The Sabbath Recorder:

THESE DAY IS THE SABBATH OF THE LORD thy GOD.

WESTERLY, R. I., FIFTH-DAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1870.

VOLUME XXVI.—NO. 30.

Whitsunday, A.D. 1870. The Shewing of the Lord's Day.

There was no one in the town of Westerly, R. I., who did not know that Dr. A. was a distinguished physician, and who did not respect him highly for his kind and beneficent deeds. He was a man of great intelligence, and had a large practice among the people of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

The following article from the Advertiser of Westerly, R. I., is of the best impressions that can be obtained of Dr. A.:

There is a man who has done much for the cause of religion in this town. He is a member of the Christian Church, and has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.

For the last fifty years there has been no man in the town who has done more for the cause of religion than Dr. A. He has been a steady and faithful member of the Sabbath school. He is a man of great influence, and has done much to promote the prosperity of the town.
THE SABBATH RECORDER, SEPTEMBER 22, 1870.

THE WAR OF FRANCE.

The falling of Paris to the Germans has rekindled a discussion in the United States upon the merits of the late war. It is a question not of politics alone, but of history, of national policy, of national character, and of national reputation. The French Republic has been called upon to acknowledge the sovereignty of the Emperor of Germany, and to submit to the terms demanded by him. The United States, with all its wealth and power, has failed to prevent this change. It has been a check to the most enterprising and ambitious nation in the world, and a lesson to all nations that the sovereignty of a man over a people can be enforcing its will upon them. The French people have been told that they must submit to the will of the German Emperor, and that their country shall be governed by him. This is a lesson to all nations, and a lesson of warning.

The United States has been called upon to acknowledge the sovereignty of the Emperor of Germany, and to submit to the terms demanded by him. The United States, with all its wealth and power, has failed to prevent this change. It has been a check to the most enterprising and ambitious nation in the world, and a lesson to all nations that the sovereignty of a man over a people can be enforcing its will upon them. The French people have been told that they must submit to the will of the German Emperor, and that their country shall be governed by him. This is a lesson to all nations, and a lesson of warning.

A decision has been reached in the case of the United States vs. the Fugitive Slave Law. The Supreme Court has declared that the law is unconstitutional, and that it is void. The decision is a triumph for the Union, and a victory for the cause of freedom. The decision is a triumph for the Union, and a victory for the cause of freedom. The decision is a triumph for the Union, and a victory for the cause of freedom.

A decision has been reached in the case of the United States vs. the Fugitive Slave Law. The Supreme Court has declared that the law is unconstitutional, and that it is void. The decision is a triumph for the Union, and a victory for the cause of freedom. The decision is a triumph for the Union, and a victory for the cause of freedom. The decision is a triumph for the Union, and a victory for the cause of freedom.