EVANSVILLE-VANDEBURGH AIRPORT AUTHORITY BOARD OF DIRECTORS WELCOMES KYLE FIELDS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 7, 2025

EVANSVILLE, IN – Mayor Stephanie Terry has appointed Evansville native and global finance leader Kyle Fields to the Evansville-Vanderburgh Airport Authority District (EVAAD) Board of Directors.

“It’s a privilege to welcome Kyle to our Airport Authority Board,” said Nate Hahn, Evansville Regional Airport Executive Director. “Kyle’s extensive financial and operational experience, along with his global business insight and entrepreneurial spirit, will be an asset to the board and the airport’s continued strategic growth.”

Fields is the founder of Bridge Alternatives, an Evansville-headquartered firm that provides accounting and finance solutions to private equity, venture capital, hedge funds and businesses worldwide. With over 18 years of experience in finance, technology and performance optimization, Fields has built a reputation for helping clients streamline operations, maximize performance and increase profitability.

He is a graduate of the University of Southern Indiana and began his career with PricewaterhouseCoopers, where he earned his Certified Public Accounting designation.

“I’m honored to serve on the Airport Authority Board and contribute to the exciting momentum at Evansville Regional Airport,” said Fields. “As someone deeply committed to our region, I look forward to helping support growth, innovation and opportunity through the work of this board and the leadership team at EVV.”

Rev. Adrian Brooks, EVAAD Board President, added, “Kyle brings a strong foundation in finance, business strategy, leadership and community investment. His insight and commitment to excellence will further enhance the strength and diversity of our board, and I look forward to serving alongside Kyle.”

Fields, filling the vacancy left by Pete Paradossi, joins current board members Rev. Adrian Brooks, Paul Green, Kimberly Redding and Paul Saunders.
