just the killings. Ninety-nine percent of cops commit felonies regularly, including robberies, rapes, extortion and drug dealing as well as official power abuse, brutality to suspects and prisoners, terroristic oppression, torture, perjury and subornation of perjury, forgery, evidence planting and evidence tampering, witness tampering, etc. If we simply must have police, we need to start from scratch, to build a force that is tightly handicapped by regulations, well-trained on civil rights, commanded by strong no-nonsense civilian leaders, spied on by an undercover U.S. Constitutional Police Force whose ONLY job is catching bad cops. No one who has been a cop before should be permitted to join this force. A good leavening of civilians should dilute the police culture by serving short terms in exchange for education grants, similar to the military. Judges should be empowered to summarily imprison police officers for up to one year, under contempt laws, when they taint cases by falsifying evidence or abusing defendants in any way.

9805. A man in Duvall Washington near Seattle shot a police officer then shot at but missed another police officer pursuing his attempted escape. Finally after a long police car chase where his car was disabled with tire spikes, the man got out of his car with a gun and knife drawn. In less provocative circumstances in Western Washington, suspects were killed on the spot. This man refused to put down his weapons so the police officers shot him...with a rubber bullet or bean bag...knocking the gun out of his hand and arresting him with little if any harm to the suspect. The point of this is, this white man was afforded every opportunity and restraint to live by both Duvall and Martin Luther King Junior County police. I am pleased the police did not kill this suspect. However knowing how many suspects were executed with less provocation in Western Washington, I demand every one of the involved jurisdictions proclaim this nonlethal approach will now be the standard protocol rather the exception it is at this point.

9824. The issue of policemen violating our citizen's civil rights left and right, and in so doing, killing young Black men apparently with impunity, has to stop TODAY. We need complete retraining of America's police forces. They need to KNOW our constitutional and civil rights by HEART. Police chiefs need to know when to take somebody out of active duty - when they are clearly too unstable, traumatized, or violent to be able to PROTECT AND SERVE us. If police express racial hatred on the job, they should be retrained, or on refusing that, fired. I, as a white woman do NOT want police shooting and brutalizing my Black brothers and sisters and calling themselves protecting me or mine. This is not protection, this is inexcusable state-sanctioned and state-funded violence against We The People and it has to stop NOW. So lets get busy and evolve before another Black son is erased from the world. NOT ON MY WATCH. And it should not be on yours either. All citizens must receive equal protection under the law. And while you are at it, you need to get all those tanks and military grade weapons OUT of our towns and cities. Police have shown they can not even handle a hand-gun, let alone all this military grade stuff that encourages them to treat American citizens like the enemy. STOP THIS NOW!

10330. Police officers used to identify themselves as members of the communities they served. More and more police forces are polarized against the communities wherein they are employed. The effectiveness of law enforcement is greatly enhanced when the community in general TRUSTS the people who are the law enforcers. But law enforcement no longer behaves in a trustworthy way. They seem only interested in beating down their communities. Why would any community want its police force to have any sort of military surplus weaponry? This contributes so greatly to breaking the trust! Who can communicate with an officer in an armored vehicle? And an officer who enters that armored vehicle has clearly decided he or she is on no other course except to "win."

10376. Although the final verdict is not yet in on Ferguson, it's certainly clear that profiling and police abuse are far too frequent in our country. In addition to the requested reforms, I'd also urge giving Federal assistance and guidance to local police forces on purchasing and using automatic cameras to record all police interactions with the public. Communities where this has been done have found marked reductions in police shootings as well as in citizen complaints of police misconduct.

Why is this society -dare I say, white-framed, supremacist societies included- treating black and brown bodies as unpeopled, with non-existent rights? How long do we watch as our institutions squander our human capital? It's time we recognize that we need no warrant to be- as they say, we are the warrant 10727. It will take some effort, but it would be prudent for police departments to fund programs that train youths, as well as at-risk young people of color from those areas, in public safety and law enforcement; youth employment training, community interaction and intervention agendas, and recruiting in the areas they have to serve, will help to give young people that represent the character of their own communities the chance to not only have an opportunity to learn a useful trade, but to also take personal responsibility for public safety and law enforcement in their own communities. This would place potential and future officers in areas they can readily identify with, and engender an increased level of trust and cooperation between law enforcement and the areas they are assigned to serve. What is occurring around the nation is just the opposite; police have no rapport or understanding of the neighborhoods they are tasked with protecting, and no trust built with those residing in these communities. New training and hiring policies should turn away from nepotism, good-old-boy networks, and policing designed to fill levels of inappropriate incarceration schemes designed for profit, especially at the expense of marginal offenders that are often products of their environment; and instead develop strategies for making police look somewhat like those they are designed to protect and serve. Minor offenses, in particular drug possession for minimal personal use, and with offenders who are underage, should be approached with designs on mandatory training and possibility of expunged records in exchange for community service, optional training in law enforcement, and educational opportunities in exchange for clean records and improved demonstrated behavior that shows they are willing to entertain a career in public safety and civic responsibility. The chance at a good paying job, educational prospects, and opportunities for advancement would not be lost on most young men or women, especially in a community or area of marginal economic opportunities. At present, many do not see a path to these types of jobs or positions, because of the often intimidating and overbearing posture of current police departments in their communities. Often youth feel they have few choices but crime; this strategy would blunt these suppositions, and give those at risk a path to a useful training and employment option; one that would enhance their personal worth as well as their community standing.

I am so tired of reading "he was acting within the guidelines of the department and the training he received." Bad training or lack of training is no excuse when the object is DEAD. The federal government is turning our country into an armed camp and a police state under the banner of "protecting us from terrorists." We don't need terrorists. We have thug cops already! 11041. Please instill hope back into the American people by holding those that commit unnecessary acts of force and violence accountable. Furthermore, please strengthen training and education requirements of those in law enforcement to include a broader understanding that is demonstrated in application regarding diversity, crisis prevention with non violent intervention, and other humane practices. Mental health providers deal with the same population as law enforcement and have a far less incidence of on the job violence. It is time for the scope of law enforcement in America to include community outreach and ongoing professional development regarding best, non violent practice.

But our government AND LAW ENFORCEMENT are so out of control and treating their communities as war zones instead of areas where they are there to protect and serve the people it is necessary!!! the MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE MUST stand together and bring both our government and law enforcement under control, and remind them that their duty is to serve the MAJORITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE and not just their own interests and the interests of just 1% of the American People!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

To use the anology that a Captain of the the OK State Patrol used about getting raped (don't get stopped) I guess she should be thankful that he didn't shoot her with a gun. EXAMPLE: John f. kennedy dispached the f.b.i. to birmingham, al. warrant in hand to remove george wallace from blocking the doors to the university of alabama or be arrested and the rest is history. the president must dispach the attorney general and the justice department to troubled areas to protect its citizens and all the laws passed to protect our rights under the constitution of the united states of america. but everything is so political the one's who serve have lost focus of their sworn duty. 11320. This is important because if we are not careful we are going to have a country where people are "disappeared" without any recourse for the families and friends of the missing loved ones. When walking down a street or asking a cop what and why he/she is in your neighborhood is considered a direct threat to the cop and is a legitimate reason to use lethal force against someone, that means this country already has big problems. And they need to be addressed now before they push us into becoming even more of a police state.

11348. The escalation of police killings and over-policing involving Black people has occurred since the time of the election of our president to the highest office in the land.I join you in this protest, but recognize that the hatred and fear of white people has been with us since the beginning of our sojourn in this racist nation. How do we pressure them to see our humanity? I'm not hopeful.

11399. I am an 87 year old white woman, raised in Detroit. Right out of high school I started working with others to try to have the Equal Accommodations law enforced. In fact, my whole life has been filled with anti-racist actitivities. It's hard to believe that here we are having to fight the same fight to get "liberty and justice for all." This time, the militarization of even a small-town police force like Ferguson has raised the ante and underlines the inherent racism that permeates American life.. It also shows that the guns can now be aimed at any color of person who may be considered "outsider" in this paranoid country. Every person of good conscience, every seeker of justice must join together to fight for what is right.

—Thomas Claymore

11548. Four hundred (reported) police killings in one year is far, far too many -- unless police are now regarded as a militarized occupying force authorized to shoot whoever they want on sight. Here in Seattle, a recognized Native American woodcarver was murdered several years ago -- from a distance and without warning. Of course he had a three-inch carving knife in his pocket. It is actions like his that, muliplied by the hundreds, that have caused trust in the police to vanish. Our country needs to change course, and insist that police act to protect us, and that police forces stop covering up situations where police murderously overstep their authority -- especially when those killed are people of color. These shootings have made me ashamed to be an American and must not continue.
—Sigrid Asmus
Seattle, WA

11549. Police forces across our country can NOT CONTINUE to ignore our LAWS and their OWN established procedures when dealing with black people. INDIVIDUAL cops MUST be held accountable for deaths or abuse of unarmed, even restrained, black people. They must be charged, arrested, and judged just as if they were civilians killing cops. The current "brotherhood" of police expecting impunity from the very laws they are pledged to uphold, and the support of department administrators in labeling shootings of unarmed civilians as "justified" indicates that police departments are no longer able to judge the actions of their own. Civilian oversight is obviously the only reasonable answer to the law enforcement community's inability to police their own.

The country that I love has become a police state and while people of color are especially targeted, and no one can feel safe when interacting with police officers in any community. This must stop. 12079. If now is not the time to transform policing nationwide, I cannot imagine why. I have been shocked and horrified for years at the out-right abuse of police toward black and brown people with no penalties for their behavior. How did we not know their behavior would become more and more forceful, but even I was shocked when the Ferguson police rolled out in tanks to face a community of average citizens who wanted answers because an unarmed teenager had been shot while running away with his hands up. If now is not the time, When? We are in this mess because policing needed transforming years ago. Now police officers see black and brown communities as The Enemy! It is time for changes.

12387. Our government should protect all of it's citizens. With unfair and biased laws such as Stop and Frisk and Stand Your Ground, Black people and Black men are being targeted, their civil rights denied, and being murdered. This is systematic racism and government-backed genocide. I'm signing this petition because I want swift action and immediate change. I want to see officers who murder unarmed citizens in cold blood, face the same penalties as a civilian who commits the same act. I want the public to know the names of people who are killed at the hands of police daily. I want the federal government to investigate every case of police brutality. I want the police to be trained to diffuse/assess a situation instead of shooting first or applying illegal restraints. I want a chance for young Black men to live with the same freedom and liberties of young White men, without fear of death. Let us never forget Amadou Diallo, Sean Bell, Mike Brown, Ramarley Graham, and thousands who go unnamed.

It needs a unified effort from those who have the power to govern the entire country. Too long we have neglected this very deep and painful part of our country. It has been shown time and again that the tactics practiced by numerous police departments overwhelmingly effect minorities. Young boys, men and women have all in some way been targeted for excessive force, so called use of force killings and racial profiling incidents at a pace that far outnumbered their populations. I can't imagine what it must be like for parents of young men to worry that they might be next. It is unacceptable how policing is done in these minority communities or on any street in the USA for people of color. Critical reforms on every level must be initiated. As a 67 year old single white woman I've grown afraid of the police and hope I never have the need to call on them for help. They no longer seem to be here 'To Protect and Serve'.

12842. It is time to put policies in place that once and for all set standards that will protect all human beings. Gun violence, racial profiling, police brutality... It needs to stop. Police cars should all have video cameras, police officers should also be required to record every arrest... So the language and physical interaction between the police and citizens under arrest have concrete, indisputable evidence to what really happens during an arrest. Police need to be held accountable for excessive use of force, shooting unarmed individuals and using inappropriate language that fuels violent situations (racial slurs, condescending language, sexist comments, gay bashing, racial profiling, etc). Our police force is paid by the state and local taxes to protect the communities they serve. I honor their commitment yet I dispise racial profiling, excessive use of force, gun violence and and abuse of power. Please set policies to prevent needless deaths and inappropriate action. Thank you.

13435. The situation in Ferguson has "put a face" on a national problem. It is shocking for me, a resident of Chicago suburbs, to see the way the police attempted to manipulate information, disrespected the victim's family, and ramped up force on the street. I am shocked that the Governor did not immediately remove the prosecutor and put in someone who would have acted in such as way that no one could suspect the police officer was being protected by authorities. I personally will be very surprised if anything of consequence happens. This shooting of unarmed men of color has to stop, and it won't unless the Federal government gets involved.

13468. We saw the beginning of a brutal police state when so many rights were trampled and the Occupy movement was crushed like something you'd see in China, seriously! It brought back memories of the 60's for us. Now we see signs of overzealous police departments using military equipment and clothing, shooting first, asking second, overuse of leathal tactics, the abuse of power and a total disrespect for citizens (have you tried crossing the boarder lately? It's worse than airports! Under trained, or under qualified police are obviously a big part of the problem. Reign in the current police state!

13707. Now that the myth that we are living in a post-racial society has been widely exposed as an absurdity, it is time for the DOJ to finally end systematic racial oppression. In the past few decades police officers have been trained to use extra punitive measures in communities of color as a result of drug war policies. This has led to the transformation of police officers from protecters of peace and harmony to antagonizers who are rewarded for harassing, brutalizing, and arresting non-violent offenders of low level crimes. This relationship has caused many policemen and women to see people of color as less than human being. Eric Holder has the opportunity to stand up against police brutality before he resigns this year which will further embolden his legacy as a crusader against racial injustice.

13806. It's hard to believe it's 2014 and so many people are racist. I am an aging Baby Boomer and I feel I had parents that brought up me and my brother, never judge people by the color of their skin. Learning this at a young age, made it possible, to live our lives as not to be racists. We were not and it made our lives so much better. I have a 39 year old daughter and 33 year old son. I did not have to tell them, they learned by our behavior and what we said. I consider myself lucky!

13884. As a Black mother of two Black boys it sickens me to have to explain to my babies that the very people who are suppose to be here to protect and serve them are actually here to hunt and kill them. I can tell them till I'm blue in the face to get a good education and follow the rules, but we all know that none of that will change the fact that their skin is a little darker than some. My children, as well as every other child of color, deserves the right to walk to the store in Ferguson, Florida or any other city/state and not lose their lives. They deserve the right to shop at wal-mart, walk with a sword, listen to their choice of music and sleep on the couch in their own home. Furthermore, men and women of color have the right to stand outside of a store or on the side of the highway without being attacked. It is imperative that the federal government steps in now to clean house in police departments all across America, hold those involved in racially motivated attacks and killings accountable and put in place stricter laws that prohibit racial profiling. It is embarrassing that in 2014, America "the land of the free" is still allowing racism to control this country. Black lives matter!!!

13967. Law Enforcement is meant to "protect" the public. Shoot first is NOT the way to do that. Too many have died, because a police officer jumped to the conclusion of eminant danger. Then there are those who "seem" dangerous, when in fact they are mentally disabled, or just too frightened of the police. The thing is, Police don't walk their beat any more. They don't get to know the people they are there to serve, so they see danger in everyone who walks those streets. We must train Police - not to "shoot to kill" when shoot to maim is a better option, when that's possible. & It should be considered as a first option. And Police should get out of their cars, and walk with & interact with the people on their beat.

14035. We do need mandatory rules on how police officers interact with the community that lead them to pull a gun only as a last resort. A taser or pepper spray usually will subdue a drunk or rowdy citizen, and if police go two by two rather than alone in their patrol car they will be in less danger of being overwhelmed. Besides, they should try words before violence, especially in these terrible cases of mentally unbalanced people being beaten up or shot. Another thing, they should start walking through their communities, again two by two, and talking to the people there, so that both parties stop considering the other to be a deadly enemy. Most rowdy people are not criminals. The two young men in Ferguson were not doing anything except being rowdy. True they didn't immediately jump out of the road when commanded to do so, but they would have probably if the officer had stopped his car and gotten out. Officers need to try peaceful means before they shoot, since I understand they are trained to shoot to kill. Something really needs to be done.

I t appears to me that this is a crime which has been covered-up and should be under investigation, The city of Ferguson has embarrassed itself in the handling of the case of Mike Brown. People around the world now view race relations as a serious problem. This is evident by additional cases of police malfeasance. I will never agree with you decision to find another prosecutor. Additionally evidence of a juror acting inappropriately shows that this case is unlikely to reach a fair decision. In addition..THE WHOLE WORLD IS WATCHING... It is not to late to try to do what is fair. Arrest Mr. Wilson. This should have happened as soon as it was obvious he is guilty of murder!

14697. Subject: SENIORS THROWN UNDER THE BUS IN THE ACA Hi, This is important to be equitable to all of us in the USA. This is Elder abuse. We probably got left out as a compromise matter. Let's cut congress' pay and expenses to make it up to US. What do they call that decrease to cover the increase? Offset..... That's why I created a petition to The United States House of Representatives, The United States Senate, and President Barack Obama, which says: "Restore the seniors who spend $100 a month from their social Security earnings, and have to buy supplement health insurance ($200/month) to cover their Medicare and are not covered under the 80/20 rule of the ACA. We are subsidizing the insurance companies on our backs" Will you sign this petition? Click here: http://petitions.moveon.org/sign/seniors-thrown-under?source=c.em.cp&r_by=1652660 Thanks!

14713. iT IS ABOUT TIME. During the Trayvon Martin trail, George Zimmerman raised ,more money for his defense than did the Martin family. Policemen in Staten Island had a show of support day organized for them after the Killing of Eric Garner. Police in Ferguson were, asked to remove the armbands they were wearing to show solidarity for the policeman Darren Wilson who killed Michael Brown.Although i support this initial effort, it does not go far enough.. When these events occur, I always ask myself the question, " Who lost their job ?" These officers don't run and hide. They return to the job , many time not withgin the communities they serve because it affords them a very rewarding life for them and their families. The local politician should lose his job, the mayor and the governor, the state assembly men and senators. Even the federal representatives must fall... Trayvon , Eric , Michael, all lost their lives to police men or those who thought they should act like them and the elected officials, most of them did not offer solace or condolences to the parents in the fear that such a show of sympathy would cost them their jobs. We have to make sure that happens next time and every time after that... VOTER REGISTRATION.. YOU MUST RALLY AROUND THAT 1 MILLION, 2 MILLION STRONG...WE MUST BRING THEM TO THEIR KNEES. JUST DO IT !!!!!

14779. I have been watching the protests in Ferguson since the beginning and I am horrified with police actions which make things worse. Contrast the way Kajieme Powell was killed in the first few minutes of the police arrival with the way Joseph Houseman, a white man brandishing a gun while jaywalking was treated. He was talked down and it took 40 minutes or so. Why shouldn't a black man be treated equally well and talked down? This country is NOT living up to the ideals we supposedly have - all men (and women) are created equal.

