COUNCILMEMBER REPORTS AND COMMENTS

Councilmember Arias Reports and Comments: Acknowledged the residents of West Fresno who participated in painting the historic pedestrian lights on Kerney Boulevard. Announced a $100,000 investment by District 3 to restore and repair the historic signage, aiming to beautify the area. Acknowledged the police department for arresting an arsonist responsible for several dumpster fires in Downtown Fresno and Chinatown.

Councilmember Chavez Reports and Comments: Acknowledged the police response to the recent incident where an officer was ambushed. Expressed gratitude to the special unit team that was honored with a proclamation. Well-Wishes were extended for a speedy recovery for the injured officers and for continued support for the other officers involved in the incident.

Councilmember Esparza Reports and Comments: Echoed Councilmember Chavez remarks expressing gratitude to the police department for their service regarding the incident where an officer was shot. Attended the Special Guerrilla Units (SGU) Veterans Reception at the Fresno Center, honoring the courage and sacrifice of SGU veterans and their families. Attended the Central Valley Latino Leadership Academy (CVLA) graduation ceremony, congratulating the fellows on their achievements and growth as community leaders. Participated in a Trunk or Treat event at Manchester Center Halloween celebration organized with the police department, Manchester Center, and community organizations. Wished everyone a safe and happy Halloween, reminding families to stay safe while trick-or-treating.

Vice President Karbassi Reports and Comments: Wished everyone a happy Halloween, reminded drivers to watch for trick-or-treaters, and encouraged parents to be vigilant. Attended a Trunk or Treat at Kratt Elementary and Gibson Elementary and the Literary Festival at Bullard Talent, expressing appreciation to Fig Garden Village for welcoming trick-or-treaters. Acknowledged Diwali, the Hindu festival of lights, and wished everyone celebrating a safe holiday. Congratulated the Los Angeles Dodgers fans on the recent win, with a special shoutout to Kevin Mahan for being a fan. Expressed gratitude to Directors Scott Mozier and Jennifer Clark for their informative and patient collaboration. Recognized the Public Works Department for their ongoing work on the Marks Avenue project, thanking crews for maintaining traffic flow and improving the road. Mentioned landscaping improvements along the Audubon Corridor and a new traffic signal. Participated in the “Firefighter for a Day” challenge, gaining an appreciation for the physical demands of the job and the value of the Automatic External Defibrillator (AED). Acknowledged the recent injury of a sergeant in the line of duty, appreciating the Mayor, Chief Casto, and Employee Services for their leadership and support. Recognized the sacrifice of the officer’s family and highlighted the bravery of law enforcement in keeping the community safe.

Council President Perea Reports and Comments: Acknowledged the ongoing infrastructure projects throughout District One, including road repairs, curb and gutter improvements, and sidewalk fixes, with thanks to the public works team for prioritizing these efforts. Hosted several meetings across the district, engaging with neighbors on topics like public safety and community growth, with support from the Planning Department and Police Department. Hosted a community-centered Pumpkins in the Park event at Trolley Park in the historical Fresno High District. Recognized the City Attorney and Code Enforcement team for securing a tobacco grant, highlighting its importance for public safety.

MAYOR/MANAGER REPORTS AND COMMENTS

Mayor Dyer Reports and Comments: Appreciation expressed to council members who reached out regarding the sergeant who was shot in the line of duty. The sergeant showed remarkable bravery, pursuing a suspect after being shot multiple times, and displayed a positive attitude during a hospital visit, eager to return to work. Announced the free vaccination and microchipping clinic held at the animal center in partnership with the San Francisco SPCA. Due to high demand, another clinic is planned soon. Attended an event at Campus Point highlighting the new Hino Oishi restaurant the largest in Fresno, and possibly the largest in California. Announced the opening of 57 new housing units and the development of the Hyatt House hotel contributing to Fresno's economic growth.
