DEAN BOND ON BOARD OF THE PROTESTANT WORLD
Another indication of the respect that Protestant leaders hold for the Dean of the School of Theology at Alfred University, is indicated in the announcement made recently by the publishers of The Protestant World, a new religious journal to be first issued early in 1950, Dr. Robert E. Searle, secretary of the executive committee of the Protestant Council, has revealed that Dr. A. J. C. Bond will be included on the corporation board of three hundred members for the new Protestant publication. The purpose of the new paper, according to Dr. Searle, will be to "create a sense of community among Protestants throughout the world and to furnish a medium of exchange for ideas and information among Churches of all denominations."

For many years Dean Bond has represented Seventh Day Baptists in important interchurch organizations. Through his personal attendance at the world assemblies of the Faith and Order Movement and the Continuation Committee of the World Council of Churches, he has made the influence of the denomination felt among the representatives, all of whom are Baptists.

In his classes at the School of Theology he has given to his students an intimate glimpse into the eccumenical movement and a concern for the place of Seventh Day Baptists in the larger family of denominations.

David Sung Was Here
Last Sabbath afternoon about fifty people listened with interest to one of our native Chinese Seventh Day Baptists listened to Dr. P. W. H. Sung, dean of the school in Shanghai, and Si-Tian, his brother-in-law, tell of the work of a four-year school program in Beijing, of his faith that missionaries could soon go back to a non-Communist China.

CONGRATULATIONS, EVERYBODY!

The 1949 Year Book is off the press! The first copies became available on Friday, November 11. This truly is a record for some years at least.

It all dates back to Riverside. As we entered the Riverside Junior College on Monday morning, August 22, there sat Rev. Loyal F. Hurley, Dr. Paul C. Saunders, and Miss Lois Wells at the recording secretary's desk putting the finishing touches to the General Conference minutes.

Immediately, then, as we understand, the minutes were sent to Plainfield to be typed, read, and turned over to Miss Hazel V. Gamble. And, we further understand, that this stepped up procedure was made possible by the readiness with which Manager L. H. North of the Seventh Day Baptist Publishing House accepted the Conference minutes from Recording Secretary Paul C. Saunders.

Upon completion of her laborious task, Year Book Editor Hazel V. Gamble returned the minutes to the publishing house for printing. After being carefully set in type among the other operators, galley proofs were submitted to the proofroom for accurate reading and correction, and to the month's edition. Dr. Saunders for re-division and correction.

Finally after detailed, last-minute corrections in the proofroom, the proof was handed to the printer.

We might continue the story step by step all the way up to the finished copy, for the step-by-step process still required many hours of labor. However, the most important part is that the Year Book for 1949 is in our hands.

What a mountain of work and an ocean of energy produce an item such as the Year Book, it deserves more than a dust-gathering, carelessly-consigned-corner existence. It is up to us to make the best possible use of it.

So, congratulations, everybody!

IT'S DARK IN THERE
We were making our way from the Liberty Street ferry to an uptown, subway in New York City in the company of a friend recently. As we approached the alleyway of the Second Precinct Police Station, which runs from street to street, we mentioned the short cut to the next street.

This friend proposed, "Let us stay out here. It's dark in there." There was much pleasure at the sidewalk and to stay out in the sunlight and fresh air. And as far as saving time and steps are concerned, very little time and very few steps are saved.

"Let's stay out here. It is dark in there."

This comment of our friend set us to thinking.

Every experience has at least two possibilities - before and becomes experience. If we choose one possibility, we may be moving toward and walking through the dark. The other choice may lead toward and into the light. Of course many experiences are a result of the influence of both dark and light.

In God's Sunshine
How well do we remember when we lived in New Auburn, Wis., about four miles from New Auburn, Wis.? During the spring that we were there, as soon as the sun appeared through the mists of the morning, our world would exclaim, "Hush up, mummy, let's go out in the sunshine!"

This old world needs to go out into God's sunshine. We are as a part of this world, need to get out into the sunshine of His love and forgiveness and power. We need to stay there, and live and move and have our being there. Otherwise, we live in the dark. "It is dark in there."

