

Cedars

by William Brown, MD

Neath cedars stately, proud and tall
We gather to answer the call
Of Mount Lebanon High Class of '65
To reunite, to reminisce, to jive

We'll share our stories, we'll share our laughs
We'll catch up on life's winding paths
And as we walk down memory lane
Our bond will strengthen once again

So mark your calendars, save the date
Let's gather and celebrate
The place where we learned, grew, and thrived
Mount Lebanon High, our alma mater and pride.
