MAINE COLLEGE RESIDENTIAL ID SOCCER CAMP DESCRIPTION

We are proud to announce our 2013 Maine Residential College Identification camp. This camp is designed to offer an opportunity for high school players that aspire to play college soccer in Maine the chance to showcase their abilities and ultimately be identified by Maine college coaches. This is being offered to rising players entering their sophomore, junior, senior year of high school and entering their freshman year of college. Players will receive training and instruction from top college coaches from Maine. This camp will give players the opportunity to showcase their talents through small sided games and 11v11 evening matches. Goalkeepers will receive separate training and be integrated into all games. All players will receive a tee shirt and written evaluation at the end of camp and will be provided feedback from their coaches. Camp will be held at Thomas College located in Waterville, Maine. Thomas College is located in beautiful central Maine just minutes from the Belgrade Lakes region and just over an hour from the Maine coast and mountains. Facilities include two new state of the art turf fields with lights which are placed side by side along the picturesque Kennebec river. Campers will be receiving meals in the newly re-designed dining center with access to the dog pound which has pool tables, ping pong and several large flat screen televisions.
