SUMMARY OF NEWS.

In New Jersey, a strong effort at political corruption has been made. The State House of Assembly has adopted a policy of secrecy in their proceedings. They must give notice of all their applications to be received, but they may not publish them. The Governor of New Jersey has been signed by many members of both houses of Congress, as it was expected that they would be so signed. It is hoped that the signatures will be printed in the New Jersey State Times, as the demand for them has been advanced.

A large number of the people of New Jersey have expressed their approbation of the policy of secrecy in their proceedings. The Governor of New Jersey has been signed by many members of both houses of Congress, as it was expected that they would be so signed. It is hoped that the signatures will be printed in the New Jersey State Times, as the demand for them has been advanced.
