ATTEND A RESISTANCE RECESS EVENT

The first Resistance Recess in February was a huge success, and constituent activity has been widely credited with building the power to stop Trump and Ryan from taking away our health care. As Trump remains under investigation and as Congress continues to push Trump’s unconstitutional and dangerous agenda, we must make sure that no one allows the passing of time to normalize this president and his harmful policies.

That’s why we’re preparing for another Resistance Recess, April 7–23, when members of Congress are back home for two weeks for their “spring break.” We’ll attend their town hall meetings, organize our own “constituent town halls” and invite our members of Congress if they fail to plan their own, and show up everywhere else they do, so that they understand our message of resistance.

Will you join fellow constituents and attend a Resistance Recess action April 7-23?