If "the powers that be" in this world should suddenly decide that they are all that is necessary, and that the sunshine of God's love and forgiveness and power and stay there, peace on earth and good will among men will have vanished. Yes, it is not as simple as all that. To get out into God's sunshine and to stay there requires a change of mind and heart. So many of us want peace and good will, in principle at least, without accepting the
MEET OUR CONFERENCE PRESIDENT

Some folks would like to know more about our Conference president. To say that he is the son of Rev. Lely D. Seager, of blessed memory, and Bianca Maxson Seager, will register immediately with older folks throughout the denomination.

Dr. Lloyd D. Seager, Conference president, was born at Farina, Ill., July 26, 1902. He attended Randolph Grade School at New Milton, W. Va., four years, and completed his elementary school as well as two years of his high school education at Farina, Ill. He was graduated from Hopewell Township High School, Shiloh, N. J., in 1921.

President Seager attended Milton College, Milton, W. Va., 1921-25, being graduated with the A.B. degree. He served as principal of the Farina, Ill., High School, 1925-26. He entered the University of Illinois in 1927 and was graduated with the M.S. degree in 1929. During this latter period he was assistant instructor in Physiology. He became assistant instructor in Physiology at St. Louis Medical School in 1929 and was graduated from that institution with the M.D. degree in 1934. He continued at the medical school in St. Louis as instructor in Pharmacology, 1934-39.

Dr. Seager served as assistant professor of Pharmacology at the University of Tennessee Medical School at Memphis, 1940-44, and as professor of Pharmacology and Toxicology at the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania, 1944-49. In June of this year he became professor and head of the Departments of Physiology and Pharmacology at the University of Arkansas School of Medicine at Little Rock.

At the age of twelve, Lloyd was baptized by Rev. Leslie O. Greene at Farina, III., and united with the Seventh Day Baptist Church of Farina on April 10, 1915, of which Church he is yet a member.

Lloyd Donald Seager and Oma Joan Pierce were united in marriage by Rev. Lely D. Seager, the bridegroom's father, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pierce, Fouke, Ark., August 24, 1927.

Dr. and Mrs. Seager have a family of one son and two daughters: Irving, 20, a junior in Salem College, Salem, W. Va.; Miriam, 16, a junior in Little Rock, Ark., High School; and Loretta, 13, in the ninth grade.

The younger folks of our denomination are deeply pleased to be acquainted with the Seager family as they visit Seventh Day Baptist Churches and lone Sabbathkeepers from time to time. Especially have a larger number of our members living in the unhappy Soviet-Russian Zone. Only one of them had come by the official permit, while two others passed the iron curtain without going through official channels. Else Dobberke from Berlin who brought into memory the well-known, sad pictures of the East Zone.

Telegrams of some parts of Germany gave witness of the great interest of those who could not manage to be present. The greetings and wishes of our American brethren and sisters which were personally brought over by Brother Bruhn caused great joy. By taking this opportunity, all conference visitors wish to say many thanks to them. We also received greetings from Sister Hennes at Vilsia, Calif., in memory of her home Church. A sermon was then delivered by Brother Bahlke on the Scripture text, John 20: 31. After, we had dinner together in the house of the "Christlicher Verein junger Männer" (Y.M.C.A.), Hamburg, 40 An der Alster, the place where further meetings continued. For all partakers in the conference, the dinner and coffee and cake were served free, on both days, and to a great part the needed materials were brought over by Brother Bruhn in pictures of the East Zone. The guiding thought of the Bible for this conference was: "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." 2 Peter 3: 18.

The leading thought of all the meetings for these three days was from this apocalyptic word. On Sabbath morning the short watch and prayer was held by Brother Schlutig, followed by the Sabbath school which was held by Brother Bahlke, with the lesson and discussion about the age of the patriarchs. After this the elder of our Churches, Brother Heinrich Bruhn greeted all who were present. He especially thought of all our members living in the unhappy Soviet-Russian Zone. given for this purpose by our American brothers and sisters.