The problem is it has gotten even worse with the Homeland Security training and militarization. Institutionalized racism has been with us since forever, but recently it has gotten much much worse. I have no faith in Cops and courts. They don't represent the ""good guys" to me. This is a worse situation for our society than people realize. Lack of faith. That's really really bad for everyone. 15481. I'm a law abiding citizen, born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas. I'm also a student at Tarrant County College, I'm asingle black mother of two young black males, ages 10/12. I live in a predominately white suburbs and within the last five years, I've been racially profiled more than five times, had an officer with an uncontrollable twitch pull his gun on me in front of my children in 50 degree rain and sleet at 2am, had us on side the road for more than an hour in that weather, then recently officers have racially profiled my family, violated our rights and discriminated against my now ten year old disabled son within the school district by allowing his teacher to abuse and neglect him, when he showed signs of abuse as well as neglect at the hands of his teacher and my son a young black male at age nine was put in cuffs but he was not a threat to himself or others at the time, but the officer claimed he needed to call his supervisor to see if he should detain him. The Saginaw police department has not been fond of me ever since I had the news media at their front door for an officer drawing her weapon on my minor sibling and uncle in 100 degree weather claiming an investigation where all cars were being pulled over and searched, when a white female pulled up and asked the officers if everything was ok and I asked her if she had been pulled over and she responded "oh no!" My younger sister and uncle filed a complaint and the news asked the residents whom witnessed the abuse of authority, confirming our claim of abuse of authority racial profiling and misconduct but said they didn't want to go on record with it. Another incident occurred this past December with my 12 year old male cousin who was visiting for the Christmas holiday, my now ten year old son and a BB gun in 29 degree weather and officer Jones of the Saginaw PD violated my rights as active guardian by telling me I could leave but my minor cousin had to stand in the cold weather with no jacket until he contacted a parent. Which I had already asked what was the protocol of the BB gun violation, whereas I asked if he was gonna confiscate the BB gun, write us a ticket or give a warning because we were on our way to church. The officer was rude, unprofessional and very bias, accused me of having an attitude, then he had to call his supervisor to see what to do, so once again we were made spectacles of for 45 minutes to an hour shivering while the officer made assumption after assumption about if I thought it was right for my boys to run around the neighborhood shooting a BB gun, which was a made up assumption and as a single black mom, I'm tired of the racism and abuse we endure at the hands of law enforcement in our own homes. People say racism in America is right here in our own backyards, when in reality it's in the front yard and at times will knock on your front door. As a single black mom, I fear for my young black males and my safety in Texas and I not only demand leadership and intervention but my children of color deserve some intervention and regularity.

15492. The practice of excessive force and unreasonable deadly force by the Police Department is in Violation of the 4th Amendment. This pattern of unjustified excessive force and abusive behavior by the police on our citizen is unacceptable and is quickly becoming more prevalent. Police accountability must be rigorously strengthened through training, supervision and new policies that implement critical reforms to end biased militarized abuse targeting our minorities and those in distress. Put an end to these frequently employed discriminating policies. We no longer feel safe, or protected, or our rights respected by officers of our own Police Department. Sincerely, Joann Pena

15636. For far too long, people of color have been subjected to a double standard by law enforcement in which their rights and their very lives are considered worth less than others. I watched the movie 12 years a slave last year and was horrified by how all those years ago, a free man's freedom was stripped away from him, just because he was black. I am sad to say I don't see that we have solved this problem. and we need to. NOW. We are in a unique position to ensure that people of color are treated equally. FINALLY. unless you are a parent of a child of color you do not know the fear that can strike your heart when dealing with matters that would never be a threat to a white child's life. I am the white mother of a multiracial son. I need you to fix this, so that my son and many others like him can live in peace, as is their right as US citizens.

15925. Dear Obama administration, the Department of Justice, the Department of Defense and the Department of Homeland Security: I am writing to demand your leadership and intervention in addressing the nationwide crisis of police brutality. Every day, the lives, safety, and freedom of Black and brown youth and adults are threatened by discriminatory and violent policing tactics. Law enforcement kill Black Americans at nearly the same rate as Jim Crow era lynchings. The federal government has a clear role to play in overturning the conditions that led to these tragedies and setting a higher standard of policing across the country. The standards, policies, and practices of the executive branch set the tone and tactics of local and state law enforcement. The integrity of America and our criminal justice system must be restored. I urge you to take definitive and immediate action, including but not limited to the following reforms: A fully-resourced and rigorous civil rights and criminal investigation by the DOJ into discriminatory policing, excessive force, and death or injury by police in every state in the country; A comprehensive, streamlined, public national-level database of police shootings, excessive force, misconduct complaints, traffic and pedestrian stops, and arrests, broken down by race and other demographic data, with key privacy protections, the exclusion of personally identifying factors and information, and deportation immunity for civilians. Mandating of Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission (POST) in every state and inter-state coordination between all POSTs. An executive order that creates a strong and enforceable prohibition on police brutality and discriminatory policing based on race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, immigration status, disability, and housing status. Increased funding for the DOJ's Office for Civil Rights to ensure additional, accessible state-level responders for police and other civil rights violations Divestment of federal anti-drug grants and federal funding for police departments that demonstrate abuse of power and massive reinvestment in community controlled and based policing practices. Support for the passage of the End Racial Profiling Act (ERPA) Streamlined national use of force matrix and mandating that state and local police have clear and streamlined matrices. Strict limits on asset seizure without due process and the transfer of any military equipment to local law enforcement under the 1033 program, guidelines that ensure that the equipment is not used on non-violent protesters, and an end to the requirement that such military weaponry is used within a year. Sincerely, Renee Lacour 16080. I am a 62-year-old Black man, living in America, which is dangerous enough in and of itself. I have never, ever been arrested for any reason at all. I have never had handcuffs put on me, have never needed a bail bondsman, have never been on the wrong side of a judge's bench. But when I have mentioned the above facts on various occasions, I have had White and foreigh co-workers look me right in the face and state that they do not believe me! I have even on two separate occasions in two separate states watched people use criminal-record-verifying websites (the Been Verified phone app, for example) to find out if I am lying or not. And when the results came back proving everything that I had said, I have faced people saying that the website or phone app must be wrong or malfunctioning. So it is not just the murderous police: they themselves and what they are doing are just one of the many symptoms of a deeper problem concerning the way some Americans view and treat some of their fellow Americans. Pumping oneself up by means of putting someone else down is SIN! We all need to PRAY!

There is NO caveat with respect to color, gender, sexual orientation, disability or any other characteristic. There is NO reason why a police department should have or use military grade weapons or vehicles against the citizens they are sworn to protect and serve. The law is also SUPPOSED to be implemented in the same spirit. There is no caveat as to the use of force with respect to a characteristic such as color or gender or orientation. The police should enforce the law equally. The government must see that the citizens are protected from discrimination at all costs or we are not the federal republic we claim to be.

And what we as a people have done is taken that same thought process towards one another . We as African American need to create a think tank to aggressively consider our value to our selves and then go after the government of this country to compensate us for all that we have experienced here . Until we know who we are we will only be as valuable as our next joke , rap lyric , or movie role . Pay attention every single report given on the nightly news cycle has described us In death arrests or other wise as black male or black man . What happened to African American . 17006. It is completely disgusting to me that in the year 2014 we're STILL battling racism in the United States. Many argue the point that we've now got "a black man as president, and that's progress," but racism, I feel, is constantly perpetuated by mainstream media, and continues to be a driving wedge between the American people. Race, creed, color - these are all things that have no bearing on the well-being and progress of humanity as a species. Please, reform the judicial system, even one step at a time, and make life better for everyone in the system.

Let me get to the point: The arming of our police force with military equipment is in complete, direct conflict with the intent of the Constitution of "The Shining Beacon Of Freedom" known as the U.S. and it takes more nerve than I would ever have as a Politician. Keep letting ppl feel the blood lies on your hands! We supported you to get you where you are, now can you hold these thugs with badges accountable for their actions? Mandatory video and voice recorders on person, in and on cars it also needs to be enforced the "offender" is read their Miranda Rights on camera and fully understand them and be made aware that are being recorded also, because it's not fair police can cut and edit tapes and videos and the person not even know they are even being taped. Trust me I know this all to well and the police got on the stand committed perjury 4 times, the judge wondered why ,as well as the Prosecutor and myself why the "Public Defender" didn't get him and his testimony throw out because of to many inconsistencies. Thrown under the bus, can you say! This is another reason why this with badges need to be, taken off the forces they lie get caught in their lies and and ppl with clean records end up being felons for being parents. Being lied one by one, judges by 8 and diabetes in black and white. They will crash you they the mud and never even get your side or the story right!

17476. I'm disgusted by the unjust, criminal killings of people of color, especially of young men when it appears to me in so many situations that an officer had no reason to shoot. Police have a dangerous job but being a brown or black person should not be risky, in itself.'m whote, taught my sons to never talk back to a policeman but never felt the dread that a mother of color must feel, in watching her law-abiding son leave the house because someone in authority might kill him. I'm amazed over & over that black people have not gone crazy & retaliated with frustration against every 'white' face they see, from the humiliation, anger, & pain they face too often in this land of the free. God help us.

17482. I want this horrible abuse of power to end! If it takes holding individual people liable and giving them prison sentences, then I'll support that! I'm not usually eager to have a person who is doing a job be held personally responsible for actions they may be forced to take in protecting their livelihood, however, this appears to be very different! Whatever it takes, to stop this blatant racist, no holes barred attack on blacks and browns in America, I'm all for it!

17518. Enough is enough. It seems the Federal gov't takes other races and nationalities issues and make them a priority but this issue concerning the black community isn't being address as it should be. For killings to continue in the midst of this situation is preposterous! This tells me that they are not even afraid to kill an undeserving person. But this is because they KNOW they will be backed by their superiors and the prosecutors. The black community deserves the same attention the LGBT community received.

17574. I agree that the force the police use on black/brown and poor neighbors has got to stop. It reminds me of how my friends and I were treated when we were teenagers. We had no civil rights. The thing is we were white, became adults, and therefore the police unfair treatment stopped. But, I also think that police departments need more money for operations. Having two officers ride together and more training would help their mental state. Switch up partners. Don't let the same people be together for years. The poiice department should reflect the neighborhood they serve. Get them involved in the community; schools, block parties etc. The police job is to look for evil and soon it goes in too deep and they don't see anything else. Maybe job exchanges would give them some insight that it is not all evil and they are there to protect and defend everyone.

If the Federal Government does not confiscate the military weapons, ammunitions and war machinery it has distributed by sale or gift to the nation's CIVILIAN police, I will encourage everyone whom I know to join the National Association for Gun Rights and see how many of us can "win" a Barrett 50 caliber M82A1 rifle or a Primary Weapons Systems MK220 .308 AR-10 or Savage Lapua .338 precision rifle or whatever other weapon for "self defense" that they choose to give away for our own safety, since the States' National Guards that can be Federalized and regulated by the Federal Government were bypassed for these armaments. 18296. These gangsters pretending to be police and getting their power trip at the expense of our life and liberty need to be taken out of employment immediately and envision the inside of a jail cell appropriate for such violent thugs. Police across America have armed themselves with military gear for an illusory war zone at home. Dangerous men on power trips have assumed both the power of the badge and the endorphin thrill of new, powerful toys handed down from the Defense Department. Human nature tells us that police officers armed on the implicit pretense that the communities they 'serve' are actually a domestic enemy will treat those American citizens as such. If we want to restore American policing to the sane strategies and metrics of rational crime prevention and problem-solving, we must first train and arm them as police, not as an occupying army with a quota of presumably dangerous, usually black, people to violently sieze.

Our first married Japanese Irish whose last name is now Murphy. Our second married Samoan, Cook Islander & Irish, our 3rd Mexican & Cuban. Believe it or not they have a redhead with freckles & green eyes! Our 4th child is a gift as I am a teacher & she needed a home & family badly. She is Colombian, Philipino & Portugurse & she married a Hawaiian, Japanese, Chinese man. We have 11 grandchildren. I call my family a rainbow! My daughter who married the Mexican & Cuban is in the Army. Alejo served 1 tour in Iraq & 2 tours in Afghanistan. What if my son in law is out jogging in a hoodie? Or worse yet their son my grandson? It is hard enough to make a good honest living in this world, without all of the added harassment and frustration. The people of power need to step up and give the people a louder voice, in order to help make sure that the lives lost and destroyed by these I humane tragedies receive the justice and support they deserve. By strengthening our law system, we not only make sure that individuals we have already lost have not left this world in vain, but also prevent this misfortune from repeating itself. People of all races deserve respect, so it is time that our laws and lawmakers uphold their responsibilities to the people and protect these rights to prosperity.

18556. As a retired doctor now volunteering at a homeless house of hospitality for men of color, I hear about and even occassionally see first hand the unnecessary harm (verbal, psychological and physical) that officers do to our clients. I even saw an officer kick a tiny oriental woman (80 lbs) as she lay in the middle of the alley after fallng down....stating that she was faking the fall.On the otherhand there are some officers who are wonderfully compassionate. I think training is critical....and compassion and mercy need a higher importance.

18825. I respect police however I should be afraid of them because of my size and color of my skins. I have to worry about my son and daughter safety they are wonderful God fearing kids, near been in any trouble in their lives. I pleased that there has to be more strict provision in place on hiring police that are full of racism, they hired to protect the people not just kill people because of their race and their size. I just want pease in this country it hard for a minority to flight for the freedom of this country and worry when he or she returns home it scarily to even live in your own home town because of the local police the president and congress has to setup laws to get rid of these people.

18880. The police must receive better training. That training should focus on how to de-escalate a situation with words and reason rather than escalating the situation through the use of force. The mindset must be changed from within. It might also be helpful to have regular mental/psychological screenings/ check-ins for police officers. Their jobs can easily lead them to alcohol and substance abuse -- simply because they do not have an outlet for all the demands of their job. We can work together to end this senseless violence. But the reforms must start at the top. The federal government must step in and implement critical reforms and end the violence.

19018. Without Federal intervention, the African American will continue to live under the oppression of the white community of hatred and discrimination. I fear that if something does not change, the riot of the 60's will repeat itself on a much larger scale of loss of life. It is appalling to see signs of hatred perpetuated even again our President by white society, the constant criticism of the news media and republican leaders. There is no respect for our President nor for the African American male in this country. The stench of racism still prevails and it is brazen. African American boys from kindergarten experience the hatred of a white female teacher and more than 50% never make it to graduation. Something is wrong. States where affirmative action no longer exists, educational and job opportunities become fewer for African Americans and are often replaced by the foreigners of the international community and America pats itself on the back for being a country that promotes diversity. Diversity becomes a feel good cover for discriminating against the African American and our boys continue to die by a gun of hatred. The law puts an African American man in prison for 3 years for drunk driving that took the life of a young man, but a white woman who took 4 lives while on drugs, gets probation or 1 year. Something is wrong and it will never be corrected unless the federal government gets involved to protect our civil rights! Please help!

19231. Every single day I see yet another horror story of police abuse. And what happens? Nothing. Blow a baby's nose off? Nothing happens to the officer who was responsible. It's just not people of color who are targeted, it's anyone. Today's police abuse example cites a woman pulled over for a traffic violation only to be subjected to a uniformed police officer asking her if Jesus is her savior and handing out religious literature in violation of the Constitution. Who's fault is this? A government that kowtows to fundamentalism and does nothing. A government that kowtows to Wall St. corrruption and does nothing but stand by in silence while lawful and peaceful Occupy protesters were kettled, arrested, roughed up, humilitated and beaten. Ferguson, Albuqerque, Indiana. Cross the street or dare ask an officer what's going on and you can end up on the wrong side of a taser or worse. In Southern Oregon, a police officer and former military veteran was quoted in the local paper saying that his job is "to yell at people." Say, what? Militarization of police, poor vetting and training of officers, and poor if no oversight seems to be the order of the day. Militarization sees the public as an enemy, rather than as taxpayers who pay their wages for public service. Enough!

It's truly sad that I live in a predominantly minority community and I'm still terrified every time a police vehicle comes to the rear of my vehicle I don't know if I'm going to be pulled over and blamed for something that I did not do. Maybe even get pulled over and I might reach for my license and get shot. I'm terrified that I'm going to be accused of a crime that did not commit just to cover up a mistake from the police. but I travel outside of my neighborhood everytime I see a police officer I'm scared to even look their way because I don't want you have them fill threatened in any kind of way and have a conversation with me because it's happened several times in the past. please revisit the policies that are in place in America that allow some of these police officers to get away with murder, literally!

19530. I am horrified by the actions of some police officers, as individuals, and police departments, as systems, towards U.S. citizens and residents. I am even more appalled - though, unfortunately, not surprised - that these horrors are directed primarily toward black and brown community members, and the communities themselves. As a white mother of a teenager, living in communities where I have had concerns of my son traveling alone, I have noted the gap between white - and more affluent - parents that I know, and ALL black and Latino parents that I am friends with, work with, and/or attend church with. NO ONE should have to fear their child's interaction with police, who are charged with Serving and Protecting OUR people. It shouldn't be "to serve and protect the privileged white folk" and "harass, threaten, harm and/or kill" people of color!

19637. The police in America are more and more out of control and less accountable than ever. This is an issue for ALL Americans. We do not want nor do we need a military presence in our towns and cities. We need law enforcement that does, in fact, protect and serve. The police officer shot an unarmed, handcuffed, surrounded by police, on the ground, 22 year old black man. He was given 2 years and served 11 months. A black man will get life for shooting another black man that was trying to kill him. Something is wrong here.

When a criminal justice system plays fast and loose with perpetrators, once again EVERYBODY is threatened and disgraced. 20168. To my mind, there is not even one grain of sand's worth of justification for this senseless, violent, brutal, racist act. Are our police cowards? Are they unable to use any tool except the lethal one? Are they so uneducated, so poorly trained, so bereft of moral and ethical compasses that they can't imagine another way to act? This must change. Our descendants must not suffer from us ignoring racism in our times and doing our utmost to make it unacceptable. Hate doesn't have a home here.

20281. I'm a 47 year old Black Male. I first experienced racism when I was in 5th grade. I was called the N word and had beer bottles thrown at me from car windows. Despite my fears, Mom taught me one valuable lesson, most people don't treat people with such hate and disrespect, and it's my duty to not to judge the entire white race for this stupidly. Thank God for that advise Mom... Countless times, over and over my life, I have to continue to deal with some type of racial harassment or racial insensitive at all levels of life.... Short answer, I'M TIRED OF IT... PLEASE STOP THIS IGNORANCE!!! We have to learn to love each other. God Bless!!!

It is uneacceptable that in this day and age this behavior goes on unchecked by municpalities and state governments. The militirization of police forces must end and the federal govenrment must step in to put a stop to racist attacks on blacks for no reason other than the color of their skin. These kinds of crimes are growing at an alarming rate and they must be stopped. State governors who turn a blind eye and do nothing to erracicate this problem, are just as much to blame as the racist perpetrators. This alarming trend must be stopped! Josephine Roberts 20637. Militarized police action is totally unacceptable. We keep seeing unarmed people-ethnic minorities, women and mentally challenged people being brutalized for little reason. Even people who are already in handcuffs have been booted, and mutilated. This must STOP. People who used to trust our authorities now have little trust because we have seen this abuse in action. We know there are SOME good cops, but this militaristic approach lumps us all into "BAD PEOPLE" before we are given the chance to defend ourselves. When a cop treats us with distain before even charging us, and our lives are violated for no reason, we feel that we are living in another country-a gestapo state.. It is not acceptable. People's lives are being taken for no reason.

20677. Angela M. Haynes, The federal government should review and implement critical reform as it relates to the mental state of a police officer carry a firearm. Many of the police officers that are hired in the United States have prior military backgrounds and history of killing people overseas in war time settings. The unstabled mental stability of our police force is at the forefront of this issue. Are they mentally stable? Protecting United States citizens is a priority, but is not necessary to "KILL" another human being that may be apprehended by the police. A police officer should not have the right to KILL a suspect. The US has many types of methods to pursue and apprehend a person, with out shooting and killing in cold blood. A review of using a weapon against a citizen must be a priority. Just think if your son or daughter was brutality killed by a police office. It is tragic that Michael Brown is now symbolic to millions of Americans that will cause the United States to transform.

20738. At the rate we're going, my 3 little grandsons will be victims of police brutality. I've had enough of it myself, as my son who was raised in a town in Virginia had to move away simply because of daily harassing by the town and county police. Enough is Enough! I'm sick of it. If there was a role reversal, maybe there be a chance for America to become the land of the free and the home of the brave instead of the land of the criminally rich and the home of the selected minority oppressed.

