THE SABBATH RECORDER, NOVEMBER 17, 1870.

THE WAR IN SHIEN.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer, it is reported that the executions of the captive soldiers of the United States by the French troops at the siege of St. Malo will be allowed to proceed to the number of 100,000. The French government has ordered the execution of these soldiers in order to prevent the spread of the war to the other parts of Europe. The French troops have taken possession of the city of St. Malo, and are in a strong position to resist any further resistance. The French government has declared that the war will be continued until the French troops have completely destroyed the United States.

THE ESPERANTO.

We will now give a brief sketch of the history of the Esperanto language. This language was first introduced by the French writer, J. J. V. de la Fontaine, in his work "The History of the English Race," published in 1863. The Esperanto language was adopted by the French government in 1869, and is now in use in all parts of the world. The Esperanto language is a thoroughly scientific and logical language, and is now being taught in all schools and colleges. The Esperanto language is a language of great beauty and elegance, and is now being studied by all the learned and educated men of the world.

THE RECORD.

The record of the Sabbath Recorder for the week ending November 17, 1870, shows that the Sabbath Recorder is now in a very prosperous condition. The Sabbath Recorder is now being read by all the learned and educated men of the world, and is now being taught in all schools and colleges. The Sabbath Recorder is a thoroughly scientific and logical journal, and is now being studied by all the learned and educated men of the world.

THE CARDINALS.

We have now reached the end of the story of the Cardinals, and we are now ready to give a brief sketch of the life of the Cardinal. The Cardinal was a man of great courage and energy, and was a great opponent of the French government. The Cardinal was a man of great beauty and elegance, and was a great opponent of the French government. The Cardinal was a man of great beauty and elegance, and was a great opponent of the French government.
Mr. John W. Powell, a native of Vermont, has been appointed to the position of Collector of the Port of New York, under the direction of the Treasury Department. Mr. Powell is a native of Vermont, and has been a resident of the city of New York for many years. He is a man of high character and integrity, and has long been held in high esteem by the people of the city.

Mr. Powell has been a member of the Board of Aldermen of the city of New York, and has been actively connected with the business of the city for many years. He is a man of great ability and experience, and is well fitted to discharge the duties of the office of Collector of the Port of New York.

The appointment of Mr. Powell is welcomed by the people of the city, and is considered a just and proper one. He is a man of high character and integrity, and is well fitted to discharge the duties of the office of Collector of the Port of New York.