In the afternoon Brother Bruhn gave a report about his journey to the General Conference in Riverside, Calif. On a map he showed the long trip he made through the United States and also showed a green placard that was given to him from the Church World Service, that invites, “Give through your Church for Overseas Relief and Reconstruction” to lighten the misery of the world.

Brother Bruhn spoke about his impressions in the U.S.A. and appreciated with gratefulness all the help and sacrificing of the Americans, as well as all the extreme kindness and cordiality he received everywhere, not only from our brothers and sisters of equal faith, but also from business and other people he met and could speak to. Is not this a token to all men how necessary it is to take up personal contacts between the so-called, or former enemies? Through signs, which really show how much more and dearer to stretch a hand of peace than to stick to thoughts of hate in self consumption? Is not this plainly one of our tasks, as Christians and Churches, to act with enlightenment and brotherhood? How much easier could we master all the misery in this world to glorify God!

Before Sabbath closing, Brother Witte (Oeynhausen) led an hour of blessed experiences, in which all members had the opportunity to express their special experiences.

In the forenoon on Sunday, Brother Kohler (Braunschweig) first had a short service, and in continuation Brother Hennig spoke about “Christ as the Head of the Church.” Ephesians 1: 9-23.

In the afternoon Brother Bock (Gelsenkirchen) spoke about prophecies for the end of this world.

After we had our refreshments of coffee and cake, Brother Hennig gave a sermon about baptism, based on 1 Peter 3: 18-21.

The delegates confirmed in view of all conference partakers the Committee of Confederacy for the following year, 1950.

At all the meetings there were assemblies about 90 to 100 partakers. With the closing prayer and benediction, the conference was finished.

The sermons will be published separately.

With most heartfelt greetings, for the Confederacy Board, H. Bruhn.

MRS. MARY H. BOEHLER WRITES TO “BACK TO THE BIBLE BROADCAST”

Dear Christian Friend:

There is only one objection I have to make to your teachings and that is your unbiblical Sundaykeeping. There is absolutely no Bible authority for changing the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week. In fact, it was many years after Christ’s death, before Christians began resting on the “Venerable Day of the Sun.”

You infer that to keep God’s laws one could do absolutely nothing on the Sabbath, yourself, said that Christ kept the Sabbath law. It was a custom for God’s people to care for their livestock on the Sabbath. Christ healed the sick and approved of his disciples’ picking and eating corn on the Sabbath. “Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps.” 1 Peter 2: 21b.

All Sabbathkeepers will agree with you that we are saved by grace through faith— but, “Even so, faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.” James 2: 17.

In the 19th verse of the same chapter we read that “the devils also believe, and tremble.” Other verses that cannot be lightly passed over are 1 John 2: 3, 15-17; 3: 18, 23, 24; 5: 2, 3.

You say we cannot mix law and grace. Galatians 3: 24 says, “the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.” We are no longer under law but under grace as long as we love God and do His will, or keep His commandments. The minute we break a law we are back under the law in need of Christ’s saving grace.

“Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.” Romans 3: 31. “The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.” Romans 7: 12.

The texts, Ephesians 2: 11-13 and Romans 9: 3, 4, do not refer to the Ten Commandments, but to the ceremonial laws. The same is true with the other references used for Sunday observance. If you will study all such references, particularly Romans 14: 1, you will come to the same conclusion I have.

Notice Christ’s words, “In vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.”

Yours in Christian fellowship,
Mary H. Boehler.

In Your Garden of Prayer

By Maude Ethelyn Rose

The day was overdarked in darkness, My life and soul seemed lost in the night

When I heard the voice of a friend in prayer,

Twas for me—“who wants to do right.”

It surged into my soul the comfort of faith,

And came dazzling, like a ray of light,

Pleasing with our Father in heaven

For the one who wants to do right,

Asking in love and compassion

That through His power and might
Would be guided and welcomed in heaven,

The one who wants to do right.

Oh! Christians so busy and thoughtless,

Pause! think what burdens others bear;

Take time and remember your neighbors

As you kneel—in your Garden of Prayer.

