THE HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

The HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

In taking measures of the subj of a community, we must with out hesitation, do our utmost to ev the end. The principle of the Seabas
was established in the year 1860, by a number of respectable Jews of the city of New York.

The object of this Society is to the religious and moral improve of the Hebrews, and to promote the public welfare.

The Society is governed by a Committee of five, consisting of the following gentlemen:

J. C. Green,
J. W. Brown,
G. W. Davis,
Isaac R. Winston.