20767. zno one should be killed because of their race and color of skin like they are today. What has happened in the last few months along harken back to the days of lynchings and murders of innocent people because they had black,brown or golden color skin and were considered less than human. Law enforcement needs to weed out the racists in their ranks and fire them, train their present and future officers how to get along with all races and to not judge a situation by the race of a person but what they are doing and how they are acting. Now days if you are white you can wave a gun around, threaten and call police officers and even point a gun at officers like white man did in Ohio about a month ago and white home grown territorists did at Clive Bundy's Nevada ranch and not have one shot fired at you, while if you are black you are shot when carrying a toy gun in sling or holding a toy rifle in a store , no talking like in Ohio and Nevada, shoot first if some one has dark skin and if the gun they are holding is a toy to bad that is today's attitude of many law enforcement officers and people . It shouldn't be that way and wouldn't be if people are held accountable for having two different sets of law enforcement that most police departments seem to have now days, one for whites and one for people of color.

They act like they can do anything and get away with it. And because of the incredibly broken institution that the police work for, that is sadly often the case. and arresting people on false charges. The police have a thin blue line, where they keep quite and protect other police officers that commit crimes, they are like the Mafia, any police officer that reports another officer of wrong doing will face the wrath of his follow officers and will have to turn in his badge for his or her own safety and may even have to enter him/her self and immediate family into the witness protection program.

In many communities, the police create such and adversarial relationship, especially with young people with emphasis on young black men, that they should not be surprised when they are met with skepticism and lack of cooperation, in some cases. 21115. Our nation needs to be kept safe from bullying, rapists, brutality by police and now "sport supermen" that think they can hit and bully youngsters and wives. Egos of some people get out of hand and they need to be "taken down" and humbled. I'm so sick of these type of people. They think they can get away with assulting people...even family. Where have things gone wrong? The ongoing "chain" that they learned from growing up in a bad environment must be broken! It's so sad. They must be not be allowed to just have their fingers slapped and let go to keep playing their sport and assulting their family. They must be punished and kept in jail and not allowed back on the "football" field of life, or the "police car" of life..... Where is all the anger coming from? Even cartoons are more violent than ever. All of the NCI shows display blood, dead bodies and crime of all sort. Are the kids now days admiring this lifestyle from little on?? Our mothers now days are out working and not home guiding their children. Is this making the difference? I'm 71 and things have just gotten sadly out of hand.

Politicians have to spend billions of dollars to get elected. Is this right??? Our country has people living in the street and starving while billions are being spent for TV ads??? Politicians are ruining our country by their egos and attitudes that they can sway votes or destroy votes with money. It's so sad. The mud slinging is so sickening in these ads. For the next 2 years we have to put up with this crap?? It's so sad.

21225. What's happening is unacceptable and it needs to be stopped. Every day, the lives, safety, and freedom of Black and brown youth and adults are threatened by discriminatory and violent policing tactics. I'm grown and scared to death to be stopped by law enforcement for that reason in fear that they may kill me when asking for my car insurance and I reach my hand in the glove compartment to retrieve it - I'm gonna get shot because they assume I'm reaching for a gun because I'm black. Thats not right but if I don't stop out of safety then I'm feeing the screen and then when they do catch me I will be pulled out the car and beaten by law enforcement, see there is no win win situation as it stands now. Its just not fair to Blacks in America.

21286. Racially motivated and hatred of police officers across the country seems to be the order of the day in the killing of our young black males while the federal law stands by watching and does nothing to prevent these heinous police crimes from happening again and again. Why is it that nothing is being done to strengthen the implementation of laws to curb hatred that are already on the books but are not more strenuously enforced? OR, are we afraid that we will offend those who seek to buy up this country and this political system to the point that inertia has set in and we stand by and do nothing while the decimation of blacks continues? And now the crimes are being perpetrated against black women. How long will law enforcement sit on their hands before taking proper and honest action against those who think they are above the law while they continue to murder unsuspecting blacks in cold blood?

there's two South Africa, only thing they both say they accepted their true selfs, and made ad temps to look like they have changed. AMERICA STILL HOLDS ON TO 3/5 OF ; The Supreme Court has broken up Voting Rights Act, and America still tells other that they need democracy this is the way to go, South Africa has ended apartheid, but the masses of South Africans still live in condition as they did before apartheid ended for many there's no charge many still have no running water, no toilets and still live in shanty towns today.in America still tells the world of democracy and how great it is and in on the other hand still denies their own americans any opportunities of a part of the American dream by cutting education, by cutting any support for the middle class & the poor, there's no jobs for the masses, and Blacks and Latinos masses there's higher unemployment still. But America still tells other that democracy is the way to go. And when the masses start to speak out about the condition they are facing and that they want chang? That's when the Police come in they have their slogans of protected and service, which truly means protect the rich and service oppression to the rest

Our police force should be required to mirror our communities. also, the aggressor should be subjected to the same laws. police should not be given the ability to become aggressive without repercussions. , Lastly, we need to have a judge, grand jury, and district attoney watch website to let people know the history of those who are elected to pertect us so we can make better choices at the polls. the police need to remember they are paid by us to protect and service if they are unable to take that commitment they should be fired.

22009. Instead of protecting citizens, police today are often brutalizing and sometimes killing them. Police uniformly need better training so they understand that a badge is not a license to beat and kill. The training process must be vastly improved to weed out sadists, bullies, and psychopaths. And they should absolutely NOT have militaryp-grade hardware. Most importantly, the justice system must be redesigned to hold police more accountable for their actions. It is time to end police brutality and lawlessness. America is already on the verge of becoming a police state, if we're not there already.

22010. As a retired detective lieutenant from a 26-year career in the New Jersey State Police, I have become ashamed of many of my fellow officers. The drug war has created an atmosphere that has rekindled racism in the US but it is now institutionalized in law enforcement. The greatest single act we could take in this country to reduce death, disease, crime, addiction, and this institutionalized racism, while saving billions of tax dollars would be to end prohibition and the drug war that implements it.

22226. I am 63 years old and a responsible citizen. I have worked all my life, put myself through college, raised 3 responsible daughters who contribute to society. As an African American, I have always lived in fear for myself and my daughters. Now I live in fear that my teenage grandsons are being hunted by racist white men and cops who kill black males. My grandsons have lived a life where they have never played outdoors alone or walked a street. We sacrificed to put them in private schools even though we could not afford it. We have kept them in a controlled environment for their 18 years of life. Now off to college and on their own, we are scared to death. Life is stressful and crazy enough for us all. African Americans have to deal with being hunted like animals and racial injustice as well. What kind of country is this?

—Marion Young

22227. The growing, deplorable cases of racial profiling and police brutality are unacceptable and morally unjust. Police in too many areas are using deadly force ... then denying it, knowing they will literally get away with murder ... and mostly, do. The "Rouge Police Mentality" appears to be sanctioned to the highest levels. Each must be held accountable to the fullest extent of the law. Any time a cop, police department or court upholds dishonesty, corruption and deception, they should be made to pay the fullest in penalties. It's long past time to end these human and civil rights violations!

22527. I have for years been saying and telling many that the KKK moved from the white sheets into blue suits with a badge. I have also said that background checks should have been part of the required procedures before they even become police officers. 22528. The Washington Times was complaining that in Illinois, there is discrimination against blacks because 90% of gun permits go to whites. No, I think the problem is that African American knows that they have been killed for picking up a toy gun in a store, or a real gun in a gun store, or tazed for sitting in a public place and not wanting to move. Any black man who opened carried would probably be shot on sight in most places in the US even if the gun was in the holster. Apparently surrendering isn't enough to defuse police violence in many cases. This needs to stop!

22608. Get the Corruption and Violence OUT of Policing Stop Wrongful Arrests: Photographing an officer during the course of his duties or Uncooperative or Disrespectful action or speech may not by itself justify an arrest. Resisting a Wrongful Arrest is NOT a crime. Stop Violence Against Protesters: Protest is a fundamental Constitutional Right. Congress shall make no law ... abridging ... the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances. All Police Violence against Peaceful Protest is a violation of the First Amendment. Punish Police Violence: Any Police Violence during the course of a wrongful arrest is assault and should be prosecuted exactly as if the assault was committed by someone who is not an Police Officer. Any Police Killing during the course of a wrongful arrest is manslaughter or murder in the same way that any killing during the course of a felony is manslaughter or murder. Stop Corrupt Prosecutions: Perjury by an Officer or Prosecuting Attorney shall be cause for immediate firing. Any Officer who commits perjury shall be permanently barred from testifying for the prosecution in any criminal case. Any Prosecuting Attorney who makes knowingly false accusations or commits prosecutorial mal- practice shall be permanently barred from acting as a Prosecuting Attorney in any criminal case. De-Militarize the Police: Tanks, Armored Cars, MRAPs, 50 Caliber Machine Guns, Deafening Weapons [LRAD], Burning Weapons [ADS], Blinding Weapons [Dazzler], Mortars, Bayonets, etc.; these are weapons that are exclusively for Military use. 22652. It seems to me that our entire populace, including our police force has become terrified of anyone who does not Look Like Them. With politicians spreading fear throughout the country we have become a nation of cowards and terrorists ourselves. We need to calm down the rhetoric and get rid of politicians who are spreading the terror with their speech. We are destroying our own culture with police who are militarized, stand your ground laws and the idea that each of us is in this society to work for ourselves and step on anyone who gets in our way. Our country is no longer the land of the free, it has become the land of the selfish who think that everyone else is out to "get them". This will not change until we all realize that we are not in this alone - we need each other to survive.

22681. Dear President Obama, You know this: "...any seizure or arrest of a citizen is not reasonable, or 'due process' merely because a Legislature has attempted to authorize it. These phrases (due process provisions) are limitations upon the power of the Legislature as well as upon that of the other departments of the government, or their officers." Ex parte Rhodes, 202 Ala. 68, 79 So. 462, 464. "As is the case of illegal arrest, the officer is bound to know these fundamental rights and privileges, and must keep within the law at his peril" Thiede v. Town of Scandia, 217 Minn. 218, 231, 14 N.W. 2s 400 Though the police are honest and their aims worthy, history shows they are not appropriate guardians of the privacy which the Fourth amendment protects." Jones v. U.S. 362 U.S. 257, 273 "An illegal arrest is an assault and battery. The person so attempted to be restrained right, and only the same right, to use force in defending himself as he would have in repelling any other assault and battery." State v. Robinson 145 Me. 77, 72 Atl. 260, 262 "The offense of resisting arrest, both at common law and under statute presupposes a lawful arrest. It is axiomatic that every person has the right to resist an unlawful arrest. In such cases the person attempting the arrest stands in the position of a wrongdoer and may be resisted by the use of force, as in self-defense." State v. Mobley 240 N.C. 476, 83 S.E. 2d 100,102 "It is better, so the Fourth Amendment teaches, that the guilty sometimes go free than that citizens be subject to easy arrest." Henry v. U.S., 361 U.S. 98, 104 "One may come to the aid of another being unlawfully arrested, just as he may where one is being assaulted, molested, raped or kidnapped. Thus it is not an offense to liberate one from the unlawful custody of an officer, even though he may have submitted to such custody without resistance." Adams v. State, 121 Ga. 163, 48 S.E. 910. "A sheriff who acts without process, or under a process void on its face, in doing such an act, he is to be considered but a personal trespasser." Roberts v. Dean, 187 So. 571, 575 Fla Any attempts to legislate the removal of the intent of our founding fathers is a nullity. I suggest that you educate the police, make them stand down from the militarization of the force, (remember, the whole point of the second amendment was to allow citizens to protect themselves from wrongful assault, and guns were the weapon of choice at the time. If you militarize the police, then the citizens must arm themselves accordingly and a deadly spiral will begin. It has already been made abundantly clear that the police do not have the rights of the citizens in mind when they tear gas on behalf of Wall Street, BigFossil et al.. Unless you are aiming for a revolution, you would be well advised to care about the wanton torture and murder of our brothers and sisters on the streets of this country. It is your job to uphold the Constitution. You have failed in so many other areas, Monsanto, the coming CDC/WHO murder of millions by withholding the simple/inexpensive (and non-prescription) cure for Ebola. I campaigned and voted for you. To my intense shame, you have renegged on each and every promise. I am an old lady, and a "plain vanilla" type, but I care very much about our country and weep for its dismantling from inside. This is not a black/white problem. It is a human rights problem. Be the solution. That is your job. Do it. Do it now.

The source is providing the best education, affordable housing, health care and women's health access, treatment for drugs, not incarceration, libraries, after school programs, better opportunities with better pay and more choices in transportation. 23090. YES! WE must seize the moment! All citizens of this great nation must understand the that the killing of our young children is a crisis. Where is the justice when law enforcement fail to take a "suspect" into custody? Their first reaction is to "shot to kill" any African American is racially motivated. Consider for a moment the thousands of high school staff who deal with teens daily. Yet, they deal with those so call threats without killing the students. Teachers have intervened in fights, disarmed students and literally held them down without killing them. It a teacher had kill a youth everyone would be up in arms. No one is foolish enough to believe that the policemen involved in these murders were reacting to a threat. Teacher, large, small, tall and short deal with "big kids" on a daily basis.

23521. We must rise and stop the systematic abuse of our people of color.The only humans on the planet that get bombed are people of color. As a Vietnam Vet i saw it then and as a civilian i see it all the time. We do not enjoy the privilege that whites do and we should stop trying to emulate the one who is killing us. We are different and we must continue to be different but not on our knees. We have the right to walk straight. We are human and have been abused for too long. Let's rise and stop the "genocide". Only together can we do it. Rise my people. Not all are culpable and we should educate those ignorant ones. No one human is superior to another human. Rich or poor we are human.

23776. Justice for all not some is about changing the status of making all of us equal. So, that there are no blank spots without camera's in jails. Where a jail guard cannot go to that spot where the camera does not see a prisoner being abused for his or her behavior. Yes, we need the police to protect and serve. We need police not to be abusing their power. We need compassionate, professional, non-militarized, unbiased people to police our streets. There are brown, black, red hued people who our Police who still have high moral integrity to assist in the change to bring Justice for all not some. Where women who are domestic violence victims do not become 2nd class citizens in their own communities. Where a Police Officer does not ignore a plea for help from a teenager targeted by a pimp whether or not that young person is underage or an adult. We need to stop the on going abuse of our cousins, sisters, brothers, fathers, mothers, aunts, and little ones. Also, we need to stop the Poice from shooting a family pet because oh it was out of its yard. It barked at me. Or some person who is afraid of a dog goes into someone's yard to bring more misery to a family just getting back from a hospital. We need to bring hope not despair.

23781. There is not a day that goes by that I don't hear or read about another black person killed by the police, the little trust that we once had in them is gone. We are afraid to call them, which will result in the law being taken into the hands of the people that are involved. This is not going to work, their policy has to change.

23784. We need to police the police and make sure they are actually Protecting and Service the citizens of this country and not just acting like the Gestapo... They need more rigorous qualifications, regular psych evals, more oversight and when things go wrong, we can have cops investigating cops...that's like asking the foxes to investigate the fox guarding the henhouse...it's just plain stupid. They are supposed to be public servants and they need to start acting like it.

24148. The federal government is going to HAVE to do something about this racism and police-brutality-gone-wild against People of Color, (and poor Whites too, ex: Occupy Oakland and what happened to Iraq war veteran Scott Olsen almost being killed by the police, and other white kids who dare to speak out about the numerous injustices that are going on in this nation). What is happening to the young Black and Brown men of America is beyond wrong. The police departments in rural Small-Town, America are covering up for each other, and it also involves the court systems. A lot of nepotism is happening, and they cover each others' butts. Even if it is not nepotism, it definitely is racism that is happening in Small Town, America. And it is ugly, VERY ugly. The Feds are going to have to help citizens, especially in the “red” states. The “red” party (Republicans/Tea Party) is corrupt to its core. It is like we all traveled in time back to the days of plantations and slaves. Discrimination is pervasive in this nation. Ferguson, Missouri is just one example that PROVES that I am not exaggerating a bit about how bad things are. The School to Prison pipeline, the Stand your ground, Castle Doctrine, Stop and Frisk and all those laws are all injustices are all WRONG, and need to end. Federal government needs to declare those laws, which everyone knows are designed to criminalize innocents, declare them unconstitutional, and end the injustice. The “reds” don’t want everyone in this nation to vote either. That is ANOTHER wrong thing that is happening. Racism is still a huge problem in this nation. I know, I live in a “red” state (Arkansas), and I have willfully ignorant racists in my very own family, and it is kind of scary sometimes. When President Obama was elected, the racists all crawled out of the woodwork, formed their little hate groups, and openly declared their racism. They group up and reinforce each others' racism, bigotry, and hatred. The NRA is right smack in the middle of it all. (They are making money off of promoting hate. They LOVE it, as they laugh all the way to their banks, probably offshore.) And just WHAT is going on with Cliven Bundy, who had his followers pointing guns at the Feds, and getting away with it? The whole entire nation knows that if a group of Afro-Americans had done the same exact thing that the Bundyites did, that they would have been shot dead on the spot, women, children and all. Everyone knows that. And then there was the crazy ones (Jared and Amanda Miller) who actually went and shot two police officers. See the insanity that is happening in the paranoid minds of the racist, gun worshiping lunatics? And the so-called news, FOX false propaganda network keeps just adding fuel to the fire of racism, bigotry, and hatred. THAT is what blood money buys. The federal government needs to end this madness, the root cause is racism and power-mongering. States cannot do it without federal help. The “reds” with the help of “red” money (or really blood-red money) have infiltrated governments on the smallest levels, and are doing group racism, group police brutality these days. America is a sick place. Most people know that “states’ rights” is code for racism running wild and means that all policies to be made are designed to hurt and infringe on the rights of all People of Color, of Women of ALL colors, of People who are working-poor, or poor of ALL colors. Federal Government, Help! Help the citizens of Small town America, especially in the “red” states. This nation is in trouble. The constitution is NOT being followed anymore, especially in the “red” states. END POLICE BRUTALITY GONE WILD. END DISCRIMINATION IN THE COURT SYSTEMS TOO. END PRISON PROFITEERING. Have a nice day

24357. Racist State Repression Extends Beyond the Police; It Is More Systemic And Requires Federal Oversight, Viz.: Scores of thousands of United States Citizens invest and manifest sufficient faith in The United States of America to typically expend twenty (20) or more years modally so as to become competently educated, and as such become, e.g., licensed physicians; notwithstanding incurrence of financial debt and collateral risks (typically exceeding $200,000—plus accrued interest if said sum is acquired thru student loans) or forfeiture of all other worthy personal or professional business or personal (life-choice) alternatives, so as to dedicate one’s lifetime endeavors in pursuit of a medical career as one’s vocation and livelihood; whilst paying otherwise unimagined sums in premiums for malpractice or administrative claim risk insurance, and minimums of $2000 monthly in office rent; more for personnel, equipment, or supplies, etc.. They should not suffer any risks, however, whereby any Corporation, or State board of licensure can undermine said physician’s (nor any other medical professional’s) reputation or livelihood or revoke or suspend their license so as to enable any government or corporate agency or their agents to pursue any personal, ideological or any other non-statutory vendetta. Nor should any corporate or state agency nor any of its governing agents enjoy any personal or professional civil or criminal immunity nor any option for circumvention (e.g. thru State Administrative Law Courts) of state or federal civil or criminal law court oversight pursuant to any state or federal law or executive order (especially whereby federal jurisdiction shall in any way, as a consequence of said immunity or circumvention, not have preemption under this context over any preemptions or statutes asserted by any state). Nor should any corporate or state agency or its agents be availed any circumvention whereby a physician's U. S. Constitutionally mandated rights under its 1st 4th or 14th Amendment(s) are precluded from said physicians' (or other medical licensees') benefit thru circumstances of coerced penury (such as when said penury results subsequent to malfeasance or vexatious prosecution by any Controlling Authority whilst ostensibly exercising licensee oversight) nor should said circumventions be effected thru assertions by any corporate or state agent or agency privilege accorded thru any state-legislated provision. Nor should any corporation, state agency, its agents or employees be exempt from any order by the United States Department of Justice in its investigative due diligence under said contexts of professional licensure (especially under contexts of physicians or nurses); nor should any State Agency Judgment or order resulting in suspension or revocation of said professional licenses be exempt from final jurisdiction by the United States Department of Justice, when physicians or nurses at issue credibly assert administrative malfeasance whereby Constitutional provisions of equal treatment or equal due process under state or federal law has or have been violated or whereby said claimants credibly assert said malevolent actions have been undertaken or abetted in any violation of any U.S. Constitutional 1st , 4th , or 14th Amendment provisions (whereas consequences of any such malfeasance imposes or facilitates preemptions of U.S. Constitutional equal protection mandates to American citizens across state borders pursuant to competent lawful full exercise of their professional or vocational training, education or expertise as their livelihood, or that undermines their lawful interstate commerce thru subversions of 14th Amendment mandates for equality and equal treatment under federal or state law pertaining to said citizens' lawful liberty, as citizens of the United States of America, to competently engage in their livelihoods professionally anywhere in the United States of America, its territories or indeed, therefore, anywhere else in the world). 25444. The quickest and most effective thing the Justice Department can do right now is to stop labeling our Policemen and Policewomen as ENFORCEMENT officers. This title, this job description, make these people THINK that force is the CORE requirement of their job. It's not! They are hired primarily to Serve and Protect us, the people. Those of every race, every ethnicity, every color of skin. We must not hire bullies to parade the streets of our nation. These people are what they are: Fault lies with the fools who hire tyrants to police our communities. And with us for letting it happen.