THE SABBATH OF CHRIST AND OF THE
CHRISTIAN APOSTOLIC CHURCH

By Deacon Mark Wiley
Seventh Day Baptist Church, Chicago, Ill.

This Holy Sabbath is, in truth, the same which God chose to bless and hallow above the first six working days of creation; this is the sublime, divinely appointed seventh day. Let us note some facts concerning the Sabbath of God.

God's Sabbath is the foundation for the Sabbath of Christ and of the Christian apostolic Church according to Old Testament writings. At creation God did purposely specify but one day in the week as His Holy Sabbath day. Genesis 2: 2, 3 reads thus: "And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made: ... And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made." Therefore this seventh-day Sabbath was thus ordained the Holy Sabbath of God by His Holy Creator, for all time — for all ages without end, as changeless as the character of Almighty God Himself. The Hebrew Word, in Exodus 31: 13-18, reveals that the great Creator made it a perpetual memorial of His creation, an everlasting sign between God and His people as a witness to all generations that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you.

This first Sabbath became the perpetual memorial of creation. All things in heaven and in the earth were evidence to mortal eyes of Almighty God, an all-wise and beneficent God who was well pleased with His works of creation and who delighted in the perfect character of Adam and Eve made in His own image. In this blissful state Adam and Eve enjoyed the celebration of the first Holy Sabbath. For sin had not yet entered to mar the holy day or the happiness of man. Until sin entered, man was in perfect harmony with the commandments of God. When that great enemy, Satan, deceived our first parents, and they believed Satan's lie, he led them into the sin of transgression of God's holy law of life. They lost their perfect character and brought sin, misery, discord, hate, woe, and death into the world, and these things remain in the world to this present time because of the transgression of God's holy commandments. Obedience to God's holy commandments brings in harmony and beauty of character, love to God and neighbor.

Thus God revealed for all time that the seventh day was to be observed as His Holy Sabbath day, and though men may substitute another day, they are not keeping the Sabbath of God, of Christ, and of the apostolic Church, as we shall see.

In the "wilderness of Sin," when manna was given, God said He would prove whether or not His people would keep His Holy Sabbath day. Exodus 16: 29 was made before the giving of the law at Mount Sinai. The account relates how God brought the Israelites out of slavery to the promised land and took the memory of God's holy commandments into the religion of worship. Deuteronomy 9: 10, 11 reads: "And (he) kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love." "... as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day..." Therefore this seventh day was God's Holy Sabbath day. Genesis 2: 2, 3 shows us the Sabbath observed as His Holy Sabbath day; Exodus 31: 13-18, reveals that the great Creator made it a perpetual and everlasting covenant and sign. Deuteronomy 9: 10; Exodus 31: 13-18.

This Holy Sabbath law of God, Exodus 20: 8-11 reads: "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it." Thus the seventh day was declared to be God's sacred Sabbath day by God, the Creator of heaven and earth, the Lord of all throne of God, and as we have seen in the Genesis account, and by God the Son as well as by the Lord of the Sabbath, the Word of God, as eternal as the Word of God. According to New Testament writings, Christ knew which day was the Sabbath, for He made it. In John 1: 1-3 we read, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God. ... All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." Therefore, Christ in conjunction with the Father made all things, including the Sabbath day. Read Mark 2: 27, 28, and also His claim in John 1: 15: "... I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love." "... as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day..." Thus the sabbath day was given, God said He would prove whether or not His people would keep His Holy Sabbath day. Exodus 16: 29 was made before the giving of the law at Mount Sinai. The account relates how God brought the Israelites out of slavery to the promised land and took the memory of God's holy commandments into the religion of worship. Deuteronomy 9: 10, 11 reads: "And (he) kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love." "... as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day..." Therefore this seventh day was God's Holy Sabbath day. Genesis 2: 2, 3 shows us the Sabbath observed as His Holy Sabbath day; Exodus 31: 13-18, reveals that the great Creator made it a perpetual and everlasting covenant and sign. Deuteronomy 9: 10; Exodus 31: 13-18.

