

Friend --

There are only 48 hours left -- so I'll be blunt:

If we get blown out on this first quarterly fundraising deadline, President Obama's agenda is toast.

Boehner is already bragging about the Republicans' $14.4 million haul this month. With that kind of cash, they can rip apart everything President Obama proposes for the next two years.

The only chance we've got is to call out their lies, fight back with the facts, and expose Republicans' extreme Tea Party agenda.

As of 9am, we are $737,000 short of what we need to close the fundraising gap and fight Republican attacks before Sunday's fundraising deadline.

Donate today and we'll triple-match your gift: Chip in \$3 or more to support President Obama's agenda >>

You and I worked too hard in 2012 to let the Republicans derail President Obama's agenda. Let's use the first big fundraising report of the year to show that we're not done fighting for change.

Donate $3 or more right now -- when your donation will make the biggest difference.

All donations are triple-matched: <http://dccc.org/48-Hours-Left>

Thanks,

Missy