If your first instinct is to be afraid when you stop or communicate with a citizen of this country then I suggest you do not go into the law enforcement field. The American Citizen is not target practice for the law enforcement of this nation. I am an elderly American Citizen and my last encounter with a police officer was intimidating and a little unnerving. And to think my taxes pay their livelihood and maybe we need to look up the word "soldier" and "police officer" see what they mean. Thank you

25754. It’s the 21st century, and history repeats itself with massive incarcerations and/or slaughters of innocent blacks and Hispanics in most American cities. Racial prejudice is ubiquitous and omnipresent, and, ironically, in an epoch where the country is headed by a black president. Is this phenomenon related, (you bet it is...), and why doesn’t the president and DOJ intercede? Each and every murder of black and Hispanic youth by police over the past 20 years needs to be examined and investigated for patterns and similarities, followed by a critical report with ameliorative recommendations from DOJ. If this form of discrimination occurred with any other ethnic or religious group, it would not be tolerated. Black youth are not dispensable, and “Enough is ENOUGH!” Alan

Obviously their chiefs are not telling them that deadly force is a last option. If you watch the film of the young man who was shot in St Louis a couple of days after Mike Brown was murdered you will see that this young man posed no immediate threat to these officer , they just open up on him like he was a animal. 26298. USA needs a HIGHER STANDARD OF ENFORCEMENT OF EQUAL RIGHTS. This MUST BEGIN WITH USA PUBLIC SCHOOLS AS WELL AS LAW ENFORCEMENT. As an Elementary Public School Teacher I have observed years of digusting inequality of PAY, treatment, racial & gender slurs by Administration, School Boards, Staff, students & parents, all in PUBLIC SCHOOLS. Each incident, each month, each year has gone with NO CONSEQUENCES. BUT LOTS OF CONSPIRACY & RETALIATION AGAINST THOSE WHO ATTEMPT TO APPROPRIATELY PROFESSIONALLY ADDRESS THROUGH PROPER CHANNELS. THE FAILURE OF ENFORCEMENT HAS NOT BEEN REMEDIED FOR OVER 40 YEARS. Enough is enough. When good citizen CAUCASIANS are INTIMIDATED , HARASSED & RETALIATED AGAINST for bringing attention to this abomination, our children learn to Bully or keep their mouths shut. USA IS SUPPOSED TO BE BETTER THAN THIS. USA IS DEMONSTRATING HYPOCRISY INSIDE & OUTSIDE ITS BORDERS. It's gotten to the point that a public school teacher must "GO ALONG" TO "GET ALONG." SO TOO POLICE & THOSE IN POWER. THIS MUST CHANGE TO MORE HONORABLE VALUES CONSISTENT WITH OUR BILL OF RIGHTS.

26333. It simply stands to reason that the entire behavioral pattern of our law enforcement needs to be reformed, The use of guns needs to be reduced to a minimal, the use of brute force needs to stop, the militarization of the police needs to reverse, and the process of police "investigating" themselves needs to end. This rampant corruption is not just affecting African Americans, (although they are paying the heaviest price for it,) but it impacts everyone in a negative manner. I haven't had a direct problem with the police in years, because I am a white guy, and I don't think that is a fair system. Most of my co-workers, who are African American have. They are no different than me, they should be treated the same as me, by the police, by the justice system, and by society as a whole! Thank you.

26707. We fear ISIS, Taliban, Al Qaida, and the Tea Party as dangerous, destructive, wanting to make the world into their own idea of "the right way to live and how either belonging to their religion or ELSE." Yet, we have an even more deadly problem in the U.S. Police in all communities. In Farmington NM where I live police have killed people "considering suicide", "wielding a knife", basically just anyone they like to shoot. Nearby Albuquerque has been the target of a U.S. investigation since they shoot anybody at any time. Since when do Police have a total license to kill anyone of us with NO PROVICATION WHAT-SO-EVER. They must be controlled. And the neighborhood "vigilante" groups who are armed and act like police and kill unarmed people a will. All of this has to stop. The U.S. people are at war with the police who are supposed to protect us but shot anyone they want to. Why would anyone shoot homeless people in the back? Albuquerque police do! Why do police shoot suicidal people EVERYWHERE in the US. My father committed suicide - what would have been better if he had been gunned down by "our protectors the police." My nephew, a policeman, committed suicide at the age of 29. What would have been the benefit in ANOTHER policeman killing him? Many of us now look both ways before crossing the street to see if there if there is a police person in sight so we don't risk getting shot. It is high time to do it the British way and DISARN POLICE IN AMERICA TOTALLY. Interestingly they now have every form of weaponry of any army on earth. I don't think that is what we hire police for! Please, President Obama, initiate in depth investigations of EVERY police department in the U.S. Even as a kid in a tiny town a friend of mine and his brother we arrested on Halloween for throwing firecrackers. They were beaten by the police while in jail. This was in the early 1960s. My friend is now an M.D. in charge of a major department at one of the leading hospitals in the U.S. We have to survive the police in the U.S. to have a successful life. I personally have never encountered a policeman or highway patrolman or sheriff that treated ME anything but decent but having them shooting anyone else at the slightest provocation or not provocation is criminal. We have to stop renegade police who have permeated the entire U.S. We need to control them now since they are an immediate and ever present and continuing group of killers of completely innocent Americans. ISIS is still just killing a very few Americans, albeit it grotesquely, but killing in any manner is simply killing. So now we are more likely to killed by our local police than the Taliban, Al Qaida, ISIS, etc. yet our government spends all its military money on fighting these foreign groups instead of our local immediate threat from local police departments. After all, local police are usually very young, awesomely underpaid, put on work schedules that have been proven by many scientific studies to be the worst possible work schedules possible. STOP THIS PRESIDENT OBAMA. Dr. Timothy Reeves Ph.D, U.S. Army West Point Veteran and strong opponent of the NRA and the "gun possessed American Policee." This is WRONG!

26765. America is tired of all these trigger happy cops killing unarmed citizens. And we demand changes in the law that gives these murderers the right to be judge , jury and executioners. Subjects running from police, subjects with a butter knife in their hand, subjects with a rake in their hands, young black boys that point a finger at police, young hispanic with a toy gun and dogs protecting their property do not deserve to die at the hands of these out of control trigger happy murderers that think that the badge and the gun gives them the right to kill at will. Additionally, we demand that the investigation of police abuse be taken out of the hands of the state prosecutors and the state police because their finding are always that the police were justified.

As a Black woman, child of a Black man and sister of a Black teenage boy, I do not feel like my family is safe in this country. I feel like I have to worry about my family running into the police and what may happen. I don't like feeling that way and I urge you to begin to take steps to change this policies. And when all else fails, remember who has given so much for this country, blood, sweat, tears, and lives: the African American community. Please stop marginalizing us. Thank you Imani C. We simply can't allow these unfortunately pervasive attitudes to drive our public responses to the uniquely American right to demonstrate and show one's disagreement with a public policy. 26880. Crime is rampant in America. But it is not in the streets. It is in business. It is in government. But it is ignored because as you know the "rule of law". The president can torture and lie. The attorney general can be a career criminal. The secretary of state, the vice president can be derelict in their duties, award contracts to their own personal interests. But if we the people should be so bold as to gather in protest to our being abused we are met by militarized police outfitted in futuristic gear and weapons of the latest technology. Have we learned nothing in the past 2014 years? It is time to cut the budget for the military industrial complex and its' allies by 90% or more today. That will solve some budget crisis.

don't know or consider themselves a racist. They have the Donald Sterling/Paula Deen, "But I love Oprah Winfrey" mentality. If these black victims where young white men dying at the hands of black officers, their would have been action immediately.

The police departments are killing to many unarmed minorities children's but are allowing White armed children, with several guns, and lots of ammunition who kill several people in theaters are apprehended. This sends the wrong message to White children. Explained to me why Law makers are not writing policies and holding police officers accountable when this happens. Stop allowing these White police officers frisked Blacks and Hispanics it they are not commenting a crime. White people are allowed to carry guns in stores why? The gun laws need to changed the USA is a sad country to live in. Politicians are being bought on every angle while people are suffering. Rich people are rewriting our constitution.

27641. It is insane and criminal to have the police randomly shoot and taser people for no reason. Ferguson is just one example of an increasing trend. Too often it is the homeless or people of color who are victimized. The real solution is to control the arming of everyone--citizens as well as police. With increased firepower on all sides, it is no wonder the police are scared. But the real victims are the unarmed innocent who get murdered, injured, or abused by police as a result of this wretched situation.

27710. I applaud your effort and I will support the cause. However, nothing will change if we as a people continue to sit on the sidelines and not vote or participate in the Goverrning of our communities. It is a damn shame when the majority is Governed by the minority; it reminds me of apartheid South Africa and Rhodesia back in the day. Black folks need to get up off their lazy behind and vote, or continue to ignore what others have fought and died for and allow White folks to step on you and to ignore you. White folks vote and participate to get what they want, not what we want. If Black folks continue to party and only care about sports and entertainment, then, no one will take us seriously. The vote is our power, we must use it.

Policing is out-of-control in this country and rapidly accelerating toward a police state--police armed like tactical military units, the out-of-control NSA, &c.--and it's high time citizen control & oversight is restored. 28532. Transform policing nationwide. Stop the unnecessary police brutality. We need an intervention and new federal government policies. Hold police officers accountable when they break the law and act like the thugs, criminals and the menace to society that they so openly accuse people of color. It has to stop - no more taking of young innocent lives and justifying them and say he resisted arrest or assaulted the police officer when it is the officer that did the assaulting. Do not let the police take our freedom of speech. They should not be saying anything negative to anybody. If a kid wants to walk in the street he has that right without anyone being murdered because a police officer feels that they can get away with breaking the law. They are not above the law and the police chiefs as should be held accountable when they allow bad policing. We must end racial profiling.

28560. Do I think we need police, I say yes, we don't need is killing for no reason. The police, cannot treat every individual the same. That is like saying every cop is dirty, we know that not to be true. There is problem in the police force, it is enternal and goes to the highest ranks. A brotherhood, corrupt they are. The code of silence that the police use. It just allows corruption to go on. Justice would be served if the police in involved, would allow the corrupt to be judged by the court system. Is there a time for force, yes, but to shoot a person who is surrendering. That be like a person shooting at the police, for saying hi to them.

28802. The core responsibilities of our government are to "establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty." The first item in that list is "establish justice." Support for police forces, the armed services, public facilities such as highways and freeways, provision for our environmental and workplace safety -- those are all important, but not one of them is important enough to justify the failure to establish justice. Whatever resources are required to support the establishment of justice must be allocated; there is no justification for situations such as that in Ferguson -- and far, far too many other places -- to exist in the United States of America. Every instance of injury or death to a civilian resulting from an interaction with anyone employed by any branch or level of our government must lead to a careful, neutral, external investigation and the continuous improvement of our policing training and policies both nationally and locally. There is no excuse for the incidents that have taken place already; we have to find a way to stop them in the future. Perhaps the resources currently being spent on militarizing police forces across our nation could be re-allocated. Certainly, the use such equipment has been put to is profoundly inappropriate.

28812. It is absolutely amazing that too many Americans do not fully appreciate the long history of racism in America and how racist attitudes of earlier generations are still impacting the minds of the current generation of Americans. It is this ignorance that allows for continued police brutality and for many Americans not to understand that police brutality reflects an unacceptable level of racism throughout our nation. The above is the reflection of a 61 year old white man.

The only way to stop the corruption is for a set procedure to be implemented by the DOJ anytime there is a misdemeanor or felony suspicion by the police to ensure that ALL civil rights protocols are adhered to. If it is found that the police violated the suspect's civil rights guaranteed under the Constitution of the United States of America, there should be automatic sanctions taken against the officer(s) involved.

29200. I am deeply ashamed of the rampant racism and police brutality in America today. As a white male I am spared such horrible treatment but all people are afforded the same rights in America, regardless of color and all are entitled to receive it. The bigotry and hatred demonstrated by so many who are charged with keeping the peace is reprehensible. These are the very people who need MOST to see beyond race and enforce the laws not with brutality but with restraint. History is filled with examples of what happens when law enforcement is reduced to an "us vs. them" mentality. America is FAR better than that! Law enforcement exists to help citizens be the best people they can, not to smack them down at every opportunity. Civility demands nothing less.

I can only think that if we in our lily white communities were subjected to such harassment we would be up in arms and not tolerate it. So it should be for blacks. To think a person could be shot and probably killed for not wearing a seat belt or walking down the middle of a street, where there are no sidewalks by the way, is unconscionable. This must be stopped. Racism and hatred should not be tolerated especially in law enforcement, legislators and judiciary, who have so much power over the powerless.

Now, where I live in rural Oregon, my black friend has been stopped too many times for it to be coincidental. It's only because she is a professional with some position in the community that she has not been unfairly ticketed or further harassed. But it continues to happen. We have so far to go, before we are communities where everyone gets the same respect and protection from our police departments! We should be spending money training our police forces, instead of giving them riot gear and anti-terrorist equipment (really? how many terrorists are in small town America? Even big city America?).

29574. Police savagery is out of control. It is insane. It is evil. It cannot be justified by irredeemably corrupt judges and prosecutors. Since the inception of the very first police department, cops have been tools of repression far more often than they have been tools of protection and service. When people who have committed NO CRIME are subjected to Civil Asset forfeiture, when pregnant women are thrown to the sidewalk, or tased from behind simply for asking a question, or when people are gunned down or strangled for the crime of being Black. the justice system is exposed as the unspeakably evil Kafka-esque nightmare it truly is. It has to stop. Which means that people have to stop voting for the Republican sociopaths that have made this Randian hellscape possible. America has no hope of surviving if we don't.

29683. The horrific racial injustices and discrimination at every step along the way in our justice system, along with mandatory minimum or long sentences for non-violent crimes, along with large, inhumane corporate prisons, have done great damage to our nation's people of color and poverty and their communities. It is a national disgrace that has broken trust and faith in our justice system and is, indeed, the New Jim Crow. It has also taken away needed resources for diversionary programs, addiction and mental health services, restorative justice programs, mentoring and transition services. Rethinking our justice system and ending our draconian War on Drugs practices are moral imperatives for our society and our communities at this time. Michelle Alexander's "The New Jim Crow" and the public response to the killing of Michael Brown in Ferguson portray these injustices and needed reforms in the justice system and policing practices vividly, courageously, and accurately. 29750. I entirely agree with the ideas expressed in this letter. This kind of thuggery is intolerable, and is a disgrace to a country that calls itself 'the land of the free'. We must have action on this issue immediately. It has been dragging on for far too long. Our police force is not supposed to be a gang of robbers and murderers, and if this continues, I would not be surprised if the targets of this kind of thuggery will be forced to take up arms to defend themselves. Stop selling military hardware to domestic police, and bring this outrageous behavior on the part of certain law enforcement agencies under strict control asap. Remember that police are on the public payroll, and if they become, or are, a menace to the public, then the public has a right to insist on the termination and incarceration of any and all police officers who break the law and harm innocent citizens.

30172. When will families of victims of racial profiling by our local police forces see justice? People who are supposed to uphold the law, are "killing" young black people with little or no consequences. When will our representatives in government see this for what it is and enforce the law against these bullying, hating and unrepentant officers? The wearing of bracelets, such as "we are Darren Wilson" just shows what their mindset is!

30968. Institutionalized discrimination in this country seems to have been concentrated in policing institutions to be expressed in a very overt, often brutal way (as opposed to other more covert forms of institutional discrimination). Peace Officer Standards and Training would need to be substantive, and not just a superficial, bureaucratic exercise to be able to fulfill a requirement on paper. The issue has to do with the 'culture' of police, for which validating or sanctioning its values and norms are possibly in large part, the responsibility of police supervisors.

I'm a white middle-aged woman, and I have worked with black students as a teacher and live in Oakland, a very diverse town that still suffers from outdated perceptions about race that are based on fear and guilt about our history of enslavement and abuse of the ancestors of my neighbors. Our town is progressive, but in so many places nationwide the underlying discriminatory belief systems run very deep, and cause our fellow citizens not to have the opportunity that our Constitution should be able to promise them. These kids are our kids. We need to 31212. I am sick to death of the constant killing of black men. For no reason. Any policeman worth his existence should be able to TALK to the people. This shooting anything that moves, even when moving to surrender, has to stop. This has become a very uncivilized country Time to change the way police departments are being run. In St Petersburg, FL, there is now a black chief of police who has instituted a Park, Walk, and Talk program where officers MUST stop and park their cruisers and GET OUT AND TALK to the people in their area. This is a START at smart policing Time to force other police departments to TALK and not shoot.

31214. I've had it with these criminals we call police they are not here to help us with our problems they are here to attack us and seize our property cars homes anything they can get from us they will and will lie to cover up the destruction they cause and I'm sick of it and the whole American thing they have shoved down our throat telling us how free we are as they attack us in the name of justice as if they care about justice only there agenda witch is to put a hurt on the rest of us we are going to have to arm ourselves and be prepared for civil war with them very soon as they think they can get away with any thing including murder in the name of justice and lie to cover there criminal acts they have become way worse than the criminals and get away with crimes that are worse than the original one so to kill someone for stealing a pack of smokes is a way bigger crime than the first one was I have armed my self and make sure that I don't break laws because I'm going to have the element of surprise when they come to railroad and attack me for some made up charge I will defend myself and my family so I hope they don't try anything with me because if they do I'm going out and I'm not going alone what a shame they have turned us into hating them so much that we have to think this way I grew up liking and respecting them but they were there to help not to take advantage of us that's all gone now only here now to hurt us not help just hope it turns around for the kids growing up now if not we will have total civil war here in the free country of America

31282. I personally have experience police brutially concerning one of my children and than myself and all my children and grandchildren became targeted by the city police. After I filed a complaint with internal affairs. Which was confirmed that the police involved were known racist. My son was a young kid a passenger in a car with other teens and they all were beaten severely my son was admitted in a hospital unconscious before I located him at the right hospital because the police had me going to every hospital before giving me the correct one. When I finally located him at the hospital the police stop me from seeing him and started questioning me for my address I told them my address and where I lived they had assumed that I lived in the Projects. My son didn't recognize me in the hospital. He has a permanent scar in his head from the beating, as well as therapy for him and me at that time. Because I just couldn't believe the POLICE would do something like that or threaten me if I didn't drop the charges in the State of Delaware. And to this day---The threats they made most of which they enforced over the years what they didn't do was kill my sons or rape me! Nothing was ever done to them, the officer that filed my complaint ended up resigning.