This Holy Sabbath law of God, Exodus 20: 8-11 reads: "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it." Thus the seventh day was declared to be God's sacred Sabbath day by God, the Creator of heaven and earth, the Lord of all throne of God, and as we have seen in the Genesis account, and by God the Son as well as by the Lord of the Sabbath, the Word of God, as eternal as the Word of God. THE SABBATH RECORDER

Sunday was a day of the sun worshipers, observed only by the pagan worshipers of the sun in the apostolic times. Confidence to the Christian faith forsoked pagan worship of the sun and kept the Christian Sabbath in common with all apostolic Christians. Therefore, by the example and teaching of the apostles, the seventh day, commonly known as Saturday, is the one and only Sabbath of the Christian apostolic Church.

Sunday, the first day of the week, is a pagan substitute. Sunday is a pagan substitute for the true Christian seventh-day Sabbath according to the commandments of God. It was a common working day without any divine command to keep it as a holy day or in substitution for the Christian Sabbath. You may read the Bible from Genesis to Revelation and you will not find the least authority for the observance of the first day of the week as the Sabbath or for the transference of the Sabbath to Sunday. On the other hand, you will find the authority of God, of Christ and His apostles, and of the apostolic Church for the observance of the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath of God. Therefore God's blessed Sabbath day he kept, it is not the Sabbath day, nor do you keep the Sabbath by observing Sunday as the Sabbath.

Origin of Sunday in the Churches of Christendom according to non-Biblical records. We read in "Morer's Dialogue on the Sabbath," page 189, that the primitive Christians had a great veneration for the Sabbath, and spent the day in devotion and solemnity. And 'tis not to be doubted but they derived this practice from the Apostles themselves. "The historian Coleman tells us that down to the fifth century the observance of the seventh-day Sabbath was continued in the Christian Church." Sunday a man-made commandment designed to substitute the commandment of God, of Christ, and the apostolic Church. As we have seen, there is no divine command to transfer the seventh-day Sabbath to the first day of the week. The first Sunday law was made by a sun worshiper, Constantine, the emperor of the Roman Empire in the fourth century. He ordained Sunday as the day to be reserved in his edict commanding the people to refrain from work on that day, he called Sunday the Lord's Day, page 341, "the Lord's Day," page 341, "the Lord's Day," page 341.
it the "venerable day of the sun." None of the Churches observed, Sunday in the place of the Sabbath until certain Churches represented the Council of Laodicea decided to attempt to transfer the observance of the seventh-day Christian Sabbath to Sunday, the first day of the week. This course of the Churches under its influence to discontinue the observance of the Sabbath and to keep Sunday in place of the Sabbath. (Prynne's Disseration on the Lord's Sabbath, page 165, A.D. 1653.) Many of the Churches refused to comply with the command of the Laodicean Council and remained faithful to God's command in regard to the Sabbath.

Throughout the centuries there have been Christian Churches who remained faithful to the ancient Sabbath of God and of the Christian apostolic Church. We call upon all men to follow the faithful example of the Christian apostolic Church and to obey God rather than men.

The board voted to meet on the fourth place of the Sabbath until certain represented at the Council of Laodicea. The seventh-day, the Laodicean Council and A.D. 1653.) Many of the faithfyl to the ancient Sabbath of God and to obey God rather than men.

We are charged to show charity to the good people, our families, ministers, fellow countrymen, strangers, enemies, and all men. If we follow this instruction, there is no place to be uncharitable. Have we been entirely charitable? That is a question each must answer for herself.

Song or read: "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind."

We merit God's approval when we are charitable to our substance, our help, our criticism, and our love. If we adopt these procedures, surely we will grow more "fervent in spirit" — our slogan for this Conference year.

Song: "More Love to Thee, O Christ."

Prayer: Heavenly Father, giver of all good, we praise Thee for Thy abundance showered upon us. We thank Thee for Thy spirit of love that warms our hearts. Forgive our mistakes and grant that we may have a closer walk with Thee through every day. Bring healing, if it be Thy will, to those who are afflicted in body or spirit. May Thy Holy Spirit show a greater measure of charity at this Christmas season, be blessed with a fervent Christlike spirit, and become an instrument of Peace in Jesus' name. Amen.

