

MARK ZUCKERBERG: STOP COVERING UP GENOCIDE

SumOfUs<sup>7</sup>

In 2017, the Burmese military launched a relentless attack on the Rohingya minority group, massacring families, raping women and girls, and burning entire villages.

Hate speech and disinformation about the Rohingya spread like wildfire on Facebook and helped incite this horrific violence.

Now Facebook refuses to share evidence with an international court that could prove the Burmese military intended to commit genocide.

Facebook already helped fuel this genocide. Now will it stand in the way of justice?

---

If you're a Facebook employee and would like to help bring justice to the Rohingya community, or would like to leave a confidential tip about Facebook or other tech platforms, visit: sumofus.org/tips

