1.02 THE SABBATH

Referring to June 24, 1869.

The Sabbath Recorder.

One of the first duties of the Sabbath is to set the day apart as holy. All religious duties are performed on this day, and all worldly matters are left to the care of God. The day is set apart as a time of rest and leisure, to allow for the spiritual needs of the individual.

The Sabbath is a day of rest and worship, and is observed by many religious denominations. It is a day of reflection and prayer, and is a time for families to come together and spend quality time together.

The Sabbath is a day of observance, and is a time for individuals to spend time in quiet reflection and prayer. It is a day of rest and renewal, and is a time for individuals to reflect on their lives and their relationship with God.
