THE SABBATH RECORDER, MARCH 21, 1875.

A BAPTIST SABBATH.

This week, we have a first-class Sabbath, from the Governor of the New Testament, to the Sunday School. A few years ago, when the Sabbath was a day of rest, it was observed in a very strict manner. In many cases, the Sabbath was observed as a day of work, and in others, as a day of recreation. There were, however, some places where the Sabbath was observed as a day of rest, and in these places, it was observed in a very strict manner.

BROTHER OF THE TRACT.

The Rev. W. D. Reynolds, of the Baptist Church, in Franklin, N. C., has been appointed to the position of brother of the Tract. He has been a long-time member of the church, and has been very active in its work. He is a man of great ability, and is well fitted for the position.

THE TRACT DEPARTMENT.

The Tract Department has been very active this week, and has published a number of tracts. Among these, we notice a tract on "The Sabbath," by Dr. J. B. Smith. This tract is well written, and is sure to be read with interest.

REV. E. B. HALL.

Rev. E. B. Hall, of the Baptist Church, in New York, has been appointed to the position of editor of the "Weekly Tract." He is a man of great ability, and is well fitted for the position.
