Recently, former state probation commissioner John O'Brien and two deputies were found guilty of mail fraud and racketeering by skirting their department's hiring process to favor candidates who were sponsored by state legislators and trading jobs for political support. After hearing this verdict would you say you are shocked, mildly surprised, or not moved much at all?

Recently, former state probation commissioner John O'Brien and two deputies were found guilty of mail fraud and racketeering by skirting their department's hiring process to favor candidates who were sponsored by state legislators and trading jobs for political support. After hearing this verdict would you say you are shocked, mildly surprised, or not moved much at all?
