Re: In re Radio Shack Corporation, Chapt. 11, Case No. 15-10197-KJC

Dear Mr. Morris

We are writing to express our support for the Texas Attorney General's Limited Objection to Sale of Personally Identifiable Information of One Hundred and Seventeen Million Consumers. As Texas' pleading explains, Radio Shack seeks to sell consumers' private information, including names, phone numbers, mailing addresses, email addresses, and in some instances activity data. This is information that consumers provided in reliance on the express privacy assurances that Radio Shack made. The Consumer Protection Division of the Office of the Maryland Attorney General (the "Division") shares Texas' concern that Radio Shack Corporation's sale of consumer Personally Identifiable Information is contrary to the representations the company made to consumers in its privacy policies. Such a misrepresentation would violate the Maryland Consumer Protection Act, Md. Code Ann., Com. Law §§ 13-101, et seq., which defines unfair and deceptive trade practices to include "any [f]alse, falsely disparaging, or misleading oral or written statement, visual description, or other representation of any kind which has the capacity, tendency or effect of deceiving or misleading consumers." Md. Code Ann., Com. Law § 13-301(1) (2013 Repl. Vol.). Accordingly, the Division agrees with Texas' objection to Debtor's Combined Motion for Entry of Orders: (I) Establishing Bidding and Sale Procedures; (II) Approving the Sale of Assets; and (III) Granting Related Relief (Docket No. 36), pursuant to which the Debtors seek to sell numerous assets, including consumer Personally Identifiable Information.

RE: In re: RadioShack Corporation, et al., Case No. 15-10197-KJC, pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware
Limited Objection to Debtors' Proposed Sale of Personally Identifiable Information

Dear Mr. Morris,

We have reviewed the Texas Attorney General's Limited Objection to Debtors' Sale of Personally Identifiable Information of 117 million consumers nationwide, filed on March 20, 2015 as Document #1393 in the above-referenced action (the "Limited Objection"). Our office fully supports the relief requested in your Limited Objection.

Through its online privacy policy, and the representative in-store privacy policies filed with your Limited Objection, RadioShack has represented to its customers that it won't sell their personally identifiable information. Contrary to those policies, RadioShack now seeks to sell personally identifiable information of its customers, which will likely include names, phone numbers, mailing addresses, e-mail addresses, and in some cases activity data, and such sale would violate the Nevada Deceptive Trade Practices Act. Among other deceptive trade practices, Nev. Rev. Stat. § 598.0915(5) prohibits false representations about the characteristics or benefits of goods or services for sale.

Dear Mr. Morris:

We have read the Texas Attorney General's Limited Objection to Debtor's Sale of Consumers' Personally Identifiable Information for 117 million consumers nationwide. The sale is to be held pursuant to Debtor's "Combined Motion for Entry of Orders: (I) Establishing Bidding and Sale Procedures; (II) Approving the Sale of Assets; and (III) Granting Related Relief (Docket No. 36) (the "Motion")". Debtors sought to sell Monday, March 23, 2015, numerous assets including consumer Personally Identifiable Information (PII).

Our office fully supports the relief requested in your Limited Objection. We believe that when a company obtains PII from a Colorado customer based on a representation that the PII will not be sold, Colorado Revised Statute § 6-1-105 (e) prohibits the sale of such information.

You are expressly authorized and encouraged to share this letter with U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Shannon who is hearing this matter on Wednesday, March 25, 2015.

Re: Support of State of Texas's Limited Objection to Sale of Personally Identifiable Information of One Hundred Seventeen Million Consumers, In Re Radioshack Corporation, et al., United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, Case No. 15-10197-KJC

Dear Mr. Morris:

We have read the State of Texas's Limited Objection to the Debtors' sale of Personally Identifiable Information for 117 million consumers nationwide, filed on March 20, 2015. [The sale is to be held Pursuant to Debtor's "Combined Motion for Entry of Orders: (I) Establishing Bidding and Sale Procedures; (II) Approving the Sale of Assets; and (III) Granting Related Relief (Docket No. 36)" (the "Motion") pursuant to which the Debtors seek to sell numerous assets including consumer Personally Identifiable Information (PII).]

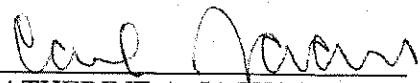

The Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia ("OAG") fully supports the relief requested in Texas's Limited Objection, as well as Texas's contention that the proposed sale of PII will violate applicable nonbankruptcy consumer protection laws. One such law is the District of Columbia's Consumer Protection Procedures Act. D.C. Code §§ 28-3901 et seq.

You are expressly authorized and encouraged to share this letter with U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Shannon, who will be hearing this matter on March 25, 2015.

RE: Limited Objection to Radio Shack's Sale of Personally Identifiable Information filed in U.S. Bankruptcy Court, District of Delaware, Case No. 15-10197

Mr. Morris:

The Office of the Idaho Attorney General has read the State of Texas's Limited Objection to Debtor's Sale of Consumers' Personally Identifiable Information for 117 Million Consumers (Dkt. No. 1393) filed in the above-referenced case on March 20, 2015.