You cannot continue this path under any logical reasoning, this is madness- psychotic. You know there is only one way forward to sustainability and civilization: JUSTICE. Now get up and do it or you're doomed, it's actually that simple. Your evil only hurts and damns yourself. After all the blood, sweat, and tears it took to get our species this far how could you just want to erase it all despite the enormous promise, the near infinite untapped potential? All in trade for a lousy buck? Take it with you then, beyond the grave since you think your bargaining is so brilliant.

32129. Although I am a Caucasian, I am outraged by the ever increasing targeting, brutality and systematic incarceration of our young black men and keeping thousands black citizens in jails across our once great country simply because they no money for bail or fines for petty crimes. While most whites get released on their own reconnaissance. These tactics MUST BE STOPPED. I live in Las Vegas Nevada and although our community was promised a thorough federal investigation of our law enforcement use of deadly force on unarmed citizens. Every killing has been deemed justified even the young unarmed black youth shot in the back while in handcuffs. It's horrific. It's time for the Justice Department to take action.Our future is in great distress. Where is the love... We claim to be a Christian nation especially the conservative politicians.. 32172. Many years ago, police agencies across the nation had programs for children, that encouraged good citizenship and community spirit. In my city (Kansas City, MO), this program was called the 'Officer Friendly program.' The police would go to various elementary schools once per year. At the end of each event, the police would give out miniature police badges. Like most kids back then, we were excited to have the police at our school, and the children would cherish their little badges. I never thought that one day I'd feel like a game trophy being hunted by some not all, 'Evil Spirited White Police.' I have witnessed police abuse first hand, but the Eric Garner video... and hearing that man repeatedly telling that officer that he couldn't breathe... was the worst experience that I've ever seen. Our nations annual police shooting/ killing average is 400 men each year. How can our nation justify that 80% that's killed are Black Males by White Police? Within the last 2-years, approximately 8 nationalized police shootings, all the men have been black. Would our communities respond differently if all of these men were white... would swift immediate changes in the laws take place? Unfortunately in our Nation's DNA is Black Slavery... with all of the Holocaustic Horrors, that's never been governmentally addressed. Only by addressing past atrocities such as this, and restoring lives, can heal our current situation. Today's Black People are exhausted with the feeling and reality of being treated less than human, as one Ferguson Police Officer said to the crowd, 'animals.' America is ripe for national, civil unrest. Swift Federal Government Action, Laws & Policies are of paramount importantance.

32180. I am Caucasian living Iin a RED RW AREA pf a BLUE State. The enormous number of racial slurs & Harassment my 1st & 3rd Grade students endured while in a PUBLIC SCHOOL wss disgusting. Though I repeayedly informed/alerted School Admininistration nothing was done tp PROTECT MY STUDENS' CIVIL RIGHTS. School Officials from School Board to Administration DID NOTHING TO STOP the RACIAL Harassment & Bullying. Nothing led me to believe the Police would intervene since one member of School Board was a Police Officer. Though Caucasian I frequently felt the target of Harassment , Bullying & wildly false allegations. I could not determine if that was because I was considered a "Thorn in the Side" because I was aware School Officials were VIOLATING CIVIL RIGHTS of STUDENTS or because the entire area was bigoted---Police included, or if School Officials felt I was aware of financial & legal Violations & irregularities. A work environment is supposed to be a "SAFE" ENVIRONMENT." DESPITE DEATH THREATS MADE AGAINST ME, POLICE WOULD NOT INVESTIGATE, SHOW ME COMPLAINTS, ETC. When PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS CANNOT RELY UPON POLICE TO ACT PROFESSIONALLY, SERVE & PROTECT, then USA is no longer a SAFE SOCIETY FOR GOOD CITIZENS.

Now consider this: "Metropolitan Police confirm they will have 12,500 police on duty at peak times for the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games." Considering "Kenyans have won every single major marathon this year. No exceptions. They took London, Boston, Paris, Chicago, Berlin, Rotterdam, Amsterdam, New York and the world championships in Daegu, Korea. 32467. What is going on in America is beyond SHAMEFUL. Police- the guys that are supposed to 'help' the public instead we have Rambo style killings of ALL colors of individuals. Since the police have gotten military weaponry people are dieing. I have begun to feel like I may or my family members may be shot at any time. We see military vehicles driving around you get the sensation you are living in some kind of war zone. Police do not need military equipment at all! That's why we have SWAT teams. The worst of what I think I know is neither the police nor the government is keeping tabs on these weapons nor do they know if any of the recievers are hoarding any of these weapons. You are allowing an semi untrustworthy local policeman to shoot first and ask questions later. If these local police are allowed to continue to hoarding these weapons then STOP taking the weapons away from the people. There is NO excuse for shooting most anyone; there are other less lethal ways to subdue humans without KILLING them. And what excuse is there for 5 and 6 police personnel to dogpile onto a single person and snuffing out their life because the person can't breathe. These so-called techniques police devise are not suitable for an average citizen- they are brutal and cruel whether you are innocent or guilty- the policeman of today are heartless. I ask you- we send our troops to keep us safe so while the troops are gone our local police ABUSE the citizenry? WHAT kind of stupidity goes here?

Our government has lost it's way, and can no longer make decisions for the benefit of 'the people,' because our needs are in conflict with the donors to their campaigns(who are the mega corporations, driving the only economic bus that's moving) and the tenured federal employees who will rotate into jobs at all of those corporations when they leave their 'public service' role. People who understand " Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" If Leadership does not understand this & abide inn JUSTICE for all. They should be removed from office asap. We just want what you would want if Mike Brown, Travon Marrtin, Rodney King or any of the countless others were your child .. How would it make you feel? Iam 100% sure, you would expect / demand a different outcome. 32584. I am so upset by the violence I see being acted out against the people of color in our country that I feel almost speechless! The militarization of our local police forces, along with the horror of what they're doing as they take so called "justice" into their own hands by shooting first and asking questions later is a national travesty and it must stop now!!!! I call on all of our publicly elected officials to demand that justice be served in the cases where our youth and in some cases, our older men of color have been senselessly gunned down. A crime is a crime, whether it's committed by an officer in blue and a regular person on the street and alleged crimes must be prosecuted as such, or true justice will not have been served. I hope in the end that justice will prevail for the those who have suffered because of the shooting of Michael Brown. Sincerely, Rev. Barbara Smalley-McMahan 32783. In addition to these changes we desperately need to rethink the justice system by passing the five laws of justice. 1. Only the guilty should be punished. Whenever there is a chain of responsibility you must follow that chain to its end, to the individual or individuals who pulled the chain, and you may only punish those who pulled the chain and the links in the chain who you find, after very careful and very thorough investigation, most likely would have committed the crimes they committed without outside influence. 1.a. With very few exceptions, the victim of a crime is not themselves guilty of a crime. 1.b. Laws that punish a battered mother or father for failure to protect a child from child abuse are contrary to the philosophy of these laws. Thus "Failure to Protect Laws" and all similar laws are strictly prohibited. 2. Only harm should be punished. Whenever someone does something that is technically against the law but they do so in such a way that they cause either absolutely no harm or very minimal harm you may not punish them or even charge them with a crime. 2.a. Harm can be categorized as either temporary harm or lasting harm. Only lasting harm can be severely punished. Temporary harm must be lightly punished. 3. There is one true purpose of punishment, to significantly reduce the chance that the criminal will choose to commit a specific crime again. Once you have achieved the one true purpose of punishment, anything you do to further punish the individual is an injustice and, depending on the punishment you choose, may in fact be evil. Furthermore, if you can achieve the one true purpose of punishment without punishing the criminal, you may not punish them at all. 3.a. For profit corporations exist solely to make a profit. They cannot be trusted to obey the laws of justice. Therefore turning over prisons and probation programs to for profit corporations is strictly prohibited. 3.b. Laws that set the severity of a punishment based on the number of times a person has been convicted of crimes are contrary to the philosophy of these laws. Thus "three strikes laws" and all similar laws are strictly prohibited. 3.c. Laws that specify a mandatory sentence for a crime and take away from the sentencing judge the right to make a reasoned judgement about a specific case are contrary to the philosophy of these laws. Thus "minimum sentencing laws" and all similar laws are strictly prohibited. Laws that set recommended sentences for crimes but leave the final decision up to the sentencing judge are allowed. 3.d. A life sentence in prison for a non-violent offense is contrary to the philosophy of these laws and thus is strictly prohibited. 4. It is the duty of a justice system to err on the side of caution. Just as one false conviction is universally believed to be unacceptable, so is one unjustly harsh sentence. 5. Arming law enforcement officers with military grade weaponry is contrary to the philosophy of these laws. Doing so creates an environment of fear and unrest that will eventually lead to a revolt. Law enforcement should only be armed with non lethal light weight weaponry whenever possible.

32806. It is absolutely disgusting as well as disturbing to hear and see so much racially motivated police brutality towards African Americans. This is why so few people even respect the police in this country because they believe that they can enforce THEIR PERSONAL VERSION of the law and that no law touches them personally. I rarely view any police officer as a good citizen and how can I??? So much negativity and hideous crimes that they get away with while punishing good, decent people instead of the ones who aren't trying to provide for their family or go to school or make a better life for themselves in general. I often wonder who can change these unjust laws and hold these policemen and policewomen responsible instead of having their backs and supporting them unless you agree with what they have/are doing. Which in any case makes you just as dirty and filthy and the ones who "protect the people."

32840. My16 yr old grandson is a young black person and I'm a white person. I live in Parma, OH and my grandson along with his black male friend was trying to find work in the neighborhood by taking our lawn mower around and asking if they could mow people's lawns. The police were called by someone and the police made statements to these young men to "go back where they came from". Followed them all the way back to my place. My son was home, I was at work and didn't learn about this until a week later. My grandson was calming down his friend who was getting mad about the statements being made by these white officers. It could have changed so quickly into something completely out of hand and out of control! All across this country, we need to train officers how to talk to people, if they want respect, they have to give it! My deceased husband who was black was a Cleveland officer and so was my white brother, who was a CMHA police officer, so I feel I can say this! This profiling and approach on how to talk to young black kids needs attention and training. Profiling needs to stop! Respect needs to start with the police who are the adults here and then things would turn out better. There's good and bad in every race and good and bad in every age group. You can't classify people in as being all bad! You have to take each person for who they are individually! This needs attention NOW in this country! Let's work together to resolve this issue! BTW, these two young men did find some lawns to mow by some very nice, support people living in the neighborhood who happened to be white!

I sign this petition because America for decades is seen to be an example of the melting pot. They are far from this if so many senseless brutal deaths caused by those that are in Authority. "The federal government has a clear role to play in overturning the conditions that led to these tragedies and setting a higher standard of policing across the country. The standards, policies, and practices of the executive branch set the tone and tactics of local and state law enforcement. The integrity of America and our criminal justice system must be restored. "

33337. Too many people already hate the President, just for who he is. No matter what he does, he is not going to be liked by them. So, he has nothing to lose by dealing extremely aggressively with those fostering the senseless abuse that citizens of color have to endure. He knew he was going to be the Jackie Robinson of politics when he ran for this office and he evidently felt up to the task. There are many more people not of color who are for him or he would not be President. He should not keep low-keying that electorate and take immediate action.

33343. The additional demand for officers to live within the same state of the areas they police in is another issue that should be added to this agenda. Officers who don't live anywhere near your geograhic area tend to have less concern for what they do in the streets. I support your organizations call for the Federal goverment to implement critical reforms to end abusive, militarized and biased policing that effect Black and Brown communities.

33387. I have a 8 year old son and I am in fear of his life. I see his smile and it is so warming to my heart. Every adult and child who meets him love him. He is caring and personable. One day I know I won't be able to drive him around everywhere, I will have to cut the strings so that he can grow and experience life as most other teenage children and young adults. I get sick to my stomach at the thought that someone would see his color and fear him; see him as a threat and kill him. I don't expect everyone to see him through my eyes as his mother. But I do expect that they would see through the eyes of a parent or at best through the eyes of humility in enteracting with him. My son isn't an alien or foreign species; he is a child of God. It is heartbreaking to think that when my son is of the age where he can let hiself into his home and God forbid there were to be an intruder; I don't know whether or not to tell him to call 911 or not. I'm afraid if I were to tell him to do that;they themselves may enter the home and shoot first and claim it was because they thought he was the assailaint/ or wasn't supposed to be in the home. This saddens me deeply. Emotionally it overwhelming at times when I think about how I will have to find away to explain that there are different rules of survival for him then his caucasian counterparts. May the Lord have mercy on us all!

By treating anyone or any sect of people as though they are inherently bad, you hurt the rest of society. Everyone has something good to offer. In the 50's police departments whined about how they were constrained from doing their jobs because of all of the anti-abuse laws that had been passed controlling them. In reality they were trying to coverup shoddy police work. Unfortunately, governments listen to the police agencies and loosened the restrictions giving police departments once again the ability to abuse their authority over the public. All of this military equipment needs to be removed from them now. The vast majority of police departments do not need this equipment, and will never use it. they have it to only scare the public. Leash this mad dog now!

That's their defense for killing unarmed citizens who were doing nothing that merits being gunned down. If they're so afraid, maybe that's why they stay away from areas where crimes are actually being committed. The whole country is watching, and recording, these out of control policemen. My son is poor, he cannot afford car insurance which is a crime if you drive, but in Michigan if you do not drive you cannot get to work. His car is 14 years old and held together with duct-tape which is also probably a crime. The real crime is poverty, it is a crime to be poor but he worked in the 'new service sector economy' which guantees his income will always be insufficent to meet his needs.

The traffic stop because of a seat belt I heard about today, and following smashing of car windows and tasering just put me over the edge, especially to hear police saying they feared for their life!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! 34253. There has been a trend of racial profiling for years in America. The ACLU has brought tremendous attention to the brutality of motivation for law enforcement officers to hunt and harass African American children. This is a spin-off of Jim Crow and we need laws to overturn this inhuman behavior on the part of law enforcement officers who are paid to protect and serve. The question now is who? Please enact strict laws to cease this senseless harassment of African Americans all over this country so African Americans can live out the true meaning in the Declaration of Independence…"All Men are Created Equal" in the sight of God. Obama Administration; You need to DO something about the rampant murderous entitlement of th epolice regime in the United States, not just in sorrowful misscarriages of disenfranchisent and harrassment like Ferguson, MO, which led to the tragic and completely preventable death of young Michael Brown. Do the Right Thing: curtail the police. Stop giving law enforcement carte blanche and a "get out of jail" free card which can only lead to unchecked power in the hands of anyone with a badge and a belly full of rage. PROTECT US FROM THE POLICE REGIME. It is your job as well as your obligation. Sincerely, Gregg Symons State College, PA

34269. I fully support this effort and believes that the DOJ should and will take action. I also believe that while that is ongoing President Obama should show moral leadership and moral outrage. We are rightly outraged (and take action) by atrocities committed elsewhere and need to do the same when it happens here. It is a sad commentary when Russia and other countries who are truly oppressive have some measure of success by trying take the moral ground based on these events. President Kennedy was able to speak about the moral blight and injustice the event aided and abetted by our inaction. Surely there are towns, cities, counties who have managed to show by their actions that they value all life and follow ‘due process’ our laws state. I don’t think it would hard to find examples where this is happening. Among the interests it would serve is 1) recognize them for their efforts and 2) shaming those who seem to do nothing but come up with excuses or stereotypes. Let’s be honest, if George W. Bush or another president was as seemingly mute as President Obama has been we (progressives) would not stop showing our righteous indignation. I still believe in the promise of America…look what we did in 2008 and 2012. Now we need the President to, as my kids say, ‘turn up’ and do the right thing.

34309. While I agree with you about police harassment of minorities, I also believe that we have a problem in this country with crime, much of it done by young black men. I live in New Jersey across from New York City, and I offer as an example the recent shooting of a hispanic police officer in this area by a black man. I believe it was in Jersey City or Newark, and the black man set up an ambush for the police. He commented to an onlooker that he was going to be on the news that night. I would also point out the looting of businesses in Ferguson, Missouri after the killing of Mike Brown. I am in no way justifying the killing of Mr. Brown, but the looting (in his name?) of local businesses by black residents, the statements of local youth on national television that their looting was justified by being black and poor, and my belief that many of the looted businesses were minority-owned, makes the looting intolerable. It also discourages possible entrepreneurs, some who are minorities, from opening or continuing to operate businesses in Ferguson, forces insurance companies to raise the cost of coverage for those businesses, or deny coverage entirely, and forces local residents to travel farther than they would otherwise have to to shop. It also denies local youth an opportunity to work. We also NEED to address this problem!

I know we had slavery, just by another name, well into the 20th century, perhaps until almost WWI; but even that was almost a century ago now. Prejudice and discrimination of "others" has existed no doubt since we were in caves, but we have GOT to stop any and all brutality done in their name, ESPECIALLY any that claim to be done "legally." However, poor people of all color's are also adversely affected by the militant police policy of "shoot first and ask question later" attitude. When police look upon the inhabitants of the communities that they serve as "them" and other police officers as "us" the polarization is worrisome. I thought that police officer's were employed to "Protect and Serve the citizens of the community that employ's them". I think my belief in the Police in the U.S. as benevolent is wrong.

34557. I am not for the case by case approach, as the wound runs deeper in the African American community nation wide. The sustainable solution of this unfortunate situation requires the engagement of a vigilant watchdog - social movement and network support to address in a sustainable way such atrocity, which undermines all fundamental values America is standing for. Therefore, I'd respectfully suggest Color of Change to consider helping in this way like the Icons of Human Rights and Civil Rights Malcom X and MLKing Jr have shown us the way to face these challenges undermining the fabric of our modern society - and to go forward A good start is to reach out to all the families of the victims get them together within the social movement per se, sign petition and take it to the US Congress for hearing and to the White House for immediate reforms without delay to halt the prevalent silent genocide in the African American Community. The same movement should apply to advocate awareness among the African American youth preying on each other, and engaging in crime and violence. Let them put a halt on that self-inflicted wound, and cooperate - pull strength together; solve peacefully their differences in a civilized and intelligent manner or all these good initiatives we are putting together - social movement and support network to help them blossom and thrive with dignity, substance, and class would be vain. Because, it's way much worse to witness a brother taking the life of another brother or sister (and often times for futile argument, which can be solved cool headed without excess of passion) then a white taking the life of a Brother/Sister.

Unfortunately, this problem-set is uniquely specific to the United States of America and should with due-legal-diligence, be immediately ameliorated; however, inference can be made, given recent and ongoing responses to this uniquely American problem-set, there is little to no real interest in any correction --our African American President notwithstanding- our problem-set definitely appears a determined backlash to his presidency. Sadly, Dr. Louis "Skip" Gates along with too many other ordinary Americans identifiable as either African Americans or Blacks, as an historical reality, are the targets of this ongoing 'evil'. One would think that if this nation ever had a chance to eliminate such racist practices, it would be when a minority president is in office; however, the reality is that you are being faced with unprecedented resistance to fairness and equality in all things. Laws CAN be changed and we do not have to tolerate these murders and murders. Maybe it will necessitate our financial break-up of economic systems that the majority feels can not negatively impact them enough to enforce positive change but SOMETHING must be done and we must all work together to affect that change.

34893. Much of the problem with police brutality lies in the kind of people who are hired as police. I believe that investigation would show that all too many were bullies back to their school days and had long-standing problems with anger management. Instead of getting help, they join the police department, which gives them a socially sanctioned venue to continue bullying--now buttressed by the force of the law. This must stop. All applicants to police departments should be thoroughly vetted by qualified psychological professionals. I believe that it also be extremely helpful if applicants to the police department were required to have a STRONG background in the liberal arts before applying for work where they literally have the power of life or death over citizens who cannot fight back. Literature, poetry, art, classical music, dance, philosophy, history, sociology: serious study of such subjects would do much would do much to produce more humane law enforcement.

protecting communities. In fact, they undermine a lot of law-and-community relationships. The racial and racist component to some of these incidents disturbs me. Just what kind of police officers are some of these towns and cities hiring, anyway? If they are so intent on harm before they become officers, as some of these incidents suggest, then they shouldn't be wearing a uniform and a gun.

