High School Reunion-in present
Music: Joe Negri
Lyrics: Bob McCully, edited by Mike. Clark

(Verse) Have you ever been to a High School Reunion?
Well, I am at mine tonight
I'd heard so much about this Taylor Allderdice Reunion
I thought I'd just go and get tight
So I came to my TA Reunion
With qualms and reservations
I know very well it might be a shock
I was filled with trepidation

But…

I am having a wonderful time at my High School reunion
A wonderful time I admit
All of you classmates have grown so much older
And I haven't changed a bit

(You know) it's hard to believe
That you middle-aged codgers
At one time were classmates of mine
Like Ed Solomon, Michael Stuthers, and John Shettel,
And my face hardly shows a line.

Oh, I will acknowledge my hair has grown grayer
It's my only concession to time
It's funny how some of us stay younger looking
I know I'm just approaching my prime

I'm having a wonderful time at this High School Reunion
But you know it's as strange as can be
All of you classmates who look rather ancient
Think you look as young as me

Now I will acknowledge that some of you
Are plagued with avoirdupois
Those coltish young beauties
Are now grown out women
And boys are now men, not boys

I'm having a wonderful time at the Allderdice reunion
A wonderful time I admit
All of my friends have grown so much older
But me – I haven't changed a bit