The Limited Objection seeks to prevent the sale of the personally identifiable information of 117 million consumers contemplated in the Debtor's Combined Motion for Entry of Orders: (I) Establishing Bidding and Sale Procedures; (II) Approving the Sale of Assets; and (III) Granting Related Relief (Dkt No. 36). The contemplated sale appears to directly contradict the privacy policy the Debtor expressed to consumers that personally identifiable information would not be sold. Such actions constitute an unfair and deceptive act or practice, in violation of the Idaho Consumer Protection Act, Idaho Code § 48-601 *et seq.*¹

The Office of the Idaho Attorney General supports the relief requested in the Limited Objection as the contemplated sales appears to violate the Idaho Consumer Protection Act. You are expressly authorized and encouraged to share this letter with U.S. Bankruptcy Court determining the Limited Objection, including for the hearing on the Limited Objection scheduled for March 25, 2015.

Re: In re Radio Shack Corporation, Chapter 11, Case No. 15-10197-KJC

Dear Mr. Morris,

We are writing to express our support for the Texas Attorney General's Limited Objection to Sale of Personally Identifiable Information of One Hundred and Seventeen Million Consumers. As Texas' pleading explains, Radio Shack seeks to sell consumers' private information, including names, phone numbers, mailing addresses, email addresses, and in some instances activity data. This is information that consumers provided in reliance on the express privacy assurances that Radio Shack made. The Consumer Fraud Bureau of the Illinois Attorney General's Office (the "Bureau") shares Texas' concern that Radio Shack Corporation's sale of consumer Personally Identifiable Information is contrary to the representations the company made to consumers in its privacy policies. Such a misrepresentation would violate the Illinois Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act, 815 ILCS 505/1 et seq., which defines unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices, to include but not be limited to "the use or employment of any deception fraud, false pretense, false promise, misrepresentation or the concealment, suppression or omission of any material fact, with intent that others rely upon the concealment, suppression or omission of such material fact, or the use or employment of any practice described in Section 2 of the "Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act," approved August 5, 1965, in the conduct of any trade or commerce are hereby declared unlawful whether any person has in fact been misled, deceived or damaged thereby." Illinois Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act, 815 ILCS 505/2.

Accordingly, the Bureau agrees with Texas' objection to Debtor's Combined Motion for Entry of Orders: (I) Establishing Bidding and Sale Procedures; (II) Approving the Sale of Assets; and (III) Granting Related Relief (Docket No. 36), pursuant to which the Debtors seek to sell numerous assets, including consumer Personally Identifiable Information.

Dear Mr. Morris:

We are writing to express our support for the Texas Attorney General's Limited Objection to Sale of Personally Identifiable Information of One Hundred and Seventeen Million Consumers (the "Objection"). As Texas' Objection explains, Radio Shack Corporation seeks to sell consumers' Personally Identifiable Information ("PII"), including names, phone numbers, mailing addresses, email addresses, and in some instances activity data. This information was provided by consumers in reliance on Radio Shack's express privacy policies, which unequivocally state that consumer PII will not be sold.

The Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, shares Texas' concern that Radio Shack Corporation's sale of consumer PII is contrary to the representations the company made to consumers in its privacy policies. Such misrepresentations would violate the Massachusetts Consumer Protection Act, Mass. Gen. L. c. 93A, which makes "unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce" unlawful. Id. § 2. Accordingly, the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office agrees and supports with Texas' Objection to Debtor's Combined Motion for Entry of Orders: (I) Establishing Bidding and Sale Procedures; (II) Approving the Sale of Assets; and (III) Granting Related Relief (Docket No. 36), pursuant to which the Debtors seek to sell numerous assets, including consumer PII.

Re: Radio Shack Corporation Bankruptcy Sale
Case No. 15-10197-KJC (Delaware)

Dear Mr. Morris:

Thank you for your communication regarding the proposal by Radio Shack Corporation, as debtor in Delaware bankruptcy case #15-10197-KJC, to sell personally identifiable information of its former customers. While the assets to be sold are diverse, this letter concerns only the sale of personally identifiable information.

Radio Shack proposes this sale under 11 U.S.C. § 363. The sale of personally identifiable information under that provision is subject to restrictions, where such a sale would violate applicable non-bankruptcy law.

Hal F. Morris
Assistant Atty General

March 23, 2015

After reviewing this matter, we conclude that the proposed sale of personally identifiable information would violate Wis. Stat. § 100.18, as to Wisconsin consumers. In brief, that law prohibits misrepresentation. Transactions in which consumers are promised that their disclosures of personal information will be used only by the merchant with whom they are dealing, only to have that merchant subsequently sell that information, violate that statute.

Our office fully supports the relief Texas has requested in its Limited Objection. Wisconsin authorizes your office to disclose this letter to the court and counsel in opposition to the proposed sale.

In re: Radio Shack Bankruptcy

Dear Mr. Morris:

I have reviewed the Texas Attorney General's Limited Objection to Debtor's Sale of Consumers' Personally Identifiable Information for 117 million consumers nationwide. The sale, which is to be held Pursuant to Debtor's "Combined Motion for Entry of Orders: (I) Establishing Bidding and Sale Procedures; (II) Approving the Sale of Assets; and (III) Granting Related Relief" (DN 36), seeks to allow the sale of numerous assets including many consumer's Personally Identifiable Information.

The Kentucky Attorney General's Office fully supports the relief requested in Texas's Limited Objection. You are expressly authorized and encouraged to share this letter and the Kentucky Attorney General's support with U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Shannon, who is hearing the matter on Wednesday, March 25, 2015.

Sincerely,