The targeting by police of African-American and Latino people with the use of excessive force has become a frightening everyday occurrence that all too often ends in the shooting or tasing death of an innocent person. Swat raids have caused death and grievous injury to innocents, including young children. Police throughout the US need to be reigned in and taught to respect human and civil rights. New policies and accountability are urgently needed. You must act to put an end to unjustifiable police violence and racial profiling. These practices must not be allowed to continue with impunity. And what's being done about the young man shot not a week later 12 times? Yes, he was in the wrong, with a knife, but a one man, shot 12 times by two police men... it's sad. 35740. I am a mother of two young men who is absolutely terrified of letting them out into the world, for the fear that they won't be coming home because a police officer made assumptions about their character based off of their skin color alone. I know many other moms, regardless of their race, but who perhaps don't have a high SES who are just as afraid. It's time to make changes so that out of control cops are held completely accountable for their actions against the poor, the black, and the brown citizens they're sworn to protect.

The shameful bigoted treatment and unwarranted murder of minorities under the color of authority by those wearing police uniforms must stop now. 36096. It seems to me that police training spends far too much time officer safety and not enough time on citizen safety. they need training in conflict resolution, anger management and taught a proper respect for their responsibilities as peace officers. I have been hearing too many police saying that their number 1 duty was their safety. No one wants them hurt but it should never be their #1 concern. They should be concerned about everyone's safety. too many act as judge and jury. If towns and cities can't afford this ongoing training, then they should take their guns away.

The police officer was running through the crown with his gun drawn, everyone started running when some yelled he has a gun, including my nephew. My nephew is a young black man in his early. I am appalled that I have the opportunity as a white mother of daughters to think how lucky I am not to have to live with the fear that the mothers of these boys and men have to live with every day. It's outrageous that the police in the United States should be feared by ANY law abiding citizen. It's unacceptable. We have too many poorly screened, poorly trained, and psychologically unfit police officers being poorly supervised by their administrations and too little outside oversight. We can do better. I could have never imagined that the hands of time would be turned back on our black men daily in America. We need every intervention possible for the Federal Government to address the police brutality and killings that take place too often in our society today. Please make your positions count in standing up for the rights of brown and black men all across America NOW? The sad thing is that police seem to be enforcing their power in our neighborhoods more frequently than ever, and if we don't stand up against the powers that be, who will? Sincerely, Ronald Lee

You didn't kill the man that shot up the people in the theater or at Virginia Tech but these young men had not killed anyone or made any gesture to do so and just because there is a "thought he had a gun" in their head, they are justified to kill them. The police departments need to be investigated and where shootings have happened disbanded and allow the people to govern themselves, because the government isn't doing a great job at protecting their people from anyone, not even diseases.

36351. I am sickened and disturbed by the brutal, violent, backwards, racist and subhuman behavior pulled by cops everyday, thankfully caught sometimes and brought to mainstream media. I want to see a police force that reflects the communities it serves, in terms of race, gender, religious persuasion, and sexual preference. I want to see a police force that believes in the goodness of people, one that sets an example for morality and encourages communities to take care of each other. We need to make some serious changes in the leadership of our police force. We also need to reform antiquated and life-ruining laws that put many to most black youth behind bars, ultimately creating more insecurity and violence in communities of color. Change is the responsibility of those in power and I expect our government leaders to take the time now to set some major changes in motion.

No matter how innocent or victimized you are, as a minority you are as much or more at risk of ending up arrested than the person responsible for the situation that prompted the call. It bothers me, though, that this petition ignores Native Americans as fellow victims. 36715. With the current escalation of public mistrust in police forces across the nation, it is only a matter of time before you have a much larger problem on your hands than the protests in Ferguson and St Louis. It is not the time to sit on your heels and pray this blows over. Now is the time for swift action. Bring it to the House and let the American people see on which side their representatives stand. Let us see where the President of the United States decides to stand.

Nothing has changed in the way they are handled by those who are paid to protect and serve. If you view a certain portion of the population as a threat, you create a threat and then go to extremes to protect everyone else from your creation. It starts with perception. 37189. Stop the killings of unarmed black youth. African Americans have been constantly suffering since the era of slavery. From forced labour to lynchings and hangings and now discriminatory killings from the men and women who are meant to protect them. It is fear that has led to this unspeakable evil and unless we all have an honest debate about this there will always be a race problem in America. The time has come for African Americans and other Americans to be fully intergrated into the society, to have the same opportunities as the rest and to feel safe walking in this country because the constitution guarantees them their freedoms and liberty.

The immigrants that cross the border get better treatment than the people born here. This country treatment of VETERANS is a disgrace. We all owe the men and women who went over to fight for freedom then come home to get spit on. SHAME ON THE UNITED STATES. I was always taught Charity Begins At Home! If any race is in Fear of their Life and use the Stand Your Ground Law it's the Black Race. If Blacks were shooting White youth, that law would be abolished. In 2010, as part of the UN review of US progress in its treaty commitments, the US promised to create " a comprehensive national work plan to combat racial discrimination." President Obama has since set up an Interagency Equality Working Group to implement these promises. The Sentencing Project has outlined a plan of action to do so. 37309. I am ashamed this kind of stuff still goes on in our country. I wasn't aware of racism as a kid and when I found out about it I was horrified--it is not a natural state of being. Children know better unless they are indoctrinated with fear from the adults around them of people of different cultures or superficial features like the color of peoples' skin. Our country is a beautiful mix of many different cultures under the banner of American. We should celebrate and embrace that. We should take care of all of our citizens equally. I remember crying as a child in school when I learned about how Christopher Columbus treated the American Indians when North America was "discovered" and again when I heard about slavery in the South. As an adult I found myself crying at the Rosa Parks museum and I can't believe that there is such a high level of violence and injustice against anyone still going on in our country. The government's role is to protect the people, inspire them to our highest shared ideals, and help us reach a collective well-being. This is obviously not happening for too many of us. I am a young Caucasian woman who is deeply disturbed by the facts of violence against minorities in our country. The US, which claims to lead the way in the world in so many admirable ways, is so far removed from what it preaches on this subject that how can I be anything but ashamed and angry about it? We need to hold ourselves to higher standards and injustice by our own government must be righted. I watched an African American man with all the dignity and respectful attitude you would expect of anyone who believes in the importance of being a good person tell a terrifying story about a recent encounter he and his family had with a police officer when he was pulled over. He was on his way to, I believe it was his father's funeral, with his nieces in the backseat and all dressed as nicely as you would expect anyone to be when headed to such a somber event in their lives. He was pulled over by a police officer on the road in rural Louisiana. He had the air conditioner blasting on high since it was summer in the South and he had small children in carseats in the back, and he waited for a very long time for the policeman to come to the car. He talked about how as a black man he has, for safety reasons, gotten into the habit of putting his wallet on the dash as soon as he is pulled over so he is not mistaken for reaching for a gun when he gets his driver's license from his pocket to show the police officer. Why should anyone have to be taught to do that? Eventually he looked over his shoulder and saw the police officer with his gun aimed at him shouting obscenities and for him to get out of the car--which he could not hear over the air conditioner. He carefully got out of the car with his hands up and luckily got through the situation alive so he could attend his relative's funeral. That would never happen to me... It's hard to fathom. He explained how one of the problems here was that the officer lacked in training. For instance, why couldn't he have used his PA system to make sure he was heard if the driver wasn't responding in a timely manner? That is a small but simple thing that can be taught right now and perhaps save lives. If you have been in the South during the summer you would understand that you can't have small children in a hot car even for five minutes in the sun--it is dangerous and kids die of heatstroke that way. We have all surely heard stories of that happening. This gentleman said something else that made my blood run cold and his story reflected: as a black man, the most dangerous time in your life is when you are pulled over by a police officer--you do not know if you will make it out of the situation alive. How can this be? I was so far taken aback I wanted to move to Canada. I am serious; I am so ashamed of what is happening to my co-citizens that I don't want to be an American if that's a part of any of our lives. This has to be addressed. We can't call ourselves a leader in human rights if our own citizens might be killed by our own police force over a misunderstanding and a few miles over the speed limit. And just like young men in general are pulled over more than women (something my brother was talked to about as a teenager with a new license--"don't speed, you will probably get a ticket even if your sister might not") black men not only have to deal with that but also with the added warning "and you might not make it back home to me at all, son." How is that even happening in our country? It must be a priority of our government to have our police officers, whose duty is to keep our citizens safe, properly trained to do their job correctly. And we must uproot all causes of this dangerous environment in which innocent people are unfairly targeted and injured, or even killed. Many of these situations are things that would never happen to me or my family members. And such a minor event in my life like being pulled over for speeding doesn't carry the burden of any fear other than possibly having to pay a fine-- and it shouldn't for anyone. Prejudice, hatred, irrational fear, and acts performed out of those places must be abolished, because it tears our nation apart, makes us weaker, and unravels the goodness and moral fiber in all of us. We make it a huge priority to help spread democracy in the world and denounce human rights violations in foreign countries. Where is the same attention and resources for human rights in our own country? When will that become a priority? The American people voted for an African American President. We obviously want all our citizens treated fairly and believe in the inherent worth of all our people. If not now, when will this be addressed? And if not by you, then who will take on this cause and protect the people from the very institution that is supposed to protect them? This is a defining moment of our character as a nation. Do we care about our citizen's safety, or do we continue to neglect a fundamental problem in our own police force? Do we let the majority speak for the minority and protect them from rampant abuse and actively abolish it, or do we ignore it and fail in our attempts to be leaders and role models in the world? Which is it? Who and what do we stand for? One nation, indivisible? We are tearing ourselves apart. It must be stopped. Hateful and misguided practices must come to an end for us to create a safe, bright and promising future. I am not finding a Canadian to marry, although it is tempting for reasons I have expressed in my plea to you that we address this severe problem in our nation. Instead I am inviting you to work on this problem and create a solution we can be proud of--give us all something to love about our country. We have done it many times before; we recognize injustice and we dismantle it. That is the role we seem to have chosen for ourselves in the world so let's embrace our ability to make lasting change. Let's return to our best qualities. Let's take the momentum we gained when as a nation our attention has been brought directly to this problem and make good use of our awareness. In the presidency of our first African American leader, let's take on this challenge and win. Let's make significant progress. Let's give ourselves something to be proud of again and turn our shame into pride because we have chosen to no longer let this issue traumatize families across America. Let's show in the history books a legacy of enlightenment--let our children read about the progress we have made in the way we treat people and not leave kids crying over repeated stories of violence, abuse, and oppression. Let history celebrate our actions and give our kids something to be proud of and not grow up like me wondering how we can be so backwards about how we treat each other. I believe in our ability to do this because we have overcome so much in our collective history. Let's do it again. Rally together and create great change. Let's grow in our compassion and commitment to the common good, both as a nation and as individuals. Let's lead from the highest good within us and create a legacy of goodness. The more we do at home, the more effective we can be in the world. Especially when we have more healthy citizens who are given the potential to become their greatest selves and not robbed of it through fatal encounters with our police or through fear and oppression. Let us together create the shared opportunity for all of us to live up to our highest potentials. With respect and belief that our highest nature can always prevail, I thank you kindly for listening, 37316. As a Black man in America, I'm tires of being constantly profiled. At my age and education level, I'm better at handling this indignity, but it's no less of an indignity. It's time that being born Black could be a death sentence when encountering a "peace officer" that had a sworn duty to protect me, not profile me. If police officers are so afraid of elder Black women and teenagers, that they need to shoot them, then perhaps they really need to find another line of work. Why is it that a white teenager can KILL people with an automatic in a movie theater and walk out alive with the weapons and Black UNARMED men and teens are routinely executed by the police???

This act can possibly wake up our black nation bringing unity and hope to our people. Especially in the southern slave states. A man without hope will perish. I wrote our president about the abolishment of the Jim Crow Law. This is the twenty first century . Just like the senator in crying reds who is 91 years of age Jim Crow activist this was going on in his time. The Jim Crow politics with the slave owners mentality. 37732. I feel as a black young lady,and as a law student that there are a lot of crimes that's being committed towards blacks and those crimes have gone unnoticed, and without any puniss. Some are claimed to be accidental, others have evidence but claimed not to have enough evidence to convict a person,personally as a mother and as a black woman,also as a human it hurts and breaks my heart . No justice has been served, as a nation that portrays as to be a leader of security, or highly safe that other countries look up to for the better opportunities, but justice system is messed up,it isnt right what's going on. Racism it still going on no matter what happens it'll never go away at all. And it fees aa if black people lives aren't as important ,i am sick and tired of hearing,or seeing the news that my people are getting hurt.

37875. We must remember the wise teachings of the past, "A house divided cannot stand". We must find justice for all citizens in our communities, regardless of color, race or creed. We must become the "one nation, under God, with liberty and justice for all" that we purport to be. I am a white Senior who has abhorred racism since my childhood in Texas. I now have a precious Black grandson whom I adore. I worry daily of what lies ahead for him as he reaches his teens in our "melting pot, land of the free". Racism and police bullying and murdering must stop. I call upon all those in government from the local, state and national to intervene and do whatever is necessary to end this abomination.

Also issue by executive order all law enforcement at all levels must wear cameras even when moonlighting as private security. Includes all federal, state, county and city law enforcement. Also provide "whistle blower protections" against retaliation to public complaints, and employee complaints, like the VA recently implemented.Also give the Justice Department Authority to immediately fire and prosecute any law enforcement officer engaging in any misconduct, abuse of power, and brutality especially resulting in loss of limbs or life. 38718. Demilitarizing the police can happen if the Federal government leads the way in downgrading drug crimes. Nonviolent offenders should not be subject to the violence of "No Knock" SWAT teams invading their homes and killing and injuring their children. People walking on the street or driving their cars should not be subject to stop and frisk procedures in search of recreational amounts of drugs. How does this not create a more dangerous work environment for our men and women in uniform? This has got to stop. Two lives are ruined when one is taken; that of the deceased and that of the person who must now live with the reality of having taken a life. It also devastates families and communities and ensures a perpetuation of distrust. We need this. Let's be clear these laws are not in history books, nor will you find them being uttered or honored in respect. We must speak out in protest to voice no injustices go unresolved. 39211. I'm seventy-one and have seen and lived through the evolution of a troubled civil-rights policy. Even though there has been progress, there is still a massive under-current of racism. Often, this under-current takes on the mantle of full, uncloaked racism. I grew up in the '50s and '60s in the South. I also know many people in the North who, just like Southerners, can cough up a healthy wad of racism at the drop of the hat. This has to STOP! Enough is enough!

39239. Although many police do their jobs and put their lives on the line every day to keep our communities safe, there are obviously those who whether for racial incentives, or lack of training, use their authority for abuse. The Mike Brown incident is a horrifying example, not only of police overreach, but of lack of proper respect and openness from the community officials tasked with keeping the rule of law. In the absence of of responsibility from these officials, it seems that some greater power needs to fill the breech. The fact that this is only one of many such incidents around the country which happen to be recorded on video tape, should remind us all that this issue is bigger than just Ferguson Missouri. And that should urge us all to action.

39278. Racial profiling affects all of us.

Discrimination against one group is discrimination against all groups. As a person with an autism-spectrum disorder, I could be falsely-accused of a crime the police already know I didn't commit and forced into a false confession by mental, possibly, physical coercion. I know it CAN happen because police will take advantage of peoples' disabilities to try to get a confession to make it look like they are doing their job. People with Aspergers like I have are usually hard put to find advocates because too many people think those of us with Aspergers are all Adam Lanza types.

track statistics. Second, pass a law demanding a minimum two year law enforcement training program that includes drug & mental health behaviors, cross-cultural sensitivity and awareness, factors related to domestic and child abuse, homelessness, risks with tasers, choke holds and related uses of force and alcoholism. In addition, there should be a requirement to annually update weapons practice and certification. These requirements should be in addition to training as an 'intern' along with studies in criminal justice & criminology. Society has become more complex and police training needs serious overhaul.

People learn to be violent when they are very young... and as a culture, too many people do not cultivate the skill of non-violent communication while addressing the basic and real needs of all people. It is way past time to address this issue. Police should be friendly neighbors, not thugs loaded with military weapons and guns. How can we respect the so-called guardians of our community if they kill, shoot on sight, and are never held accountable? We don't need a police like that! 40039. our country seems to be out of control in areas that are very alarming to say the least. Police brutality & arming our police with military equipment - what next a lock down of ones community until police have the pay scale they want ect. Ect. I have a second bogus speeding ticket & this one

I'm headed to court on & then we'll see if the justice dept. is part of the sham. I use to feel being from America was an impressive thing to be able to say. Silence - I use to be from The Good OLd USA but she's almost out of sight now --& believe me it's NOT that they haven't tried to silence me, justice in America has been going down hill for a long time. Took a law class & when the dubj. Of Ethics came up it got a good chuckle & the lawyers of today moved on to the next subj. SAD!!! BUT REAL!!!!! & I would put my last dollar on the last women lawyer I had proved it beyond a reasonable doubt - police - are bedfellows w/the justice groups - can't touch one without getting the other group too!!! 40186. Police brutality is indicative of a police state, not a democracy. America is not Zimbabwe. Police need to be properly trained in how to interact with civilians, given racial integration lessons so they become less fearful and quick to shoot, and taught how to interact with dogs so that they don't shoot pets. All these are signs of an inadequately trained police force.

40269. Black oppression is an American tradition. Demonizing black, indigenous, Hispanic, and poor is part of the tradition. But, for centuries, the devaluing of black people is the leading method the 1% uses to keep us divided. They want us to be violent. They know how to deal with that, and will continue to provoke us to use violence to answer theirs. We are learning better. No matter what color, creed, or nationality, we are all brothers and sisters. Our blood is red, our hearts will not be broken, our spirit will not be stolen as long as we come together with love, understanding, and fierce determination.

40472. When I worked as an insurance fraud investigator, many of my colleagues were former police officers: I was surprised at the degree of open racism they often expressed. At the time, I ascribed it to their having worked in areas where they were exposed to the most negative side of minority groups; but now I wonder--is there some sort of inherent prejudice that directs people toward law enforcement as a career? I was very successful in my job, and I approached every interview with the assumption that the claimant was innocent until proven guilty. Not only did I save my company a lot of money by exposing fraud, I believe I retained many customers who appreciated being treated with respect regardless of their ethnicity or circumstances. I see no reason why this open-minded attitude can't be instilled in our police; and those who are unable to be fair-minded should look for other jobs.

40606. There is no excuse for the number of stop and frisk events to which black men are subjected and there is even less excuse for the number of times these incidents result in the victim of this abuse being shot and often killed. Most police forces do not require military equipment to do their jobs and should be barred from its possession. And for the few that do require such equipment, they must undergo annual training and be allowed to deploy this equipment only with the approval of the governor of the state in which the police force is located. Finally this equipment should be stored at a national guard armory not subject to police jurisdiction.

40630. Inexcusable criminal acts by police and their coverups need to be criminally prosecuted. A democracy simply cannot be lived with an out-of-control, hyper-militarized, police force who view the public--especially certain members of the public-- as enemies requiring violent control tactics. Law enforcement in this country has devolved into crazyland--where police get beat, humiliate, rape, and murder without so much as a second glance from the so-called justice system. We are in a very sick and dangerous dynamic. Police need to stand down and get rid of the swat team mentality, cleanse their departments of the violent whack jobs that so love these positions. BTW....white woman in 60s here.