REPORT FROM DE RUYTER

(Annual report of the Ladies Benevolent Society of the Day Baptist Church, July 1, 1948, to June 30, 1949.)

The Ladies "Aid" of the De Ruyter Church has spent another busy year doing the Lord's work at home and abroad, and though the group is small, the members have served faithfully. One member, Nora Burdick, has attended all of the meetings of the Aide. Mina Nichols, Cora Coon, Jennie Burdick, and Nina Coon, have missed only one meeting. The total attendance for the year was 92 and 4 visitors, and since there were only eleven meetings this year, brought the average to 8.5. This was a net gain of one member at each meeting more than last year, and a gain of four for the eleven meetings of the entire year.

We very successfully completed our major project for this year, which was a Lord's Acre bazaar and food sale held in October. From this sale we realized $204 which was turned in to the Lord's Acre fund. The food sale proved so popular that we voted to make it a bi-annual event. The next sale will be on the Thursday day of the month in one of the grocery stores. This has netted us $124.01 of which the $30 made at the December sale was sent to the Silver Jubilee Fund in Jamaica.

One of our girls, Eloise Parker, was married in August and, as is the custom, was presented with a quilt from the ladies of the Church, for which she was very grateful.

We have lost two of our honorary members this year: Nina Lidell having been called home to be with her dear husband, and Elizabeth Yapp moving to Syracuse to be near her niece. Upon her departure, she gave a sewing machine, quite two quilt pieces for at least two quilts, and a goodly amount of clothing to be sent overseas, for which she was duly thanked.

Another project of major importance, especially to the recipients, was the packaging and shipping of clothing overseas. An estimated 200 pounds has been packaged and sent from our Church alone.

In accordance with the request from the Women's Board, our monthly dues for the Helper's Fund has been increased to 25 cents per member, and we voted to increase our quarterly contribution to the Women's Board through the Denominational Budget from $8 to $10, which brings it from $35 to $40 per year.

An extra effort was put forth by the Church to raise the rest of the money to finish paying for the Church organ, so upon vote, the ladies gave $15 toward it, making their contribution $25 for the Hammond organ.

When solicited, we gave $5 to the Cancer Fund drive and also sent $5 to help defray expenses at the Madison County Health Camp. Besides this last fund, we had a very nice sale of home canned and baked goods which was called for by the camp director.

Four quilts have been tied this year, one of which was sold at the bazaar last fall, and the others in preparation for the bazaar next month, which is taking the spare moments of all the members.

The final project of the year was made possible by a motion to send two girls to Milwaukee, Wis., many years ago. There was only one convert and that was a small boy. That boy was John L. Huffman. When he became a young man, he wrote to us for God, and we wrote back for God to us. Even one is worth it.

This is a challenge to all of the Sabbath schools which is presented by the Sabbath School Enrollment Campaign, sponsored by the Board of Christian Education.

This Enrollment Campaign is closely related to the program of the Missionary Board in which they challenge the Churches to improve their program of evangelism and to strive for a five per cent increase in Church membership. It is also related to the One Hundred Sabbath Schools of the County, of the Tract Society in which we all are challenged to do a better job of tract distribution and Sabbath promotion. If we all work together, much can be done. As workmen we must "go work today" realizing that we are "saved to serve" and remembering how Jesus urged us to put first things first.

There are definite things recommended by the Board of Christian Education through the Sabbath School Enrollment Campaign. Each Sabbath school is asked to raise for a ten per cent increase in Sabbath school enrollment. If all the Sabbath schools are to reach these goals it means that everyone will have to pray, plan, and work together.

There are five essentials for increasing Sabbath school enrollment and attendance which I would like you to remember. Order to remember these I would like you to look at your right hand. Imagine that on your thumb are written the words, "Want Them." Every member of the Sabbath school should have some of the divine compassion for men which was found in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Master, who wept over Jerusalem. Those who are interested in the work, would be willing to do what is possible for others. Even children can become interested in bringing in other children.

