

HELIX® 3016

Innovation intertwined with safety. That's the DNA of the Helix® Series. The Helix® 3016 features an ultra-thin 21-gauge HPPE/steel blend shell with seamless construction offering advanced comfort and dexterity on the job.

The back-of-hand sewn-on IR-X® Impact Exoskeleton™ with high-flex design provides level 2 protection, while the ultra-thin foam nitrile coating on the palm provides superior grip, tactility, and touchscreen capability.