40631. in my 24 years of life I have witnessed countless young men become the victims of police brutality. I am often afraid for the present and future lives of the black men in my family as well as my community. I do not want to see another black man die simply because of the color of his skin. We need to see a change in police departments across the country. Racism is a learned behavior that can be fixed. It is going to take a lot of hard work and dedication but it needs to be done in order for black men to survive in society.

40660. Racism- the legacy of slavery- is our American shame- a holocaust that continues to be inflicted on a lot of our citizens 150 years after the sin of slavery was ended, and that infects even those to whom we entrust the enforcement of our laws. We must end that and ensure that our laws are enforced without bias, and even worse, the use of potentially lethal brutality. We need the Federal government to take the lead in ensuring that our laws are enforced fairly, equitably, and with respect for all.

I am still very concerned about these deadly travesties on life and civil liberties and the erosion of our law enforcement and justice systems. Denial can only lead to greater erosion. Even as a white person who has not experienced what many minorities have experienced, I am very saddened by the harsh and deadly events escalated by those who perceive some people as inferior in mind and heart. How many young black men have to be killed by these white police, if they was telling the truth about this murder, the report would be out, this DA is pertecting this cop, and why is it legal for an off duty officer to shoot 17 times and kill a man, that young man I don't believe he had a gun, and all they had to do his put the drop gun in his hand to have the gun residue, police have been doing this for ever, six minutes before in a store they had no gun, this officer is lying as well, off duty officers should not be aloud to stop or be involved with citizens, in less it is a major emergency, you know like car accident, bank hold up, not because someone looks like they are up to something.

40732. Even before the tragic events in Ferguson, it has been evident that our police, jails and schools are becoming more and more aggressive and militaristic. Children in school are being punished to excess. Police and guards act with violence and impunity. This is not the America that exists in our hearts and minds. We see widespread discrimination by police officers. Even "privileged white people" mostly understand that African American parents have to have a "talk" with their kids simply to explain how to try to avoid racial discrimination. This is not OK. This is not the America we are trying to build together. We will not relent until there is racial, economic, religious and gender equality for all. A

That phrase no longer makes any sense. The people who are tasked with protecting us... they do not protect. They have so blatantly taken it upon themselves to become judge, jury, and executioner. 41553. there are many good, honorable, morale, ethical police officers. there are also those that are drawn to the job of law enforcement by the need for power over their fellow man. It seems that the police get away what would be Murder if a normal citizen shot an unarmed person. But because they are the police all they have to say is I thought they were reaching for a weapon therefore I thought my life was in danger and poof it is considered a justified shooting. The law enforcement community should be under more scrutiny instead of less. They should held to a higher standard not a lower standard. As far as I am concerned any shooting of an unarmed citizen is Murder or @ the very least manslaughter and the perpetrator should be charged with the appropriate crime and prosecuted. this is the only way we will put a stop to it.

41640. Dear President Obama Administration, the Department of Justice, the Department of Defense and the Department of Homeland Security: I am writing to demand your leadership and intervention in addressing the nationwide crisis of police brutality. Every day, the lives, safety, and freedom of Black and brown youth and adults are threatened by discriminatory and violent policing tactics. Law enforcement kill Black Americans at nearly the same rate as Jim Crow era lynchings. The federal government has a clear role to play in overturning the conditions that led to these tragedies and setting a higher standard of policing across the country. The standards, policies, and practices of the executive branch set the tone and tactics of local and state law enforcement. The integrity of America and our criminal justice system must be restored. I urge you to take definitive and immediate action, including but not limited to the following reforms: •A fully-resourced and rigorous civil rights and criminal investigation by the DOJ into discriminatory policing, excessive force, and death or injury by police in every state in the country; •A comprehensive, streamlined, public national-level database of police shootings, excessive force, misconduct complaints, traffic and pedestrian stops, and arrests, broken down by race and other demographic data, with key privacy protections, the exclusion of personally identifying factors and information, and deportation immunity for civilians. •Mandating of Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission (POST) in every state and inter-state coordination between all POSTs. •An executive order that creates a strong and enforceable prohibition on police brutality and discriminatory policing based on race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, immigration status, disability, and housing status. •Increased funding for the DOJ's Office for Civil Rights to ensure additional, accessible state-level responders for police and other civil rights violations Divestment of federal anti-drug grants and federal funding for police departments that demonstrate abuse of power and massive reinvestment in community controlled and based policing practices. •Support for the passage of the End Racial Profiling Act (ERPA) •Streamlined national use of force matrix and mandating that state and local police have clear and streamlined matrices. •Strict limits on asset seizure without due process and the transfer of any military equipment to local law enforcement under the 1033 program, guidelines that ensure that the equipment is not used on non-violent protesters, and an end to the requirement that such military weaponry is used within a year. Sincerely, Dellgratia Nichols 41700. I'm a Caucasian woman, mother and grandmother, educated and employed. I'm also deeply concerned about the number of African-American youths who are being gunned down throughout the United States. We do not want to live in a country where this is allowed to occur, with little or no accountability, especially if the perpetrators happen to be police officers. Along with my stance against many of our gun laws, I'm equally concerned about the way our justice (or injustice system) helps maintain a culture of tolerance of violence towards African-Americans, women and children.

41719. There are far too many "questionable" situations taking place in the black community that leave behind tears and heartache and loss. The police have a very challenging job and I admire much of the work they do. I recognize their lives are often at risk and I genuinely appreciate their sacrifice. But the kinds tragedies and near tragedies that are coming to the surface that have been taking place in the black community for far too long,make clear that there are patterns of blatant and hostile discrimination that require decisive and just action from the government and the community...of all colors. Black life cannot be devalued. Black children cannot grow up in a country that tells them their lives are expendable and white children need to see that black children are valued as well or they will grow up with skewed and distorted attitudes towards them. Don't let this moment in time pass without making it count!

41748. We need to change our norms in this country to freeing ourselves of racism, recognizing it, naming it when we see it, and interrupting it before still more incidents like in Ferguson happen again there and elsewhere. I live in Portland, OR, a town famous for police killing people of color and nothing happening to the police who did it when it is clear to all that it was an unjustified response based on racist assumptions. We need out country's norms to change to the point where racism is no longer tolerated and everyone is outraged when it happens, not just the individuals in the minority group affected and their allies. Everyone needs to be educated about racism so it stops. This will permit all people in this country to succeed and add to the collective wealth, success, and progress of our country. Curing our racist ways will offer hope for all of us. Until this happens, we still disenfranchise massive numbers of our citizens who are more likely to be imprisoned and/or disabled as a result rather than be able to help the whole. Let's end racism and as a result, get out of the way of people succeeding, and support them in doing so. End racism as a tolerated policy within the police and the legal system. Thank you.

41767. There are many petitions all for good causes. For me, as for probably most Americans, the top priority right now is the safety and security of our citizens. In the media, security is described as if it means only the threats that come from outside. But Ferguson is a reminder—only one of very, very many—of the threats to our citizens' safety that our own institutions create or tolerate. Our policing and justice systems are designed to protect us all, but clearly also threaten American lives and the quality of lives. Unlike some other threats, these are completely under our control. We must not ignore them as if they were not security concerns for Americans. They continue to harm more people than any of the other threats we list.

If police treated everyone with dignity and respect when they are not in crisis, they could trust and citizens could trust. Right now there are many racist policemen in our country. As with many institutions of our country, there must be a complete evaluation and overhaul of type of people we have policing our nation. The laws that were written; that this system follows, were not written to protect us and need to be changed to reflect equality for all citizens. Money should not be the critical issue as to whether justice is served. Because, right now all that is being served is US (Black Americans). ENOUGH! WE are humans with a history and a legacy too. Stop targeting us! Change whatever needs to be changed to bring about equal justice for all people. 41819. We understand that criminals and criminal behavior cannot be allowed to go unpunished. That we must yield ourselves to the laws of the land like everyone else, the same as those who speed, or park illegally or commit any other misdemeanor crime but to have to fear for your life because of that and because of the color of your skin is insane! Our government has an obligation to yield itself to the will of the people and in this case we oblige them to CEASE AND DESIST this targeting of our people forthwith!!!

41880. When racism is allowed to proliferate, everyone suffers. UNWARRANTED police BRUTALITY MUST END! We have seen example after example of the police OVER REACTION to PEACEFUL PROTESTS. The DOD is complicit in that it GIVES excess military equipment to police departments. Eric Holder went to Ferguson to investigate. What has happened to that investigation? We will never know because Holder has NOW tendered his resignation. MORE AND MORE, the US is becoming a GESTAPO STATE (look up gestapo to see what I mean). I just signed a petition which supports PEACEFUL protest in HONG KONG, yet, in the US, we need a PERMIT to have a demonstration. POLICE are ALWAYS overwhelmingly armed in riot gear, shooting "rubber bullets" at demostrators, using tear gas and percussion bombs on demonstrators and GENERALLY there to SUPPRESS and THWART the citizens CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT to assemble. 41941. All citizens of this country have a right to medical care. The police of Ferguson violated all of Mike Brown's civil rights Refusing to allow an ambulance remove his body, but leaving him on the street for hours as if he was a dead animal was inhumane. Police don't have the right to determine how and when a person's deceased body should be handled. Mike Brown had a right to an ambulance and medical pronounciation of his death. If this type of police conduct is not checked, there will be continued police disrespect of Black People's civil rights. was a dead animal was one of many violations of his civil rights. Police don't have the right to decide who is dead and leave aperson in the street like a dead animal. People in this country will rush to the rescue of a dead animal and provide emergencycare, but many showed no alarm to how the police treated this human being. This isdisturbing, because the police are viewing this as support. If police brutality is not addressed, we will become a police state sooner than we think. the right to pronounce a person dead.

I would like to know my children, grandchildren and decendants will live in a world that doesnt judge them by the color of their skin. 41959. Something has to change. All of our police forces across this nation MUST follow uniform standards with regard to use of force. The Federal Government must stop militarizing our police and put protections in place so that minorities are no longer abused or killed. Reforms, laws and regulations will help, and returning to community policing wherein police are out on the beat in all local communities is, in my view, another answer to this issue that must be considered.

I am a 73 yr old white male from a city with a low population of African Americans. My demographic has many who are committed to justice and an end to irresponsible policing the is focused on young men of color. 42026. I have always had friends who are part of many races and cultures. An African-American former student of my mother was arrested for stealing his own car. This later mysteriously resulted in charges of a candy store robbery (said store did not exist), and was only rescued from illegal incarceration when my parents contacted Civil Liberties for an attorney. (He later became my foster brother, as his incarceration left him without home or employment.) Several friends have been stopped for DWH (Driving While Hispanic). This includes fellow professionals who just happened to be the "wrong" color. Too many people of color are arrested for not being "white." We must protect ALL Americans, not just the majority. 42075. The brutal actions of the Police are intolerable. I am a 55 year old white woman and I don't feel safe! The police have been brutalizing people of color mostly, but if they are not safe none of us are really safe! I have been the victim of bullying by cop! I have had Police point guns at me, for no good reason! I feel traumatized! I live in Public Housing so the Police definitely treat us differently! I don't feel that is right that we all have to be in fear! I had a mentally ill person make a false statement to the Police. Even though I was not breaking any law, and clearly had every right to be there, I still felt menaced! This cop knew I was unarmed, never been arrested, and 55 years old! He still seemed like he would have tazed or shot me if I sneezed! I do not like being in this position of fear, or having to calm down an armed Police Officer! I have seen the videos of women my age being tazed, shot and beaten for no apparent reason! I know some cops enjoy the feeling of power over another person! They should be weeded out! The Officer I felt threatened by had been arrested for shooing firearms while drunk! I have never been arrested! I don't shoot fire arms or get drunk either! I ma absolutely disgusted by these shootings of Black people! This is not the America I want to live in! I live near Albuquerque Nm, where we watched as the Police gunned down a mentally ill unarmed man! No one is safe! The Police are getting more belligerent, and militarized. I live in a pretty small town, yet the Police were staged for an invasion after a family oriented Local event! They were in full Military gear with military trucks! I had to walk past as I was leaving the event, they were shutting down at 5PM sharp! The year before 2 older people were dancing after the 5PM Curfew and were threatened! As I walked past the police in their riot gear, I felt intimidated, threatened and scared. I was not doing anything illegal, but I felt that anything might have set them off. I have PTSD so I was ready to hit the sidewalk! There was no reason whatsoever for the riot gear, it was just an intimidation tactic! This is America, we should have the right to attend a community event, Food Vendors and music with out fear of a Police shoot out! Many of these cops are afraid of their own shadows, and trigger happy! It is jus ta matter fo time before a car backfires or something scares them and they open fire! They have killed a few unarmed people in our town lately, a 78 year old man and a woman with a cell phone! Enough is enough! African Americans have it much worse, the trauma of living in fear has caused a lot of stress and problems for these people! It is a terrible feeling to have a gun pointed at you!, or knowing any innocent trip to the store could be your last! It is like living in a war zone with out the war! The Psychological damage is ignored! I am tired of it! As a 55 year old white woman, being threatened by police is disturbing! During the bullying incident I knew that one wrong word or gesture could have gotten me shot or tazed! The cop had an issue with me, possibly because I was taller, or maybe he did not like women! I can read people pretty well, so I know he would have liked to have caused me harm! He would have gotten some kind of kick out of tazing me! He seemed like a sadist, he would not hesitate to taze someone if he could get away with it! We have enough problems in this country with out Militarized out of control cops being part of the problem! The racism involved makes me sick! I remember the 60s, we should be living in a more evolved Society by now, but the opposite is true! This needs to stop! Police should be screened for Psychological problems! In Albuquerque the Cop that shot the Homeless man was bragging about it before he opened fire! It was disgusting, and it could have been any one of us! White wealthy people think they are immune, but if it could happen to a black kid in Ferguson, it could happen to anyone!

42282. The behavior of the police has not changed. They may have stopped shooting rubber bullets at protesters but continue to use real ones on young black men. They behave in a confrontational manner hitting the ground and their boots with their billy clubs in a threatening way against peaceful protesters. I can only conclude that the police are trying to incite the protesters to violence so that they can point to the consequences of their own actions as a defense for their past actions. Their behavior brings back foul memories of Kent State and Jim Crow. Enough. Fire the entire police force and do not rehire them for the new department this time! 42406. Dear Obama administration, the Department of Justice, the Department of Defense and the Department of Homeland Security: I am writing to demand your leadership and intervention in addressing the nationwide crisis of police brutality. Every day, the lives, safety, and freedom of Black and brown youth and adults are threatened by discriminatory and violent policing tactics. Law enforcement kill Black Americans at nearly the same rate as Jim Crow era lynchings. The federal government has a clear role to play in overturning the conditions that led to these tragedies and setting a higher standard of policing across the country. The standards, policies, and practices of the executive branch set the tone and tactics of local and state law enforcement. The integrity of America and our criminal justice system must be restored. I urge you to take definitive and immediate action, including but not limited to the following reforms: •A fully-resourced and rigorous civil rights and criminal investigation by the DOJ into discriminatory policing, excessive force, and death or injury by police in every state in the country; •A comprehensive, streamlined, public national-level database of police shootings, excessive force, misconduct complaints, traffic and pedestrian stops, and arrests, broken down by race and other demographic data, with key privacy protections, the exclusion of personally identifying factors and information, and deportation immunity for civilians. •Mandating of Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission (POST) in every state and inter-state coordination between all POSTs. •An executive order that creates a strong and enforceable prohibition on police brutality and discriminatory policing based on race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, immigration status, disability, and housing status. •Increased funding for the DOJ's Office for Civil Rights to ensure additional, accessible state-level responders for police and other civil rights violations Divestment of federal anti-drug grants and federal funding for police departments that demonstrate abuse of power and massive reinvestment in community controlled and based policing practices. •Support for the passage of the End Racial Profiling Act (ERPA) •Streamlined national use of force matrix and mandating that state and local police have clear and streamlined matrices. •Strict limits on asset seizure without due process and the transfer of any military equipment to local law enforcement under the 1033 program, guidelines that ensure that the equipment is not used on non-violent protesters, and an end to the requirement that such military weaponry is used within a year. Sincerely,

Jackie Jackson

This issue has been hidden to all but the affected community for too long. Now that it has been exposed, it would be great if the federal government could enact some reforms--including having an independent review of cases of alleged police brutality. (Isn't this an insidious version of a hate crime that warrants federal intervention?)

42633. Even in the Aloha State, Police brutality is common. On 9/26/2014, my son was in the shower when police came for a disturbance. He was arrested naked. He received lacerations to his head when police pushed him against the window outside of his apartment in order to handcuff his hands behind his back. They dragged him downstairs naked. He pleaded with Police to allow him a towel to wipe up his blood and to put on clothes. Instead, he was tazed and woke up in the ambulance, bloody, bruised and naked. We were lucky this time. They did not kill my son.

42639. You came on behalf of my slain brother in law, Leonard Truss, to talk about how we can improve the lives of these black girls and boys and keep them safe. Now, CPD is continually leaving their respective posts near my son;s grandmother's house in order to protect the family from gun violence. However, each and every time some boys come over by the house to shoot at my famiyl members the police and security guards all leave and pull off. Funny thing that each and every time there is a shoot out they are no where to be found; 62 shell casings where found n the corner one day when they tried to kill my son's 18 y/o uncle. All I ask for is the same legal protection or even lack of it for all parties involved. It seems like the police want my family to die. And the more I speak up and protect against the gross lack of action by the police the more it seems like the police are retaliating. I just need my son and daughter's already small family to LIVE.

43250. If not now, when? Our children cannot afford to wait for change, too many lives have been lost already. I pray for unity and equality for all, but the sad reality is that racism still exists. Law enforcement officers are not exempt or immune from this disease. Unfortunately, too many times these officers are protected when lines have been crossed and lives have been senselessly taken without repercussion or consequence. There needs to be a dialogue that will allow for input and ideas in order to effectively bring about change. Not change for some but change for all. While I do not believe that ALL law enforcement officers participate in this type of dangerous and racist behavior, I've seen in my life a fair amount that do. THIS MUST CEASE! There has to be change. If not now, when?

All the witnesses and all the facts what more do they need. Also I would recommend to people and particularly people of color that whenever these things occur in our communities that you should remain silent until you have obtained proper legal representation, STOP TALKING TO THE MEDIA FIRST, this affords people the opportunity to now what you know and affords them the opportunity to get their story together based on what you are saying. That needs to stop. People of color need to know the responsibility they have to each other and to themselves when they are witnesses in these situations.

Retrain cops, other authorities, and the Justice system. How many more decades (centuries) does the African American population endure unequal justice and racism? Please President Obama, I beg you to set in motion change in our country so that African Americans enjoy the pleasures and justice that the White community rarely ever has to experience. I am white, for decades I never understood what African Americans had to deal with virtually every day of their lives. My best friend is African American and I consider her the only friend in my entire lifetime that I can truly stay I trust her implicitly. There are many who fall into this category, but are treated like 2nd class (or less) citizens. This is a huge problem in our country and absolutely must be dealt with on many levels. 43478. It is reprehensible that policing should operate on a presumption of guilt that empowers them to harass and abuse citizens without consequence. fear and entitlement charaterize law enforcement conduct as the norm. worse, the pervasive injustices and basic human rights violations our non-white comrades endure must be addressed. Institutional changes must occur. Non-law enforcement oversight with legal authority must be effected locally and state-wide. Further, there must be a fundamental change in policing practices to reverse the aforementioned default presumption of guilt made by officers.

That would impress on cops the idea that killing people is bad and should be avoided when possible. That way, cops would think twice before killing someone. Police violence has been a problem in many places I've lived. I've been harassed and robbed by cops before, and I know police violence is much worse for Black people. It's continued prevalence shows that we do not really live in a free society, despite all the patriotic boosterism on tv and in elections.