On your first finger we will write the words, "Get Them." If we are to get them, first of all we must find them. It is worthwhile to try to make a survey of your community to determine to whom the membership rolls of the Church, the rolls of the Sabbath school, the Vacation Bible School, and the weekday school, secure the names of newcomers to the community, organize Sabbath school classes to discover persons, and develop a responsibility list, since members of classes, youth fellowships, and other groups will meet neighbors and friends who might be interested in the Church.

The next thing is to bring them in. There is no better way to do this than by visitation. Sabbath school workers may invite the friend of the Church and Church where the gospel is presented to them with the hope that they will be won to Christ and His Church.

All the new people who are brought in must be made to feel welcome in the Sabbath school and Church. It might be well to have families sponsor new families, or individuals look after individuals.

On your second finger write the words, "Keep Them." It is important to bring those enlisted into the life of the Church. There must be definite plans made to do this. The program of your Sabbath school must be rich and varied. It must meet the needs of all its members for the deeper things of the spiritual life.

Many who have had experience in Sabbath school work agree that one of the most important things in holding Sabbath school classes is doing something quite definite about those who do not attend regularly. Personal calls by teacher, superintendent, and pastor are most effective.

It is very important to have well-kept records, which show that the teachers and superintendents. Sabbath school teachers should feel that visiting in the homes of their children is a definite part of their work.

On your third finger we will write the words, "Teach Them." If they are to be taught in a better manner than before, it is a very necessary thing to conduct Leadership Education classes for teachers.

If the Sabbath school program is to be improved there should be monthly meetings of all the workers in the Sabbath school. A better Sabbath school will see that there is an increased use of the Bible, first, by encouraging all teachers and pupils to recognize the basic importance of the Bible in the life of a Christian; second, by aiding teachers in utilizing the Bible to be interpreted in the regular lesson material; third, by promoting its use in the Sabbath school classes to increase familiarity with it; fourth, by generating an atmosphere of loyalty for and dependence upon the Bible throughout the Sabbath school both by the example which teachers and leaders set and by the attention given it in the program; and fifth, by co-operating in special classes of Bible study. The pastor can help "teach them" in a way that those who are to become members of the Church.

On your last finger will be the words, "Win Them." Teachers are urged to think of themselves as their own evangelists. In other words, they are teaching for a verdict. The Sabbath school is endeavoring to develop true Christian disciples. By far the largest number of people brought into the Church come from the Sabbath school.

Now can you remember the five essentials? On your thumb, "Want Them"; first finger, "Seek Them"; second finger, "Keep Them"; third finger, "Teach Them"; and the last finger, "Win Them." The third essential "Teach Them" is very important. Every Sabbath school can have a Leadership Education class. The International Council of Religious Education suggests special classes in Bible study, teaching methods, understanding children, and many others. It is important to use organizations or groups which have regular meetings in conducting study classes. For example, at the prayer meetings of special study for a period from five to ten weeks could be planned and those who attend and do outside study would receive a credit card from our board. Plans for such a study should be submitted by the leader to me for my record. Youth groups, or the Ladies Auxiliary, could have similar studies for their meetings. A part of the time of the

CHURCH NEWS

LITTLE GENESEE, N. Y. — The Little Genesee Church is still working, if it has not been heard from recently.

With regret we accepted the resignation of our pastor, Rev. Charles Bond. The Bonds moved to Westerly, R. I., the first of October. A farewell reception was held at which time a beautiful set of silver was presented.

We welcome our new pastor, Rev. Victor W. Skaggs, and family. A “get-acquainted” reception and program were held October 18.

We observed Communion and annual Church roll-call October 8. Baptism was administered at the Easter season to several young people who joined the Church.

The Church sponsored a well-attended Daily Vacation Bible School this summer.

Two-year pins for perfect Sabbath school attendance were given to the following young people: Dale Bentley, Adelbert Wardner, and Roxanna Wardner.

The ladies of the Sunshine Society have earned more than $900 this year in various ways. A part of this money has gone to the community building project.

Our annual birthday party was held October 26, netting $62.27.