The gunning down of unarmed people is inappropriate whether at Kent State, in Ferguson, on the border between Mexico and the USA, (has there ever been a shooting at the border of Canada and USA?), or anywhere in the USA. When the "cop killer" was on the loose two females who were in a vehicle that looked like the "cop killer" was in was filled with bullets seriously injuring one of the women. This type of inappropriate use of violence should be dealt with by firings, prosecutions, and commitments to rethink how our police forces deal with our citizens.

43842. Every one of us needs to be able to rely on police who believe in "Protect and Serve" and whose culture and leadership doesn't allow bullies, racists, misogynists, and misfits in the ranks. We need police leadership at all levels who promote hiring good, psychologically healthy individuals, and who insist on keeping good officers and getting rid of bad ones. And if this requires Federal oversight because the other multitudes of jurisdictions can't handle it, then that's what we need.

43926. To all parties of concern, I want you to know that I witnessed this first hand for 5 years living in the St. Louis area. And not just in predominantly Black areas, but in predominantly white areas where black students came into the schools through the voluntary transfer system. These kids had to get up and be on a bus at 6-6:30 am to get to the school by 7:30 am, be in classes for 7 hrs and then have another hour+ commute back home. Some of the kids stayed for after school sports activities and contributed to the extra-curricular programs there. This is how they were " rewarded ". Many of the black students sat on the bench during the games and when they asked for assistance with this problem were told it wasn't happening like that. Some of the teachers comments to or about the kids: " I have a whole classroom full of unmotivated students", " I just don't like them", They lower our MAPP scores" , " Your jeans only cost $10 from Walmart and mine cost $ 40, so if i can get paint on mine, you can get paint on yours"- art teacher to kid in front of class when kid asked for something to cover her clothes while painting. The single most egregious act came from the principal himself. He was documenting everything that a black young man was doing with the purpose of building enough of a case against him to have him removed from the school. He was under the microscope in a way that was intimidating, demeaning, and embarrassing to the kid. He had been looking at some girls while they went by the area he was in, he had not said or done anything inappropriate, I know because I was with him. The next thing we knew we were summoned to the principal's office, not knowing why. The principal told him there had been complaints about him "looking at girls" Then he said " It used to be that black mothers taught their sons to keep their eyes lowered. " Emmett Till ran through my mind and I wondered if we'd stepped through a time warp to 1950's Mississippi. I was in shock, and the kid didn't even respond to him. When I shared what had happened with my so called " colleagues" they had a "so what? " attitude. I called the ACLU, but they couldn't take the case. It was devastating. But the worst of it was that not long after this the kid, and I'm just referring to him as such because I don't know if he would want his name used, got into some legal trouble and all of the " documentation" on him that the school had stockpiled was used against him when he was in court to determine if he should be tried as an adult for a non-violent crime. He had a lousy public defender who never even spoke to me before the hearing, but his parents knew I'd advocated for him and asked me to testify on his behalf because they knew he's been racially profiled. He tried to explain what had happened to him at the school, that he had been singled out by a racist school, but he was just a 16 year old kid, originally from Kinloch. His parent had moved to Valley Springs in the hopes of a better life and education for their children. Only to meet with racial hatred and a violence more dangerous than whatever they'd encountered in the community they'd left. I did testify on his behalf and I told them what the principal had said verbatim. The social workers and probation officers jaws dropped, as well as his parents. He had never told them about that because it had shamed him and I guess he didn't want to hurt his mother. It was heart and gut wrenching to see the effect it had on her, her husband and her son. But it didn't phase the judge for too long because he said the kid needed to be somewhere that he would "learn a lesson" and he was assigned to adult court. I met with him and his parents after the hearing and they said the judge had already made up his mind before I testified. I never saw him again but kept track of him over the years from a distance, I moved back to IL, happy to leave the Mississippi of the North. He was in prison the last time I checked and had been in and out of prison for most of the rest of his life over the past 12 years. What the school set in motion was the push into the prison pipeline. This is real, it is systematic, and it destroys real people's lives. I might not have believed it or understood it if i hadn't seen it with my own eyes. And this is just one scenario I witnessed and experienced in the 5 years I was there. And I'm Caucasian. I'm sure I would have witnessed and experienced a whole lot more if I were African American. The federal government needs to intervene and take over in the situation and legal systems in Ferguson, St. Louis, and Missouri and the much of the rest of the country as much now as it needed to intervene in Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, and the South in the 1950's and 1960's. The fact is, the need for intervention never went away. Please take action now!

43929. How many lives have to be taken? How many years have people of color had to be treated unfairly and discriminated against? It's more than overdue to investigate and hold accountable those who abuse their badge and position and feel justified in their brutality and profiling. STOP and DO WHAT IS RIGHT AND FAIR. REFORMS AND PROTOCOLS NEED TO BE FORMED AND UPHELD. It sickened me to see the force and hated towards this community of people. It also sickens me to have a community unfairly target the people with vehicle violations for the extensive profit money making for the county/city where Michael Brown lived.

We have several documented incidents of abuse of power two of which involves infants, one of which was a caucasian baby girl who died as a result of excessive force! We as people of color have been however subjected to this kind of abuse for centuries! Time for a change in policy! Innocent citizens are being subjected to this abuse of power! This is unacceptable and the President needs to use what power he has to stop it. The politics of corruption has allowed this to come to pass. We need to train the police force in areas of sociology so they can actually gain an understand on those they are supposed to be protecting and serving. Racism has fueled the past events against these innocent young black man, not the desire to protect and serve the Ferguson community. 44387. We are becoming a society and system that has begun to stop tolerating inhumanity: the abuse of women; maltreatment of the elderly; mistreatment of youth; challenging inequality; etc. Is it not time to take steps to prevent the death of the innocent (often on tape) by those who are hired and sworn in to protect and serve us? If a citizen is present when a friend commits a crime, they can be charged. Why is the person who takes a life or beats a citizen and those others present who are charged to protect and serve allowed to remain unaffected? Regardless of my ability to have liberty and the pursuit of happiness, will you at least prevent the repeated reality of certain groups to deprive me of my innocent life?

Gay human rights for marriage have been upheld and implemented and human rights for Black people still have not been meet yet! 44719. I was a COP for 3 years, back in the late 70s and as a rookie I was assigned to the squad of a great man, a beat up looking 6 ft 6 in retired Sailor. He taught me that cops are blue and people are who we protect no matter what the "paint job" they may have. I just wish that more like him could have taught more cops that lesson. The #1 thing he taught me was not to let my fear get in the way of treating everyone with respect until they proved that the individual in front of me was a danger to me or others. From what I see is that most cops who act badly are afraid for their lives... By the way I was raised in a KKK Household and that great man was black. Thanks Boats Watson! I wish we had more like you now. We, all of us no matter what "paint job" need to work to fix this problem of fear rules, it is killing to many of us.... Bonner 44779. I believe that police academy curriculums nation-wide should be studied to determine the character of training, particularly lethal force training, race relations training and community relations training, that police cadets are receiving. the federal government's Department of Justice should be the lead agency for this study. If study indicates that "them versus us" training is being provided, corrective reccommendations must be made. The control of the police must be put into citizens' hands.

Instead widening the gap of hatred of one another, I think it is requiring an effort in creating to have closer relationship of one another. At times there is a slogan, "More Police Officers on the Streets" that is puzzling to me. My taught, instead why not make an effort of educating the youth and the community at large to have a better relationship and understanding of one another. I find it harder and harder to believe that the U.S. and it's citizens can have the gall to consider ourselves to be the pinnacle of civilization, the model to which the rest of the world should aspire. There are elements of who we are and what we do that are barbaric. We are more a laughing-stock to our global cousins than the shining beacon of liberty. It's bad enough that leaders think that hiring ex-military as cops is a good idea (it isn't!), but they've then been given free reign to run roughshod over the very civilian population they are supposed to be protecting. In 2014, it is sad that there is still so much fear of these young men. Do people really just see a black face and equate that with dangerous criminal? How many more parents have to fear that the next time their son leaves the house to go to the store that it would be the last time they see him? I strongly urge you to immediately address this nationwide crisis of police brutality, or shall I say, police fatality!!! It's not even as if these young men are just being victimized, they're being killed...no questions asked!

Nor can it allow murderers to be treated with impunity, regardless of the rationalization for failing to hold them to account. Failure to acknowledge and act on either of these social priorities will ultimately threaten the very viability of the society, as a whole. So, if we care about the society that our children will inherit and have to live or die in, then we must act to bring this wholesale murder to a rapid halt and to hold those responsible to account.

45239. Police misconduct is an injustice to us all. We all watch primetime crime dramas on TV and movies that highlight the thin line between law enforcement and police brutality - but in reality, the difference is not that hard to tell, and these cases should be investigated the same way everyday people are prosecuted under the law - and regardless of any circumstance, police are not above the law. Police demand justice for crimes, which should include themselves. Our country demands justice for all, which includes all of us, people and police alike. Think about that while watching this episode of real life crime drama and ask yourself what you and all of us - police and legal officials included - are going to have to do in order to do justice to this. And if police and celebrities can be defended and justified in escaping verdicts and harsh sentencing that other people receive, then maybe we should change the law to be more humane and help all people who are prosecuted or convicted to rehabilitate, rebuild and get their lives back on track, too. Police, judges and politicians are not the law alone. We are all the law, and it is up to all of us to do it justice as well. The Civil Rights Movement lives today. It is past time to move it #forward...let's move it fast forward. #weshallovercome #sisepuede #Ferguson #HandsUp #STL #SF #ffwd #nojusticenopeace #UnitedWeWin

Let me no longer see U doing all these wicked things; quit your evil ways. Learn to do good, to be fair and to help the poor, the fatherless, and widows. Isa 1:23-25 [LB] Your leaders are rebels, companions of thieves; all of them take bribes and won't defend the widows and orphans. Therefore the Lord of Hosts .... says: I will pour out my anger on U, my enemies! I myself will melt U in a smelting pot, and skim off your slag. Isa 2:22 [LB] Puny man! Frail as his breath! 45725. As a law-abiding American (like Michael Brown and John Crawford, I might add), I demand that the militarization of our civilian police departments be stopped in its tracks. I also demand that police are trained to treat people

EQUALLY, no matter what their background. The police are supposed to serve US, not treat us like enemies. The COURTS are where the guilt or innocence of an alleged perpetrator is determined. NOT THE STREETS. Therefor, the POLICE are not there to judge the public, nor to mete out justice. That is the job of the judges and juries. Too many innocent people have been harrassed, injured and KILLED by policemen that act as judge, jury and executioner. This is America, and this must STOP!!

On Dec. 18 of this year slavery would have "officially" ended 149 years ago YET black people are still fighting for our RIGHT to live our lives as equal individuals in this country. It doesn't matter that we have a black president, racism is the core of this country. It is a problem that needs to be fixed. No mother should have to worry if their son or daughter will be shot down dead in the streets just because of the color of his/her skin. Far too many police shootings seem to, unnecessarily, result in the death of the law breaker - even when the person(s), obviously, pose little threat. 46207. I have read studies of human and police behavior which suggest that racial bias is baked into policing, particularly because individuals misperceive the threat posed by African Americans. Are young black men committing more violent crimes than white men? Is that why cops are killing them in far greater numbers compared to white men? Maybe. Maybe not. Most of the deaths were reported as "justifiable homicides", but I find that hard to swallow, given the current level of bias and corruption in the justice system.

I know not all cops are bad but if you keep letting these trigger happy cops get away with murder, hardly anyone will have respect for the police anymore. People will see cops as someone to fear, just like any other thug or criminal on the street, only worse since they are government sanctioned criminals. You must take positive action now, and hold these killer cops accountable, and send a message to police throughout the U.S. that they cannot continue to murder whoever they feel like or they will end up in jail where they belong. Shooting until you kill someone, to not have him giving his side of the story in court graduates you to a killer, not an officer.... 46769. I personally would like to see change involving race. Not just on the Caucasians part but on everyone's as a whole. We are all human beings anyway. And all humans aren't meant to look the same. That's what makes our species diverse and unique. In the end, when we pass away we'll have nothing. So entitlement to such things like who is supreme to whom is completely illogical and unnecessary as life is too short anyway. We as a species should value the aspect of life. Instead of taking it away from one another with all the crime and killings. We as humans should be proud to call ourselves just that; humans. Instead of being corrupt on material things and the insignificance of "racial supremacy". The truth: Minorities are being targeted and that gives the perception to the minority groups that the majority thinks it's superior. Meanwhile, the majority is targeting the minority groups (Example: Blacks and Hispanics) Because of how they are portrayed within our society. In the media, on TV, and so on. Everyone is at fault. It's not Caucasian, it's not African American. Everyone is entirely to blame. The first call to action would be to rid of how our minorities are depicted.

47197. Infamous worldwide now, our current status quo policing system continues to make a mockery of all American core values; Freedom, Liberty and Equality. Shameful state of affairs. Public servants in the USA ("officers of the Peace) are NOT above the law, but get away with acting as such. We have a very serious policing CRISIS, the entire world sees it and US Citizens unquestionably demand a unified and national action. Understanding this should have been addressed decades ago, it's very difficult (politically) to leave the clean-up to our first president of color's administration. However, we are fast losing respect on a major international level at a shocking rate, not only domestically. US Police conduct, as well as the "shoot first" mentality (and "laws" to promote it) a national disgrace, proving we're not only regressing with regards to civil rights and justice, but also being just about as far from being

"post racial" as we can get. Shocking to see such a lack of accountability; police have always, and should be great examples (traditionally) NEVER "above the law" protected above all others. From bad hiring to bad training, to criminally shooting US citizens dead (= murder at alarming rate), as well as their sense of entitlement is reaching epidemic proportions; horrific disgrace on an international as well as Nation level. I'm old now, grew up with "Cops on the beat" we knew and highly respected as role models, when we never heard of police shootings or let alone witnessing them shooting TO KILL on cell phone video; when was unheard of for a cop to shoot a "suspect" multiple times (to ensure DEATH once down!) instead of bringing them to proper trial (IF they are even proven to have acted illegally)!! THAT, this disregard for Life mentality, is NOT the USA I grew up in or the world has respected. It breaks my heart. We cannot teach Police are there to help and protect if one race is exempt. It is deplorable. Olden days cops knew our names. Nowadays we don't even hire a black cop in predominantly black neighborhoods - WHY? Inspire Children to want to grow up to be just like "Officer ___" like the old days. Police should be seen as friends, a comforting presence; equally for ALL kids in the US. The problems start with bad hiring. If the job is too "dangerous" for the applicant, they need NOT apply and should never be hired! It takes backbone and courage to be a good dedicated officer of the law, not secretly criminally minded, power hungry, trigger happy cowards who want to hide behind a badge, acting as a judge and jury so they can shoot and KILL people - "legally". The blame goes all the way around, congress included for this publicly funded system of zero police accountability - on the taxpayers dime. The racial and preferential treatment nurtures a dread dangerous spirit of "division", something our founding forefathers understood and fought against; the destructive power of "division" and how it can ruin our entire country. "United We Stand" is for good reason (though many 'reps" do not understand, or ignore that "politically inconvenient" forefather given TRUTH). The US status quo is severely hurting and hampering EVERY great police officer in the nation. Without action, fewer and fewer citizens of character will apply. We need to be rewarding good behaviors not covering up bad ones. Children DESERVE to have role-models and Heroes NOT be given corrupt senseless gutless KILLERS. Criminal minds will only grow up to apply. Huge assault on the fabric of the nation. PLEASE unite government to tackle this pressing and now urgent crisis. PLEASE read, and take the courageous long over-due and appropriate ACTIONS - now. Sincerely with gratitude, 47263. it`s not more accettible to have not just a disregards of police condocts, but to the point of killings spree machines, that a white cop can kill anybody and exspecially blacks and browns, all minorities, they have the arrogance that they can came in the middle of the night, breacking doors, windows, trowing granades, killing granmas, pops, moms, childrens babies, the homeless, the disables, the defenseless, the mentally ill, dogs, taking stuff from houses that doesn't even belong to them.and exspecially withauth any warranty. who are those crazy white deplorables, demonics, twested, sinisters, deranged, and the abominations of all society. shoot to kill? it`s what it is? torturing, traumatize, terrorize, brutalize innocents civilians, and not one day is passing by, that more incidents like this happens. those white escrements, racist, superhumans, disturbed, with the same caracteristics of a psychopaths/ sociopaths/ seriall killers, uneducated, on drugs, including some of those on steroids. we came to thispoint that we the people has to carry guns and abboudants ammonitions, for our sefty, for aur sef difence againt those white monsters, that are perpetrating murders to the people, for not apparent reasons, just because the color of the skin, this is pure slavery, the new norm, convenient to private corporations to make tons of money on the expenses of the innocent people, to soppress all of us, police is financed by the white disgusting banksters, corporations, federal reserve, the elites, the neocons, the Zionists. this is AMERICA! this is not GAZA! people in America or any other place in the world don`t have to feel fear, from any evel`s forces. those white deplorables cops are showing up to courts in front of judges, prosecuters, defendants, jurys, under OATHS, under god`s low, and lying, and lying, even if the devil, would have listen he would have taken them araund the corner of the courts house and burned them for compiting strongling to the god`s devil. this ugly trend has to stop, it cannot continue like that! we are in the imminent verge of total loosing our capacity for restrains, a civil society cannot be based on this ill mentality, I believe that before tomorrow will be a revolution. when people have being abused, and subjected to mistrust, manipolations, crashed to the point of no return, not hope and not desired of living, it will be a short time, that people will strike and strike hard. either there are with us, or against us.when the government and the police force are using acts of evil against the people, with provocations, instigations, and intimidations, brutality, terror, fears, torturing, brutilize people, people has to defend theselves from this evil`s behaviours, consequently they need guns and enough ammonitions, to kill for self difence. when government and criminals are the same. 47267. The list of people of color brutally and senselessly murdered for no apparent reason grows by the day. We all know and have heard of too many Sean Bell's, Michael Brown's, Trayvon Martin's. Black people are killed by police and law enforcement agencies at close to the same rate of lynching in a Jim Crow society. More white people do drugs in this country yet 90% of drug-related arrests are people of color. The black body is always already seen as animalistic, as criminal, as dangerous, and as wrong. If you're a black man walking down the streets you are assumed to already have a gun, to already be a member of a gang. Police brutality is very real and it is very racialized. Racism is very real and very evil and it requires your acknowledgement and your action so do something. We look to you, the government as our leader so take the lead. The time is now.

47271. Us blacks as a whole should stand our grounds and stop giving up. It seems like it is a plot to kill our young black males off and all the white race got to say is they feared for their life. We as the black race need to stop it now. Stand up blacks are we soon would be back picking cotton again.....

I am also a Victim and maybe going to jail for telling the "TRUTH" on October 22, 2014. The Judaical ./ Government is a closed Society that polices themselves and will go to any length to protect one another. There is nowhere that is arms Length protecting the public. I am trying to change that with ProSeAmerica.net - But, one person alone can start the change but, it takes all of us working together to make the change. jwg

We need more Black Men & Women that are intelligent to education and teach...when protesting about the injustice that is taking place. 48129. An absolutely horrible shooting in an area with a serious history of outright racism has brought attention to our need to oversee the process which is supposed to keep our citizens safe. History cannot be changed, niether can hurt be forgotten in a decade. We need to strive for ways to define how we all will be treated in this country. Particular zones cannot be allowed to be treated as exceptions where one life means less than another. Law enforcement is a serious position. It can in it's best moments allow as to leave feeling freer to strive and express ourselves. In the worst circumstances, it can have the opposite effect.

Taking a life should not be so easy and unquestionable. And it should not be easier to defend bad choices simply because one works north of the tracks or another south of some imaginary line. This is one country. Many of us will spend our lives moving from one place to another. Others may die where they are born. But we should be all know what expect when confronted by the law. This is why some sort of national oversight on our police forces can help bring all of us into a more productive, safe and prosperous future. It's not only a matter of civil rights, it's an investment that can improve the lives of our people so they can lead more productive lives which will also lead us into a more economically sound future as a nation.
